Ethel Mae Carroll
Weds Sgt. Mauney

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Tech. 1 Sgt. James I. Mauney and Miss Ethel Mae Carroll at First Baptist church, Tuesday evening at eight o'clock. Rev. L. C. Pinnix, pastor of the bride, officiated using the ring ceremony.

Mrs. L. C. Pinnix, organist, played Sunset Meditation, before the entrance of the bridal party and for the professional and recessional, she played the traditional numbers, Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin, and Mendelssohn's Wedding March. During the exchange of vows, Mrs. Pinnix played softly, Schubert's Ave Maria.

The bride had as her maid of honor and only attendant, Miss Louise Harrison, who wore a blue dress with white hat and other accessories in white and corsage of pink roses.

The bride groom had as his best man, his brother, Eddie Mauney, of Kings Mountain.

The bride, a young woman of unusual beauty and charm, wore a modish costume of Magnolia crepe, fashioned with bolero embroidered in gold. Her hat, shoes and gloves were brown and her shoulder corsage, was a purple orchid.

Soon after the ceremony the young couple left for a trip to the mountains. Mrs. Mauney donned a black going-away costume with black accessories.

Miss Vivian Prince Is Bride of Sgt. Alston

The marriage of Miss Vivian Prince and Sgt. Thomas T. Alston, Jr., took place in private ceremony on last Wednesday evening at 8:30 o'clock at the parsonage of Jarvis Memorial Methodist Church, Greenville, N. C., with the Rev. R. W. Bradshaw, officiating. The ring ceremony was used.

The bride, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Prince, of Kings Mountain, is a graduate of Kings Mountain high school and Advertising Art school, Nashville, Tenn. For some time she has held of position as advertising artist for the Charlotte Engraving company.

The bridegroom is a son of M-Sgt. Thomas H. Alston, Sr., and Mrs. Alston of Thornton, Ark.

The young couple made a short visit at the home of the bride's parents and in Charlotte during the week-end returning to Greenville, where Sgt. Alston who is with the U. S. Marines is stationed.

The bride will remain in Greenville during her husband's stay at that place.

Janice Eileen Wengard Celebrates Birthday

Little Janice Eileen Wengard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Wengard of Dundalk, Md., celebrated her third birthday Saturday, June 30th, at 4 o'clock. More than a dozen of Janice's little friends and many mothers met at her home in Baltimore on the apartment lawn. Outdoor games were enjoyed and many prizes were won. Popcorn and attractive favors consisting of colorful paper hats and little place baskets were presented to the guests and lent a festive air to the occasion.

A big decorated birthday cake topped by three candles was cut by the young honoree's mother (the former Mildred Laughter of Kings Mountain). Ice cream, orangeade, cake and candy were served.

Janice received many nice gifts and cards.

Mr. and Mrs. Wengard were assisted in serving refreshments by Mrs. John Grove of Baltimore, Md.

Tolerton-Long
Vows Announced

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Doris Jean Tolerton and Paul Luther Long FC2e U. S. Navy. The marriage took place at the altar of Trinity Methodist church, Dallas, Texas, with the Rev. Clinton L. Bowen, officiating.

The young couple are natives of Dallas, Texas, but the bridegroom's father, Robert L. Long, was a former resident of Kings Mountain and the young man visited in Kings Mountain a number of times during his boyhood. For more than three years he has been with the destroyer Mustin in the Pacific and recently came to his home in Dallas, Texas.

The young couple arrived in Washington, D. C., this week where the young man will have six months special training before re-assignment to duty.

Met Monday Evening
Misses Nancy Suber, Fay Moss and Mary Evelyn Goforth were hostesses at a delightful meeting of the young women's circle of Central Methodist church Monday night. The meeting was held on the lawn at the rear of Mrs. Charlie Goforth's home.

After the devotional service and business meeting Mrs. J. G. Winkler led in an interesting discussion of the Bible Study taken from Ephesians.

At the conclusion of the meeting the young people enjoyed a social hour and a tempting ice course which was served.

Mrs. O. O. Jackson, president of the Woman's Society of Christian Service was a special guest of the meeting.

Members of Circle Number One met on the same evening at the home of Mrs. W. M. Gantt on North Piedmont avenue, with Mrs. Ellen Croker as hostess.

Following the business session and Bible Study, the members were invited to the lovely lawn where a social hour was enjoyed. Home made ice cream and cookies were served.
