

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL HAPPENINGS

of INTEREST to WOMEN

PHONES: House 189; Office 167

MRS. HUMES HOUSTON

Dinner Party Held at Davis Home

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Davis entertained a number of friends at a dinner party on Thursday night at the J. R. Davis home.

Seasonal decorations were used throughout the house.

The dining table was graced with a lovely imported cloth of blue linen and centered with an arrangement of poinsettias.

A delicious four course turkey dinner was served to the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thomason, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Drace Peeler, Mrs. Dan Finger, Mr. and Mrs. Fred McBrayer of Shelby, Misses Marie and Georgia Davis also of Shelby, Miss Nell DeLoatch of Gastonia, Mrs. Charles Thomason, Sr., and Bill Fulton.

SOCIAL CALENDAR

THURSDAY

3:00 - Book Party honoring house guests—Mrs. George Lettimore. 7:30—American Legion Auxiliary—Mrs. Earl Tate, Wells street.

FRIDAY

7:00—Dinner Party for W. A. Ware—at home. 7:00 - 10:30—Youth Center—Woman's Club.

TUESDAY

3:00—Fortnighters Bridge club—Mrs. Jim Smith.

Miss Fulton To Lease Uptown Beauty Shop

Miss Winnifred Fulton will take over the management of what is now Sarah Henry's Beauty Shoppe on January 10, it was announced Wednesday.

The shop has been under lease to Mrs. A. T. Randall, Jr., who is leaving Kings Mountain next week to join her husband in Hickory.

Miss Fulton said the beauty shop will be moved to second floor quarters in the same building, and she expects to have it in operation by January 17.

Miss Phoebe Holshouser Bride Of Gene McGinnis

Miss Phoebe Holshouser of Salisbury became the bride of Gene McGinnis, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McGinnis, on Christmas Eve at 8:00 o'clock in the church of the bride in Salisbury.

(Full details were not received in time for this publication but may be read in the next issue.)

Dance Held at Woman's Club Last Friday Night

On Friday night, the Woman's club was the scene of a semi-formal dance given by Miss Mary Evelyn Goforth, Miss Faye Moss and B. S. Peeler, jr. The lounge and ballroom were beautifully decorated with the seasonal motif used. The serving table in the lounge was spread with a white cloth and centered with a crystal punch bowl, flanked by crystal sticks holding red candles. Sprays of cedar extended the length of the table.

DIXIE THEATRE

THURSDAY and FRIDAY

"San Antonio"

Errol Flynn - Alexis Smith Three-Stage Comedy

SATURDAY

"Power of the Whistler"

Richard Dix - Janis Carter

also

"Coming 'Round The Mountain"

Gene Autry

MONDAY and TUESDAY

"Out Of This World"

Eddie Bracken Veronica Lake

WEDNESDAY

"Life With Blondie"

Peggy Simpson Arthur Lake

Former Citizen Was Convention Leader

Mrs. Zeb B. Vance of the faculty of Mercer University in the department of business administration presided over the college and university section of the annual meeting of the Southern Business Education Association on Nov. 22, 23, and 24 in Lexington, Ky.

The theme of the 1945 convention was "Peacetime Business Education in the South and the program included addresses by Dr. Donald C. Fuller of Georgia State college for Women, Dr. Elvin Eyster of Indiana University, Dr. Benjamin Haynes of the University of Tennessee, and Dr. A. J. Lawrence of the University of Kentucky.

In addition to the section for colleges and universities of which Mrs. Vance is chairman, the association includes a private business school section, a public school section, and a junior college section.

Mrs. Vance, past president of the North Carolina Business Teachers' Association, has been a member of the Mercer faculty for the past three years. She is president of the Macon branch of the American Association of University Women.

Mrs. Vance is the former Miss Mary Elam, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Elam.

It has been learned by relatives here that while at the convention Mrs. Vance was elected to membership on the Executive Board of the association as the Georgia representative.

Presbyterians To Hear Missionary On Sunday

Rev. Hoyt Miller, a missionary of the Presbyterian church to the Congo, Africa, will preach at the First Presbyterian church Sunday morning and evening. Dr. Miller is in much demand during these months on furlough, so it is indeed a great privilege to have him come to Kings Mountain. All Presbyterians are urged to be present at both services to hear this great servant of our Church, and all interested friends are invited to hear him.

