CLASSIFIED AD RATES
 Rates are 20 cents for one insertion, 35 cents for the second insertion. This means that a classified ad can be run three times for 75 cents. To simplify bookkeeping, the fees are payable in advance except to business firms carrying accounts. For this rate ads are limited to 35 words.
 All classified advertising must be in the Herald office by 2 p. m. Wednesdays to insure publication in the following Thursday edition.

Bonds Over America

CLINTON COURTHOUSE
 Justice as administered from the town court up to the Supreme Court of the United States has played a major role in the growth of this Nation. We appreciate our judicial system and buy War Bonds to supply warships, B-29's and tanks to protect it. The old court house at Clinton, La., with "lawyer's row" behind it, is an inspiring monument to justice's handiwork. There were decided the complex wrangles between cotton planters of East Feliciana from the days of the Republic of West Florida, 1810, onward. It was the guiding hand for peace and happiness in the parish, worth fighting to preserve and worth buying War Bonds for. U.S. Treasury Department

To the People of this Community

You have a D-Day this week. You won't die, lose limbs, sight or mental faculties in battle. Your assignment is to buy extra War Bonds.

There have been many D-Days in this war. D-Day on the Normandy beaches, D-Day on Tarawa, D-Day on Guadalcanal, D-Day on Iwo Jima, D-Day on Okinawa.
 What is it like for your sons, brothers, husbands, friends facing a D-Day in the battle zones? It's prayer and nervousness, nightmarish tension and thoughts of home.
 What's it like for you facing another home front D-Day? You are the only person who can answer this question. No matter what the final story is in this community, you will not have met your responsibility unless you have bought more bonds than ever before in a war loan.
 The opening of the mighty 7th War Loan is an opportunity to rededicate yourself to the task of nailing down the victory.
THE EDITOR

The textile bag situation has grown more serious since V-E Day. Get all possible bags into trade channels.
 Nash is the first county signing up for free cotton classification under the Smith-Doxey Act. Ginners are obtaining bonds, according to Dan Hiller of the Extension Service at State College.

Calvin Harkney Writes About Pacific Action

Pfc. Calvin Harkney, son of Rev. and Mrs. W. L. Harkney, has written his mother a letter including details about the Kings Mountain man's first few days on a Pacific island under Japanese attack.
 A portion of the letter follows:
 "... This island isn't anything like the other one I was on. It is real cold here. We haven't been here very long but we have already gotten a little taste of war. I hardly knew what this war was all about until I arrived here. What I've seen is enough for me. I wish you could see the caves these Japs have back in the mountains. It's almost impossible to get to them, but the Agny is doing a pretty good job. They come out occasionally to get food and we have a little excitement. Our men get a sniper or two every day. We get our part of the bombing raids, too. Just yesterday we had a nice one, and I had a ringside seat. I saw one Jap plane come diving at a ship, and it burst into flames in mid-air. It kept coming but no damage was done. The Japs are not our worse enemy here. The most trouble we have is sanitation. Fleas, flies and malaria. But none of us have been sick yet and we can be thankful that we have a good medical unit..."

Adults' Sewing Class Is To Be Offered Here

All adults interested in sewing classes or help with sewing problems are urged to be present at the Central School home economics department Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Miss Lydia Anne Watkins, vocational home economics teacher, is planning a series of lessons by request and would like to have anyone interested attend the meeting Friday afternoon to plan for the time of the classes and the instruction desired. There is no charge for these lessons as instruction of this nature is part of the vocational program. The department sewing machines and other equipment will be available for use.
