MRS. HUMES HOUSTON

Mrs. McGill Honoree At Lovely Luncheon

Mrs. John McGill was hostess at a most delightful luncheon on Saturday at her attractive home, paying compliment to her mother-in-law, Mrs. Lona McGill on her birthday.

Vases of lovely white chrysanthemums were placed throughout the party rooms and the colors pink and white were used in making the dining room a picturesque sight. The long luncheon table was spread with a cloth of white linen, the centerpiece of which was an artistic arrangement of pink and white snapdragons in an oblong crystal container running a partial length of the table. Pink tapers set in crystal graduated candleabra were placed near the ends of this exquisitely appointed table.

Dainty handled bud vases handpainted in pastel shades were used as place markers. Each held a lovely corsage with a place card attached to the vase handle. The honoree's place was marked with an orchid.

Following the main course of the tasty three course luncheon, the honoree was presented a beautifully decorated pink and white birthday cake surrounded by flowers. All the guests sang "Happy Birthday" in unison.

After the luncheon had been served the friends of long acquaintance enjoyed an afternoon of reminiscing and chatting.

Covers were laid for the honoree, Mrs. McGill; Mesdames O. C. O'Farrell, H. T. Fulton, Sr., S. E. Spencer of Gastonia, C. E. Neisler, J. M. Patterson B. M. Ormand, W. A. Ridenhour, H. N. Moss, Campbell Phifer, Sage Fulton and the hostess.

The Youth Center was in full swing Saturday night under the supervision of Earl Ruth, the recreational director. Game-tables, new games and new records on the juke box afforded sufficient entertainment to keep the 75 boys and girls present quite happy.

Mrs. Earl Ruth had the snack-bar well stocked with hot-dogs, hamburgers, cold drinks, etc.

Mr. Ruth said, "We have found Mr. John Fisher to be very cooperative in every way and the young people and I are very grateful for his help in making these improvements and his assistance in the past."