Local Check Forger Nabbed In Hickory

William Nelson Beck, 30, who forged a check for $85 on Garland's Credit Jewelers here two weeks ago, was arrested in Hickory about 10 days ago, and is lodged in jail, awaiting trial not only for forgery, but for an old kidnaping charge.

Police records list Beck as an old offender, according to Chief of Police W. C. Timmons, Jr., who said that the principal crimes of Beck have been forgery and larceny, with the exception of the kidnaping charge. Beck, Chief Timmons said, is charged with kidnaping a Marion doctor sometime ago.

Chief Timmons also said that, on the day Beck forged the check here, he had traded a stolen automobile to a Charlotte firm, given a worthless check for the balance, and promised to mail the title to the stolen car later.

DAVIS COMING HOME

Pearl Harbor, T. H.—Burton W. Davis, GM3c, son of Havana Davis, of Kings Mountain, N. C., is on his way home.

Davis is one of 1,000 high-point Army and Navy veterans whom the "Magic Carpet" is bringing back to the States aboard the USS TRYON.

The USS TRYON—one of more than 300 carriers, battleships, cruisers, and attack transports in the Navy's famed "Magic Carpet" fleet—left Tokyo Bay, Dec. 9, and is scheduled to arrive in San Francisco about Dec. 22.

PEARSON DISCHARGED

Sgt. S. E. Pearson, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Pearson, Sr., Phenix Mills No. 2, arrived home Christmas Day with an honorable discharge from 18 months duty overseas. Sgt. Pearson is the proud bearer of the Purple Heart, Silver Star and the Good Conduct medal.

AT K. M. FURNITURE

Mrs. Claudia Payne is now serving as bookkeeper at Kings Mountain Furniture company, it was announced this week. Mrs. Payne is a former employee of this firm.

EARLY MUCH BETTER

C. L. (Jim) Early, who suffered a severe heart attack two weeks ago is much improved and is now at his home here, having returned from Cherokee County hospital at Gaffney, S. C., Sunday. Mr. Early is still confined to bed.

VFW MEETING

Members of Johnny W. Blackwell Post No. 2266, VFW, will meet at the City Hall Tuesday night at 7:30. "This is an important meeting with several important matters to be discussed," said Charles Warrick, post commander. He requested current membership at $2. The post was organized last spring.

AT LIBRARY

Mrs. M. E. Stone is now librarian at the city library. Mrs. Stone replaced Mrs. Charles Campbell who retired last week.

COVICK EN ROUTE HOME

Pearl Harbor, T. H.—Silas B. Covick, T-5, the husband of Mrs. Ruby L. Covick, of Kings Mountain, N. C., is on his way home.

Covick is one of 2,063 high-point Army veterans whom the "Magic Carpet" is bringing back to the States aboard the USS MISSOULA.

The USS MISSOULA—one of more than 250 carriers, battleships, cruisers, and attack transports in the Navy's famed "Magic Carpet" fleet—left Okinawa, Dec. 9, and is scheduled to arrive in Seattle about December 24.

Passengers will go directly to the Separation Centers nearest their homes to complete the formalities of obtaining their discharges before returning to civilian life.

IMPERIAL THEATRE

IT PLEASURES US TO PLEASE YOU

TODAY - LAST SHOWING Double Feature "Gangs All Here"

MONDAY and TUESDAY "Judy Angel"

WEDNESDAY "Wild Horse Valley" Bob Steele News - Short

THURSDAY "Isle of the Dead" Karlhoff

FRIDAY and SATURDAY Double Feature "Prairie Rustler" Buster Crabbe "Shadow of Terror" Al Star Cast

SUNDAY "Boaring Skroo" Tyler

MYERS' CLEARANCE of FALL and WINTER READY-TO-WEAR

ALL COATS and SUITS 1-2 price

Group of Dresses 1-2 price

Hats Formerly to $4.95 Now $1.00

MYERS' Dress Shoppe - 2nd Floor