If you are fishing and it thunders take up your hook. Fish won't bite when it thunders.

I never could see any sense in a fool killing himself. The booger man gets him the good book says. If a man asks you to go a mile with him go two. If a friend asks you to borrow two bucks you stand the chance of getting one of them back.

I was hitch-hiking to town the other morning. A taxi buggy rolled by. If he hadn't known I had a dollar would he pick me up? Yes indeed.

If you don't like your neighbor, don't make a special trip around to tell other people. Tell him. He might forgive you.

If a rich man would have to go through the eye of a needle to get to heaven he would have a pretty hard time getting through. If a lady marries for love rather than riches, when poverty comes in at the front door love goes out the back window and often leaves the woman bending over a tub scrubbing on a rub board.

Did you ever hear this one about the woman that killed the state highway patrolman and was sentenced by a S. C. judge to die in the electric chair? Her husband was driving the car. The law stopped the car. She shot and killed him. Her husband's mother died in ten minutes. After hearing the news a man racing on a motorcycle to tell the State Policeman's wife about her husband's death ran into an automobile and was killed. When they tried Mrs. Sipes, they found she was to become a mother. The judge gave her life in the State pen. The warden said she made an ideal prisoner, so she was pardoned. Today she is a free woman.

On the Okinawa Island near Tokyo the women carry babies in tubs on their heads. That's what makes the brats so mean.

God is good, God is great, His mercy endureth forever.
