MRS. HUMES HOUSTON

Miss Gloria Cornwell Bride of Charles Thomas Mulwee

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Jan. 27—St. Luke's Lutheran church was the scene of a lovely wedding yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock when Miss Gloria Cornwell became the bride of Lieut. Charles Thomas Mulwee.

Miss Eula Meade Traywick, organist, played "Clair de Lune," Ave Maria, and "Liebestraum" before the ceremony, and Mrs. John Michael McGinnis, sister of the bride sang "Because" and "I Love Thee." The wedding march from the third act of "Lohengrin" was used as the processional, and during the service "To A Wild Rose" was played. Mendelssohn's march from "A Midsummer Night's Dream" was used for the recessional.

Rev. H. P. Wyrick, pastor of the church, officiated using the double ring ceremony. Palms, fern, seven-branched candelabra holding lighted cathedral tapers, and baskets of white gladioli formed the background for the wedding. Bows of white satin ribbon marked the pews for the families and special guests.

H. S. Mulwee of Richmond, Va., was his son's best man. Ushers were Flight Officer William M. Taylor and Sgt. Leland O. Puckett, both of Charlotte.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, Clarence Tracy Cornwell of Gastonia, wore an heirloom gown of candlelight duchess satin designed with a basque waist a yoke outlined with Point d'Venice lace which was repeated at the cuffs of the long sleeves, and a full skirt which ended in a long train. The tiered fingertip veil of bridal illusion was worn with a coronet of orange blossoms and she carried a white prayer book topped with orchids and showered with lilies of the valley.

Miss Mildred Williams of North Wilkesboro was the maid of honor and the bride's only attendant. She wore a powder blue net gown fashioned with a sweetheart neck, fitted bodice, and full skirt. For contrast she wore shocking pink evening gloves with a matching pink plume in her hair. She carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Mrs. Cornwell, mother of the bride wore a black crepe dress with black accessories and a shoulder bouquet of gardenias. Mrs. Bess H. Mulwee, the bridegroom's mother, wore a blue silk dress with black accessories and an orchid shoulder bouquet.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held in the main dining room of Hotel Charlotte. Later the couple left on a wedding trip to New York City. For traveling the bride wore a black gabardine suit with black accessories and an orchid shoulder bouquet. The couple will make their home in Atlanta, Ga., where the bridegroom will attend Georgia Tech.

Mrs. Mulwee is the attractive and popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Tracy Cornwell of Gastonia. She was an honor graduate of Kings Mountain High school, attended Lehigh College, and for the last three years has been employed at the Charlotte Quartermaster depot. Since the announcement of her engagement she has been honored with a number of pre-nuptial courtesies.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Bess H. Mulwee of Charlotte, and H. S. Mulwee of Richmond, Va. She was graduated from Central High school and attended Clemson college before entering the Army. Lieutenant Mulwee recently returned to the States after serving 14 months as a pilot with the Air Transport command in the European and China-Burma-India theaters of operation.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding included Miss Myrtle Glass, Mrs. K. M. Glass, Miss Janet Hodnet, Miss Patricia Abernethy, Miss Dorothy Underwood, Miss Libby Sue McLaughlin, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Kimball, H. E. Thomas, Robert Hooks, Miss Gretchen Cloniger, Miss Rachel Cloniger, Mrs. Carl Blyth, Mr. and Mrs. E. K.
