

REVIVAL SINGERS
—The Phillip's Trio of Belmont is conducting the singing at revival services now underway at Wesleyan Methodist church. Services begin each evening at 7:45. Rev. Perry O. Lusk, of Greenville, S. C., is giving the sermons.

16 Colored Men Receive Examinations

A group of 16 colored registrants of the Kings Mountain selective service board went to Fort Bragg last Thursday for physical examinations to determine their fitness for service in the armed forces. A group of 30 had been scheduled to leave for examinations, but eight were transferred to other boards and five failed to report. Officials of the local board pointed out that registrants are still required to notify the board of changes in address and otherwise keep in touch with the board. A group of six white registrants are scheduled to leave for induction next Wednesday. Colored men receiving pre-induction examinations were: Willie Jay Camp, Jessie Jackson, George Lewis, Robert Eugene Burris, James Calvin Rogers, Allen James Moore, Eddie Evans, Jr., Leader, Charlie Webster Barnes, Javan Sur-ratt, Samuel Pettis, Heyward Johnson, Clyde Odell Webber, James Jefferson Avery, Charles Junior Adams, Carl T. Star and Willie James Thompson. Transferred to other boards were: Charlie Perkins, William Logan, John Dawkins, Jr., Pink David Blacklock, Wardell Giles, William Rufus Thompson, George Crosby, Jr., and Benjamin Franklin Brown. Failing to report were: Aaron Reid, Charles Shepherd, Jr., Earlie March, Junior Blake and Joe Thomas Hall.

Five Cases Tried In Court Session

Only routine infractions were on the docket for the regular session of city recorder's court before Judge O. C. O'Farrell Monday. Ralph Morrow and W. B. Gibson, guilty of public drunkenness, were given sentences of 30 days on the roads, suspended on payment of costs, Jim Hullett, on the same charge, was given a 30-day sentence, suspended on good behavior, and Lawrence Huffstetler was fined $10 and costs on the same count. Felix Johnson, found guilty of driving without a license, was also fined $10 and costs.

Boys Caught In Theft Attempt

William Plato Bennett and Jack W. James were bound over to Superior Court in hearing here Tuesday night, after their arrest on charges of breaking and entering Midway Lunch Sunday night.

City Officer Clay Williams caught the two defendants red-handed at the Midway Lunch Sunday night as they were attempting to rob the place.

It was stated that the two young men were caught with their shoes off and their socks on their hands, evidently to avoid leaving fingerprints.

They were taken to Shelby in custody of local officers for commitment to the county jail to await trial.

Peanuts will be just as important to the nation's economy after the war as they were during the war, according to the United States Department of Agriculture.

"Shortening and cooking and salad oils will not be plentiful for many months to come," stated Secretary of Agriculture Clinton P. Anderson.
