HEROES ON THE ROAD TO VICTORY—

The U. S. Submarine "Wahoo," commanded by Lieutenant Commander DUDLEY W. MORFON, sank an entire four-ship Jap convoy, totaling 30,000 tons, in one day, after bagging an 1,800 ton destroyer.

"Home again" will sound good to our veterans—if we make "home" the America they fought for.

Few veterans of World War II will be home renters after they discover how easy it is to buy a home of their own through a Veteran's Guaranteed Loan to which they are entitled under the "G. I. Bill of Rights." Come in and let us explain the details. We welcome this opportunity to be of service to you.
