Mrs. Pharr Hostess At Monthly Meeting D. A. R.

The Colonel Frederick Hambricht Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution met on Wednesday afternoon at the Woman's club house with Mrs. J. T. Pharr of Grover as hostess.

Mrs. J. S. Norman, regent, presided. The meeting was opened with a prayer by Mrs. Arthur Hay, chaplain. Those present gave the Flag salute and sang two verses of "The Star Spangled Banner" led by the Flag chairman.

The program, which was arranged by Mrs. Frank Summers, was presented by Mrs. Luther Harmon. One of the articles read was entitled, "Foreign Fields That Are Forever America" and told of the care and upkeep of the cemeteries where the fallen heroes of World Wars I and II are buried. The article was accompanied by photographs taken of these "Foreign Fields."

During the business meeting, the ladies made plans to send a bountifully packed Christmas box to their "Adopted L. C. I. Seaman." A Christmas box will also be sent to the "Becker Girl" at Crossnore and a collection of used clothing will be ready for shipment to Crossnore by December 1st for use as the school authorities see fit.

Mrs. Pharr, assisted by friends from Grover, served a delicious salad course.

Miss Ware Wed To Hunter Spearman Sunday

Miss Catherine Ware became the bride of Hunter Spearman in a lovely home ceremony Sunday afternoon at the residence of her grandmother, Mrs. B. G. Barber, on Battleground avenue, where she had resided since childhood.

Rev. Camp officiated, using the double ring ceremony. The vows were spoken in the room before a background of ivy, white chrysanthemums and candelabra holding lighted tapers. Only members of the two families were present.

The bride wore a light blue wool ensemble with black accessories and a shoulder bouquet of sweetheart roses. She is the daughter of Mr. Frank Ware and the late Ava Barber Ware. She was graduated from the Kings Mountain high school in 1944.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Spearman of this city. Since his graduation from the Beth-Ware high school in the spring of this year, he has been located at Camp Blanding, Fla.

Immediately following the ceremony, the couple left for a short wedding trip after which they will make their home at Camp Blanding, Fla.

Mrs. Fulton Hostess To Thursday Book Club

Mrs. H. T. Fulton, Sr., was hostess to members of the Thursday Afternoon Book club and invited guests last week at her home.

Mrs. O. C. O'Farrell, vice president presided in the absence of Mrs. P. D. Patrick, president. Mrs. W. W. Tolleson was in charge of the Thanksgiving program.

The hostess served chicken salad with accessories and a sweet course.

Mr. Stender, Mrs. Mauney To Speak At Church Meets

Rev. W. H. Stender, Mrs. S. A. Mauney, and Mrs. Aubrey Mauney will leave Friday morning to attend two Conference meetings of the Women's Missionary Society of the N. C. Lutheran Synod, including the Northern Conference meeting at Rockwell on Friday, and the Southern Conference at St. James' Church, Cabarrus County, on Saturday. Mr. Stender and Mrs. Aubrey Mauney will speak at the meetings.

Mr. Stender's subject will be "A Cure For a Sick World." Mrs. Mauney, president of the State Missionary organization, will discuss business matters recently approved by the Executive committee.

Lutheran women from this section are expected to attend the Saturday meeting in large numbers.

Bride of Sunday Feted At Prenuptial Shower

Mrs. Alvin Yarborough and Mrs. Leonard Ware honored Miss Katherine Ware, bride-elect of Sunday, at a miscellaneous shower at her home on Grover road last Wednesday night.

Lovely arrangements of chrysanthemums and roses were used in the receiving rooms where games and contests were played during the evening. One of the games was a very interesting one which, when worked out, disclosed the wedding date of the bride-elect. Prizes were awarded Mrs. Eugene Gibson, Mrs. Genevieve Wells, Mrs. Louise Martin and Miss Helen Robbs. These winners presented their prizes to the honoree.

Mrs. Yarborough and Mrs. Ware assisted by Mrs. Louise Martin, served a sandwich and sweet course with Russian tea. The bride-elect's plate was beautifully marked with a corsage of pink rose buds.

After the delicious refreshments were served, Miss Ware was asked to wind a spool of thread to find her treasure. She received many beautiful and useful gifts.

About 22 friends of the honoree were present.

Miss Miller Becomes Bride Of Doyt Taylor

In a ceremony of beautiful simplicity, Miss Kathryn Miller became the bride of Doyt Taylor on Saturday, November 10th at York, S. C. at the home of Judge E. Gettis Nunn.

The bride was lovely in a woolen costume of light blue with white accessories and wore a shoulder bouquet of white chrysanthemums.

Miss Virginia Cplender, the bride's only attendant, wore a blue ensemble with white accessories and a corsage of orchid chrysanthemums.

Richard Price was the bridegroom's best man.

Mrs. Taylor is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Garland Miller of Route 1, Kings Mountain.

Mr. Taylor was discharged upon his recent arrival from the European Theater of Operations where he had served for 2 years. He received the following medals while in service for over three years: Purple Heart, Good Conduct, ETO ribbon, and a Presidential citation. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hunter Taylor, also of route 1, Kings Mountain.

Following the return of the young couple and their attendants from York, the bride's parents entertained the wedding party, relatives and close friends at a wedding dinner given at their home.

Miss Arthur Elected To Y. W. C. A. Office

Miss Marion Arthur, sophomore at Brenau College, Gainesville, Ga. has been elected secretary of the Junior Y. W. C. A. there. This is a position of honor as the organization is of the top-ranking ones on Brenau campus.

Miss Arthur, a popular student and a pledge of Phi Mu National Social Sorority, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Arthur of this city.

Edgar Cooper Accepts Pennsylvania Pastorate

Rev. Edgar Cooper, son of Dr. and Mrs. E. C. Cooper, has accepted a call to serve as pastor of New Hanover Lutheran church, New Hanover, Pa., and he will assume his duties there December 1.

Rev. Cooper was ordained into the Lutheran ministry on October 30, following his graduation at Mt. Airy Lutheran Seminary, Philadelphia, Pa. He is a graduate of Lenoir-Rhyne college at Hickory.

Dr. and Mrs. Cooper attended their son's graduation.

One-Girl Vows Spoken At York

Of much interest to their many friends is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Ruth Gantt to Doris B. Cole on Tuesday, Nov. 6th. The wedding took place at York, S. C., with Judge E. G. Nunn officiating.

The bride was becomingly attired in a gown of black velvet with black accessories. She wore a shoulder bouquet of lovely Sweetheart roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Cole, both formerly of Kings Mountain, are making their home in Charlotte.

Birth Announcements

Lt. and Mrs. George Plonk announce the birth of a daughter, Margaret Julietta, on October 31st. Mrs. Plonk, the former Miss Margaret Cooper, and daughters are making their home in Kings Mountain at present.
