Peanut (Vernon) Smith from the European theater is home for a vacation.

Cpl. Vance Wright is home on a furlough from the Army.

Russell Cobb, recently released from the Army after traveling all over the world, got an honorable discharge, came home, went with the boys to a baseball game at Shelby, got lost, called up over the loud speaker to find out where he was. (The author of this story is R. N. Parrish.)

George Shipman and wife, and Magiee, Mrs. Brodus McDaniel, and Pat enjoyed a picnic dinner at Crawford Lake and battleground, the other day.

I met Mrs. Forest Sipes at Keeter's Saturday. She said Forest has got all the clocks fixed at last, got him a job for the first time in 12 years, already worked 2 weeks. I thought Forest would work if he had time.

Uncle Bill Trotter's wife says her husband 'hain't never fooled her in all the 40 years they have been living together, but the old rascal has tried plenty times.'

There's a lot of good folks never get their name in the paper unless they get in jail or die in a hospital.

When a good-for-nothing woman gets in jail I guess she feels like female fool.

Twenty years ago girls never thought of doing things they do to day and that's the reason they don't do them.

On the Western Front George Stroupe and R. N. Parrish have remodeled their candy kitchen, punice mirrors all around. You can see the reflection of your face in different shades, call for a stick of chewing gum and walk out.

The rain falls down on the just and the unjust just alike. Floods, fire, famine, earthquakes, wars, disease, poverty and pain, come to good and bad alike. Indeed, earthquakes have been know to shake down churches and leave barrooms standing (This is beyond our knowledge.)

Have you ever in your life said things behind one's back, that you dare not say on the front side of his face. If so, you deserve a medal.

We always will have folks who have lots to think about and nothing to think with—just a blank.

If I was a policeman, I wouldn't tote a gun. I would get me a pair of brass knuckles and a straight razor. I'd knock down and drag them in.

The big difference between death and taxes—the death rate don't go up every time Congress meets.

Old Bill Handacet says milk and whiskey is both a beverage and belong in the same class.

MY SON:
Your absence is like a little knife, That cuts me with its blade; And all the time old pal of mine, Deeper into my heart it plays. But, gee, when you come back to me, What a blessing that will be. Forgotten on the blades of time, Forgotten, you just wait and see While my heart beats with love for you.

A gyroscopic device enables an oil-well drill to be steered through rock in any desired direction a mile underground. Drilling can be started on an oil well on shore and oil tapped a mile out to sea.

"BANKER'S-EYE" VIEW OF NEW BANK—Shown above is a view of the new First National Bank as it appears to the men and women who serve bank patrons. Shown are three of the individual counters where patrons may make up deposits, draw checks, or sign forms, the bank entrance, and the entrance to the directors' office.
