Young Artists' Night To Be Held Thursday

The Art Department of the Woman's Club will present the leading young musicians of Kings Mountain in an evening program of Music and Song at the Woman's Club Thursday night at 8:15.

Piano pupils under the direction of Mrs. Aubrey Mauney, Mrs. N. F. McGill and Miss Carpenter as well as the Boys and Girls Glee Clubs, directed by Miss Carpenter and Mrs. Tempeton, the Junior Boys Choir under the leadership of Mrs. Aubrey Mauney will be presented.

"The evening promises one of pleasure and will bespeak a great aim toward the future of the "fourth great material want — first, food, then raiment, then shelter, then music." This statement may seem exaggerated by some. Surely man can live without music, and often many do — without real musih. But whether we recognize it or not the need is there; there is that in every one of us which calls for something that only music can supply," it was stated by Mrs. M. A. Ware.

"So large a part of life is spent in the rush and grind which almost inevitably dulls our fine sensibilities and blinds us to the better things of life that we owe it to ourselves to take time for those things which make for relaxation and for uplift. Among these uplifting agencies music certainly ranks with the first. Music appeals to the love for the beautiful and excites emotion of pleasure, and for these reasons it is considered the purest of the arts," Mrs. Ware concluded.

Mrs. Aubrey Clay has charge of the arrangements for Young Atists Evening and extends an invitation to every father and mother and friends of the Young Artists.

Chaplain Grant, minister of the Protestant faith officiated and the impressive double ring ceremony was used.

The altar was banked with ferns, against which were arranged baskets of white gladoli and lighted canthedral tapers. In the center of altar were placed white satin cushions where the couple knelt for prayer.

The bride was given in marriage by Lieut. Zimmerman and the bridegroom had as his best man Lieut. Michael Rodemeyer.

Mrs. Michael Rodemeyer attended the bride as matron of honor. She wore a pink afternoon dress and carried an arm bouquet of pink carnations, sweet peas and greenery.

The bride wore a biege uniform and carried a white Bible on which posed white gardenias, tied with white satin ribbon.

Only daughter of Dr. Wm. McGill and the late Mrs. Zuba Pursley McGill of Kings Mountain, the bride is a graduate of Kings Mountain high school and attended Montreat Junior college. Long-Stevens Vows Were Taken Tuesday

A marriage of interest in Kings Mountain where the bridegroom formerly lived, was that of Miss Blanche Tabor Stevens and Chief Boatswain Mate Marcus Troy Long, which took place Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock at Gaffney, S. C., at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Vernon Philips, the latter an aunt of the bridegroom.

The Rev. B. L. Koke of Blacksburg, S. C., great uncle of the bridegroom, officiated using the double ring ceremony.

An effective arrangement of Dorothy Perkins roses and larspur made a beautiful setting for the simple and impressive service.

Prior to the ceremony a program of music was rendered by Mrs. Raymond Parker, pianist, and Mrs. Harry Caldwell, soloist. Mrs. Parker played, "Sweetest Story Ever Told," by Stults, and "God Left Only You," by Densmore. Mrs. Caldwell sang "Because" by D'Hardelot and "At Dawning," by Cadman.

The Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin was played for the processional and Mendelssohn's Wedding March for the recessional. During the ceremony the pianist played Liebestraum.

The young couple was unattended and entered the ceremony room together.

The bride wore a modish dress of gray-blue crepe, with black hat and other accessories in black. She carried a quaint nosegay, centered with an orchid whiich she later wore for traveling.

The bride, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Stevens of Council, N. C., is a young woman of unusual loveliness and chaarm. She is a senior at Queens College, Charlotte, where she majored in Primary Education.

The bridegroom, second son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar R. Long, also of Council, is soon completing his sixth year of service with the United States Navy. He has been in a number of major engagements in the Pacific and isa survivor of the ill-fated Lexington. With other survivors he was brought back to the States and was later assigned to service on another air-craft carrier. After a short stay in this section of North Carolina, he will again report for duty on the West Coast.

After the wedding an informal reception was held. Ice cream and cake was served by the hostess assisted by Misses Fannie Carpenter, Dorcas Carpenter and Carolyn Carpenter. The bride was accompanied to Gaffney by her room-mate at Queens College, Miss Shirley Bowman of Marshal, N. C.

Among relatives of the bridegroom attending the wedding from Kings Mountain were: Mr. and Mrs. Troy Carpenter, Misses Carolyn and Dorcas Carpenter, Meek Carpenter, Mrs. A. H. Patterson and Mrs. R. C. Etheridge.
