Symbolic Red Cross Emblem To Appear In Windows Again

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Once again last month, the scarlet emblem of the American Red Cross will appear in the windows of American homes, symbolizing the financial support of the nation in supporting the manifold services of that organization to American fighting men overseas.

In every nation of the world, this red cross has long been the symbol of universal humanitarianism, both in peace and in time of war. Today it is worn by medical corpsmen of all armies and navies serving the wounded. It protects hospital tents, ships, planes and trains. Painted on each of the International Red Cross ships bearing food parcels to prisoners of war and exchanged prisoners homeward, it is a guarantee of safety from acts of war. To the giver doing his part to fulfill the $200,000,000 goal of the American Red Cross in 1945, it represents his personal part in supplying the material things which add to the morale of the American serviceman whether hospitalized or able-bodied.

"The window sticker means more than dollars contributed to the Red Cross," Chairman Basil O'Connor declared. "It means service clubs, canteens, recreation rooms and clubhouses for the men in war theaters."
To the American Red Cross, each window sticker is a family's request to the Red Cross to continue its responsibilities on behalf of the son in Italy, the neighbor's boy half a turn around the globe in the Philippines, and the brother fighting on the Western Front. It is the expression of faith of the American people that the Red Cross will maintain the supplies of surgical dressings, blood plasma and whole blood, kit bags and comfort articles to the battlefronts. It is a vote of gratitude for the millions of food parcels reaching American men in enemy prison camps.

Opening March 1, the third American Red Cross War Fund campaign for $200,000,000—the same as last year—will continue throughout the entire month. More than 1,000,000 volunteers will distribute the familiar window emblems, conducting a house-to-house canvass to fulfill the 1945 quota. Along with the window emblem, each contributor will receive a label tab fashioned after the Red Cross flag—the one known to all as a sign of aid and comfort.

PROMOTED TO SERGEANT

Max E. Pearson, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Pearson, Phenix street, has been promoted to staff sergeant at the Ninth Air Force Bomber base in France. Sergeant Pearson is a radio gunner in a B-26 bomber, Bomber Squadron of the Tiger Strive group.

One third of the heifer calves now saved and raised for replacement purposes turn out to be unprofitable cows. A new method is being tested for judging the four month old heifer.

This is a call to America's Heart

Your Red Cross faces its greatest task!

This is the most important appeal for funds in the history of the American Red Cross.

After three years of war the work of your Red Cross is greater than ever. It must serve millions of our fighting men abroad. It must care for the wounded men. The Red Cross, always at their side, helps to bring them cheer and comfort wherever they may be.

It feeds a helping hand to the thousands of unemployed men—old, wounded—desperately in need of friendly guidance.

And remember, YOU...and you...keep the Red Cross alive. For without you help there could be no Red Cross. There are no special funds to keep up its great humanitarian work. The money must come, as always, from the heart of America—yours!

Our duty is clear... we must keep the Red Cross at the side of our fighting men and our wounded heroes. We must help the Red Cross in its vital job of sending food and medicine to our prisoners... sending the ill and lonely comfort... sending the young blood plasma. The scope of the Red Cross is almost limitless. Every Red Cross worker is your personal manager of sympathy and comfort to your men in uniform.
