Miss McGinnis Becomes Bride Of Jack Whetstine

St. Matthew's Lutheran church of Kings Mountain was the scene of a wedding of beauty and charm Saturday evening at 6 o'clock when Miss Dorothy McGinnis became the bride of Jack Whetstine.

The Rev. William H. Stender, pastor of the bride, officiated.

The vows were spoken before a background of chrysanthemums and baskets of gladioli flanked with candelabra holding white cathedral tapers.

Mrs. J. E. Herndon, organist, Mrs. James McGill and Jack Prince, soloists, rendered a program of musical selections before the ceremony. Mrs. Herndon played "Romance" by Zitterbart. Mrs. McGill sang, "O Promise Me," by De Koven, and Mr. Prince sang, "I Love You Truly," by Jacob-Bond. The traditional Wedding March from Lohengrin by Wagner was used as the processional.

James McGinnis, brother of the bride, lighted the candles. Ushers were Donald McGinnis, another brother of the bride, and Clyde Whetstine, brother of the bridegroom.

The bride and bridegroom entered the church together unattended.

The bride was attired in a street length dress of eil blue with black accessories. Her hat was adorned with ostrich plums matching her dress. She wore a shoulder corsage of red roses.

Mrs. McGinnis, mother of the bride, wore an aqua ensemble with a shoulder bouquet of white gardenias. The groom's mother, Mrs. Whetstine wore a navy blue outfit with a corsage of white gardenias.

Immediately following the ceremony, an informal reception was held at the home of the bride for the families of the couple.

The bride, a young lady of charm and pleasing personality, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Hinkle McGinnis. She is a graduate of Kings Mountain high school and Evans Business School of Gastonia. She has held a position with the War Department in Washington, D. C., for the past four years.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. V. C. Whetstine and the late V. C. Whetstine of this city. He is a graduate of Kings Mountain high school. Mr. Whetstine recently received an honorable discharge from the Armed Forces after serving three and one half years, 34 months of which he served in the European Theatre of Operations.

The couple left for a trip to New York City after which they will reside in Washington, D. C. The bride wore for traveling a black gabardine suit with black accessories and shoulder bouquet of red roses.

Out-of-town guests who attended the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Odell McGinnis of Gastonia; Miss Helen White, Miss Virginia McGinnis, Louis Sabettie and Lt. Joe Ball of Washington, D. C.

Dinner Party Held At Fulton Home

On Friday night, Billie Fulton was host at a lovely dinner party at the home of his parents, honoring his house-guests, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Belk of Orangeburg.

The colors red and white were used entirely in the candle-lit dining room. The table was covered with a banquet cloth of white linen and graced with a center-piece of red berries in a silver bowl. Red candles in silver holders flanked the center piece and others were used on the buffet.

A delicious four course dinner was served.

Covers were laid at the beautifully appointed table for Mr. and Mrs. Belk, Miss Edna Parkington, of Due West, Miss Jean Brown, Mrs. Dan Finger, Martin Harmon, Carl Finger and Billie Fulton.

Mrs. Ridenhour Honored At Birthday Rook Party

Mrs. James McGill was hostess at a party on Friday night honoring her mother, Mrs. W. A. Ridenhour on her birthday.

The spacious living room, where teard tables were set up, was beautifully arranged with vases of roses, chrysanthemums and poinsettias as decoration.

An evening of rook was enjoyed with Mrs. D. C. Mauney winning the high score prize and Mrs. Lona McGill receiving the prize for low score. The hostess served a delectable salad course and sweet course.

Guests included the honoree, Mesdames Lona McGill, B. M. Ormand, H. N. Moss, H. T. Fulton C. E. Neisler, J. B. Thomason, E. C. Cooper, M. K. Plonk, M. L. Harmon, J. M. Patterson, A. H. Patterson, D. C. Mauney, R. L. Mauney, J. E. Aderholdt and W. K. Mauney.

Bride Of Saturday Honored At Party

On last Wednesday night, Mrs. Grady Howard entertained a number of friends at a party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry McGinnis, paying compliment to Miss Dorothy McGinnis, bride of Saturday.

Arrangements of yellow roses were used in the living room where bridge was played at three tables.

When the guests had assembled, the hostess served a delicious ice course of pineapple ice cream, cake, salted nuts and coffee.

During the evening, Miss Helen Ramsey made the highest score and was presented a beautiful box of bath powder. The low score prize went to the honoree who also was given an honor gift of silver salt and pepper shakers by the hostess. Mrs. Howard's parents remembered Miss McGinnis with a pair of cannon sheets.

The guests included the honoree, Mesdames Fred Wright, B. C. Etheridge, Paul McGinnis, Robert Wreen, Humes Houston and Misses Margaret Cornwell, Lucille McGinnis, Ruth Randall, Janet McGinnis, Helen Ramsey and Eloise Randall.

Study Club Met With Mrs. Keeter

The Study club met with Mrs. Byron Keeter at her lovely home last Tuesday night.

The meeting room were beautifully decorated with bowls of roses, snapdragons and chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Moffatt Ware presided with Mrs. B. S. Peeler in charge of the program. Mrs. Peeler was unable to attend but had arranged that Mrs. Tom Templeton, music teacher, would present three students of music. They were Jeanene Hallman who played "Minuet From E Flat Symphony" by Mozart, Barbara Jean Gault playing "Dance of the Rosebuds" by Keats and Harvey Hamrick who played "Spanish Dance," by Moszkowski.

Mrs. Keeter, assisted by her daughter, Miss Eoline Keeter and Mrs. Dan Finger, served a delicious salad and sweet course.

Young People Enjoy Thanksgiving Dance

On Thanksgiving night, a host of the younger set enjoyed the holiday dance at the Woman's club with Norman McGill, Pete McDaniel and Woody Rawles as hosts.

The party-room was decorated with colored lights and the refreshment table at one end of the floor was spread with a white cloth with intertwined vines of ivy as decoration, centered with a crystal bowl filled with fruit punch. Huge trays of dainty sandwiches in decorative designs flanked the punch bowl.

Music was furnished by a record amplifier system. L. P. Stowe, jr., who is recovering from a broken leg, was transported to the club house to supervise the program of dance music.

Punch was served by Mrs. N. F. McGill Mrs. Ruth Curley and Mrs. J. L. Garst, jr.

Chaperones for the affair were Mr. and Mrs. McGill, Mrs. Curley, Mrs. Garst, Mrs. W. S. Dilling, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Gamble, and Mr. and Mrs. Humes Houston.

Mr. and Mrs. McGill Entertain At Luncheon

Mr. and Mrs. John McGill entertained at a lovely luncheon on Saturday, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Warren Belk of Orangeburg.

The luncheon table was centered with a pumpkin filled with luscious fruit. Yellow candles in crystal holders were at each side.

A delicious oyster luncheon was served.

Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Belk, Miss Edna Parkington of Due West, Billie Fulton and Mr. and Mrs. McGill.
