Troop 2 Scouts Win Camp Honors

Troop 2 Boy Scouts returned from 1945's expedition to Piedmont Scout camp at Tryon with two medals for individual performance in the weekly field day.

Bill McGinnis and David Mauney, both of the local troop, finished in a tie for first place, with McGinnis winning first honors by virtue of a coin toss.

The success of the two Scouts this year marked the fourth consecutive year that the troop has brought back honors. Rufus Huffstetler won the medal last year, Sam Mitchem the previous year, and Hoyle Whiteside in 1942.

Fourteen Troop 2 Scouts attended camp this year.

HEROES ON THE ROAD TO VICTORY—

Corporal JAMES GURLEY, on Bougainville, November 1, 1943, as a one-man attacking force, killed thirteen Japs by hurling grenades through the opening of their pill box.

That's real American grit, the kind of courage that reveals the true significance of the slogan "Let's Back The Attack."
