

As Ye Sow, So Shall Ye Reap!

Harvest is a time of definite honesty when reapers gather just what was sown, nothing more. Wheat shocks rise where wheat was planted; the smiling boy takes "ears" from the corn husk; the pretty girls pluck apples from the apple trees. God's laws are unchangeable—"As ye sow, so shall ye reap."

And harvest time is a glorious time, when Nature is colorfully rich—the gold of the waving grain, the pink cheek of the peach, the royal purple of the grape. It is a time when open skies, hot sunshine, warm rains remind us that without such blessings of God, man's abode on earth would be utterly impossible.

Mankind is entirely dependent upon harvest. Then preparation is made for barren winter by filling the mows, the bins, the cribs, the cellar shelves. And at a time when so many are hungry, if not starving, throughout the world, a good harvest through the honest toil of all sincere men and women is exceedingly important.

Good harvests come from good farming, good plowing, good seeding, good cultivation. So also in life! If we sow evil, we reap sin. If we sow charity, we reap love. If we sow faithfulness in Church attendance, we reap alert congregations. If we sow diligence in Church duties, we reap deep spiritual satisfactions. Verily, "As ye sow, so shall ye reap."

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend and support the Church of his choice. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to Church . . . Sunday.
