Miss Nell Falten of East Shelby was a pretty visitor in Kings Mountain the past week.

There's a lot of pretty gals at the county seat.

Roland Hardin came by from Charlotte Sunday and took a bunch to Chimney Rock. Had a swell time and a chicken dinner.

I met aunt Nancy Adams up town. She claims to be an hundred and a dozen. She gets around like a little kitten.

With the scars of war everywhere we are facing the results of the most hideous "Cathocracy" that ever shook God's earth.

A lot of times we pay folks to hate us. While there are a lot of folks around glad to do it for nothing.

Don't read much about Mrs. Roosevelt. She must not be working on the social equality platform. With her wrangle dances she just like to get me bilious last year.

Whatever became of the old Italian that came around with a roller organ on his back and stopped at the door and made music while the monkey danced and ate peanuts. Some of this stuff may have happened before you were born, but I remember it.

Just ask pappy and mammy. I write this column more for the children than I do the grown-ups. Children tell me they hunt for it and if they don't find it they are disappointed and that's that.

If this is the first time the Japs ever got whipped, they got it put on proper and rubbed in. They will be scratching the sore places fifty years after today. Bless their little yellow hides, they won't forget Pearl Harbor in the next hundred years. What scared them to death was that gee-whizz gun — the bomb of all bombs that ever did bomb the earth or any thing else.

I've been asked by a number of good citizens why Eden's pool room didn't close up Victory night like everything else. It's none of my business but I've been asked to ask why so I did.

The suitor: Jones, discouraged, "Yes, I did have something in the bank, but since I met your daughter its all gone.

Father: "Expensive courtship, well you know love makes the world go around."

Jones: "Yes, but I didn't know it would make me loose my balance."

Its believed that, if Peter was the first man that ever told a lie under the New Dispensation, then the cock crew thrice even the rooster knew Peter was a liar.

V-day I knew of a man selling whiskey for $7 a pint. Lots of whiskey for so little bit of money. Whiskey must be good for snake bites.

Yes, the war's over. I will be glad when we quit this day-night saving and get back to the way God fixed it in the beginning of creation. No man has the right to fool with God's plans.

Abraham Lincoln had lots of guts to be a rail splitter. George Washington cut down the cherry tree but he didn't split any rails.

I wonder if the old fellow that cut cord wood at 30 cents a cord ever got rich.

I remember when men split rails 300 for a dollar. A man who split 300 rails in a day was a dollar winner.

I wrote Horace Hord a note to send me some fat back. Horace wrote back, "Yes, the war is over but the fat back went over, too."

I learn we have a first class post office. The floors ought to be carpeted so we wouldn't make so much fuss tooting out the mail. Sure they have first class folks in there to wait on you. If you don't believe it, ask Martha Sue or George.

NEGRO NEWS

By Mrs. Jessie G. Costner

Cpl. Ralph Holland is home visiting his parents, after returning from Germany where he spent sometime.

ON BIG FLATOP

GUAM. — Lester D. Bridges, Sr., seaman, second class, USNR, whose wife, Mrs. Amogene Bridges lives in Kings Mountain, N. C., serves aboard the USS BON HOMME RICARD, one of 20 aircraft carriers in an armada of 133 combat ships that aided in forcing the surrender of Japan.

The BON HOMME RICARD, identified by Fleet Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, Commander in charge, Pacific, as one of the ships of the line under Admiral William F. Halsey, commander, 3rd Fleet, sent waves of planes from her flight deck to bombard Jap cities, factories and airfields in the first days of the war.

The victory was made possible through the courage of men like those on this carrier. The morning of the first attack on the Tokyo area, the men sat down at 2 a. m. for breakfast. The radio blared out with an electrical transcription of "I'm dreaming of a White Christmas." Eyes drifted off with each individual dream or memory of a happy Christmas. "L.A.'s go in and get this damned business over with," somebody snapped. The men emptied their trays and went off to their battle stations.

Misses Dorothy and Lillie Mae Miller of Kings Mountain spent the week end visiting friends in Kannapolis.

Miss Louise Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Miller, Miss Pinkie Curry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt Curry and Osborne Howell, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Howell are home from Newark, N. J.

Rev. F. D. Herndon of Baltimore, Md., is spending two weeks at home with his family on Carpenter street.

Pvt. Herbert Glover is home on a furlough visiting relatives and friends.

Mrs. Blanche Berry and her two daughters, Mrs. Marion Poole, and Mrs. Ruth Feaster and Mrs. Feaster's three children, all of New York City have been visiting in Kings Mountain about two weeks. Mrs. Poole and Mrs. Feaster are former graduates of Davidson school.

Mr. James G. Morgan of Detroit, Mich., spent about two weeks here visiting his family on West King street. He left Tuesday. His wife, Mrs. J. G. Morgan accompanied him as far as Winston-Salem.

The revival meeting was held at Bynum Chapel A. M. E. Zion church last week, conducted by Rev. Duffey of Gastonia.

The revival meeting is being held at Good Hope Presbyterian church this week.
