Miss Carletta Foster Celebrates 17th Birthday

Miss Carletta Foster celebrated her 17th birthday Tuesday, Feb. 26, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Foster. The dining table was lovely with a big birthday cake centered in the middle. Miss Foster received many lovely gifts.

Stroupe-Lynn, Marriage Announced

The marriage of their daughter, Marjorie, to George Stroupe, son of Mrs. C. M. Stroupe on Saturday, February 16, at Gaffney, S. C., with Rev. Roy C. Cobb officiating. The bride wore a suit of light blue with black accessories and a shoulder bouquet of white gardenias. Attending the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Hammet, Mrs. William W. Stroupe and Mr. Eugene Owen. The couple are with the bride's parents.

Lovely Party Honors Martha Sue Dover

Mrs. R. D. Goforth, Mrs. Yates Throneburg and Mrs. Ben Beam entertained at a lovely party complimenting Miss Martha Sue Dover, bride-elect.

The living room, dining room and music room ensuite were beautifully decorated with arrangements of early spring flowers. Six game tables were placed in these rooms with rook in play at three tables and bridge being played at the others. Mrs. Dickie Tate and Miss Daphne Ballard won high score at bridge and Mrs. Fred Thornburg won low prize. At rook, Miss Anita Bowers was high scorer and Miss Katherine Hill scored low. Each of these received lovely prizes.

Mrs. Melva Henderson rendered lovely piano selections throughout the evening. At the completion of games, Mrs. Rita G. Bourque sang, "The Bells of St. Mary's," "Indian Love Call" and "Till The End of Time" while the honoree was being showered with lovely gifts.

The hostesses served a delicious salad and sweet course.

Young Men Attend Pionk School Dance

The students of the Pionk School of Creative Arts were entertained on Friday night at a banquet followed by a dance. Invited guests attended the latter and included several young men of this city: John B. Pionk, W. P. Fulton, and Pete McDaniel. Jay Bridges, former resident of Kings Mountain and now living in Asheville was a guest and Jimmy Carpenter of Wofford college in Spartanburg also attended.

Miss Betty Watterson Weds E. E. Crumpler, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Grady Watterson have announced the marriage of their daughter, Betty Rose, to Roland Edward Crumpler, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Crumpler, Sr., of Goldsboro on Sunday evening, Feb. 24, at Lancaster, S. C.

Mrs. Crumpler is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grady Watterson of this city and received her education at Central high school and Evans Business college in Gastonia. At the time of her marriage she held a responsible position as secretary and typist with Good Will Publishing Co. in Gastonia.

After a wedding trip to New York the Crumplers will make their home in Houston, Texas, where Mr. Crumpler is in business for himself.

DAR Held Meeting In Bessemer City

The Colonel Frederick Hambricht Chapter of the Daughter's of the American Revolution of Kings Mountain met Wednesday, Feb. 21 at the home of Mrs. S. O. Sexton in Bessemer City.

The Regent, Mrs. J. S. Norman, called the meeting to order and Mrs. Arthur Hays, chaplain, led in prayer. Mrs. F. R. Summers conducted the salute to the American flag and led in the Creed. The flag used was recently presented to the chapter by a member, Mrs. Edith Hambricht, of Grover.

A letter from the state regent was read which gave information regarding the State Convention which will be held in Charlotte in March. All were urged to attend this meeting by Mrs. Norman.

Mrs. Summers read a message from the President - General which gave instructions concerning the Continental Chapter which will be held in Atlantic City in May. Mrs. Norman will go as delegate and alternate delegates elected were Mrs. J. E. Herndon and Mrs. F. R. Summers.

Program chairman for the afternoon was Mrs. Summers, who read an interesting article written by Mrs. J. E. Herndon on "Characteristics of the Early Settlers of Lincoln County."

During the social hour an auction sale of articles contributed by the members was held conducted by Mrs. Norman.

Mrs. Sexton, assisted by Mrs. Carl W. Howard and Miss Pearl Ramsey, served a delicious salad course. Mrs. Jesse Kiser of Kings Mountain was a visitor.

Week Of Prayer For Home Missions

March 3 through 8 will be observed as Home Mission Week of Prayer by Baptists all over the South. At the First Baptist church here the W. M. U. will meet daily for special services. On Tuesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday afternoons at 3:45, the day circles will be in charge of the programs to be held at the church. On Wednesday night at 7:30 the night circles will present the program. The young people's organizations of the W. M. U. including the Y. W. A., the G. A., the E. A., and the Sunbeams will have special programs during the week.
