MRS. HUMES HOUSTON

Miss Sarah Henry Summitt Is Bride Of A. T. Randall, Jr.

The chapel of the First Presbyterian church was the scene of the beautiful wedding of Miss Sara Henry Summitt to Alex Talmadge Randall on Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock. Rev. Hubert Garmon of Yadkinville was assisted by Rev. P. D. Patrick in performing the double ring ceremony before the chancel which was completely covered in white. Wrought iron seven branch candelabra holding white cathedral tapers were flanked on either side with four large baskets of white chrysanthemums and fern. The pews were marked with satin ribbon bows and fern. Mrs. Tom Templeton, organist, played a number of selections preceding the ceremony which included "Nocturne In E Minor," by Chopin; "Prelude In A Minor," by Chopin; "Clair de Lune," Debussy; "Traumeria," Schumann, and "Always" by Irvin Berlin. B. S. Peeler, Jr., vocalist sang "At Dawning" by Cadman and "Because," "To A Wild Rose," by MacDowell was played softly during the ceremony and Mr. Peeler sang "The Lord's Prayer," by Malotte, as a benediction while the couple knelt at the chancel. Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" was played as a processional and "Wagner's March" as the recessional.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Carroll Eric Barnes, wore an exquisite gown of white slipper satin fashioned with a sweetheart neckline trimmed in chauntilly lace and embroidered with seed pearls. Lovers' knots of matching material extended from the neckline to the long waisted skirt which ended in a flowing train. The fitted sleeves ended in calla lily points at the wrist. Her full length veil of imported illusion fell from a coronet or orange bolsons and seed pearls. The bride's bouquet was of white orchids and rose buds showered with streamers caught with tuberoses and fern. Her only ornament was a necklace of pearls.

Miss Annie Laura Summitt, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor and wore a white marquisette off shoulders gown with a fitted bodice and full skirt. A double ruffle of matching material trimmed the neckline. She wore a small white hat with a standing pleated frill and carried an arm bouquet of American Beauty roses.

Little Miss Laura Marie Barnes, niece of the bride, was the flower girl and was dressed identical to the maid of honor. She carried a white basket of rose petals which were scattered on the path of the bride.

Mr. Randall had his brother, Pvt. Mayne Randall of the U. S. Army, as his best man. The ushers were Lt. Charles Wy-song of Greenville, Hubert Davidson, uncle of the bridegroom, Robert Randall, youngest brother of the bridegroom and Campbell Roberts of Shelby.

Mrs. Summitt, mother of the bride, wore a black dress with black accessories and a shoulder bouquet of orchids. Mrs. Randall, the bridegroom's mother, wore a black dress with black accessories and a shoulder bouquet of orchids. Mrs. Randall is the youngest daughter of Mrs. Laura Summitt and the late Henry L. Summitt. She attended Kings Mountain high school and Charlotte Beauty School. For the past two and one-half years she has been owner and manager of the Sara Henry Beauty Shop in this city.

Mr. Randall, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Randall, has been in service for the past five years and served a great part of that time in the European Theater of Operations. Mr. Randall wears five major battle stars and the Bronze Star medal for meritorious service. He received his discharge recently from Fort Bragg. Prior to entering service, he was employed for some time by the Actua Finance Co., of Greenville, S. C.

Immediately following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Randall left for a wedding trip to Florida, after which they will make their home in Kings Mountain.
