

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL HAPPENINGS
of INTEREST to WOMEN

PHONES: House 189; Office 167

MRS. HUMES HOUSTON

Miss Mary Frances Hord Hostess At Lovely Tea

Miss Mary Frances Hord received on Saturday afternoon, March 16th, at her home paying compliment to her houseguest, Mrs. John T. Young of Clinton, S. C.

The reception hall, where Mrs. John L. McGill greeted guests at the door, was lovely with a huge floor basket filled with peach blossoms and pear blossoms placed at the foot of the stair way. Mrs. McGill directed guests into the living room where the receiving line was headed by the hostess, Miss Hord, with the guest of honor, Mrs. Young, standing next. Mrs. W. H. Brown of Shelby, Miss Julia Benfro of Mooresboro, Miss Rachel Spencer of Gastonia, Mrs. David White of Shelby, Miss Kate Whitworth of Waco and Mrs. Paul Kennedy of Shelby received in the order given.

Mrs. Jay Patterson directed guests into the dining room which was beautiful with a profusion of flowers in pastel shades placed on the mantel piece, the buffet and in hanging baskets at the windows. The dining table, spread with a lovely white embroidered cloth, was centered with an exquisite arrangement of snapdragons in pastel shades of yellow, pink, white and blue and flanked by five branched candelabras set with multi-colored pastel tapers. Tea was poured by Mrs. Luther Anthony of Gastonia and Mrs. John Gamble who sat at either end of the beautifully appointed table.

Large silver trays of chicken salad sandwiches, fancy assorted sandwiches in many shapes and colors, mints with dainty pastel flowers on top, and fancy cookies were served by Mrs. Jimmie Harris, Mrs. Bruce McDaniel, Miss Leone Patterson, Mrs. Charles Thomason, Jr., and Mrs. Richard T. LeGrand of Shelby.

Mrs. Fred Plonk directed guests to the music room where Mrs. E. B. Yarboro and Miss Maud Eunice Hord received. Mrs. Aubrey Mauney was at the piano and played many beautiful selections during the afternoon. Goodbyes were said at the music room door by Mrs. Claude Hambright. About seventy-five guests called during the receiving hours.

chinese charmer... inspired by a priceless art treasure and the gown of a Chinese princess. Rayon butcher linen in blue, rose, lime. Sizes nine to fifteen. $14.95

MYERS' DRESS SHOPPE
—Second Floor—

Mrs. Plott Honors Son And Daughter

Mrs. E. T. Plott was hostess on Saturday afternoon, March 16th, at a birthday party honoring her son, Franklin and daughter, Cynthia Franklin marked his 11th birthday the last of February and Cynthia was 9 years of age last week.

The home was decorated throughout with lovely spring flowers. The dining table held two lovely birthday cakes, one at either end and was centered with candelabra holding pink and white tapers.

The children enjoyed an afternoon of playing games, after which the hostess served ice cream, cake and salted nuts. Mrs. Plott was assisted in directing the games and serving by Mrs. H. L. Campbell.

About 24 of Franklin's and Cynthia's friends attended the party. Both children received many nice gifts.

Mrs. Page Hostess To Tuesday Night Club

Mrs. Harry Page was hostess to members of the Tuesday Night Club and invited guests last week at her home on Mountain street.

The meeting rooms, where bridge was played at three tables, were lovely with several beautiful azalea plants in bloom, tulips and other spring flowers.

Miss Stella Patterson was high scorer and Mrs. Hugh Omand scored low. Each were awarded prizes. Guests other than members were: Miss Patterson, Miss Elizabeth Kee, Mrs. H. E. Webb and Mrs. Hunter Neisler.

Miss Lottie Lynch Honored On Birthday

Mrs. Haywood E. Lynch paid compliment to her daughter, Lottie, on Saturday afternoon at a delightful party in honor of her tenth birthday.

The young guests assembled at the Lynch home at 2 o'clock and were then taken to Lake Montonia to the lovely cottage of Mrs. C. F. Thomason for an afternoon of games and hiking.

Punch was served throughout the afternoon. Later the hostess invited the guests to a table laden with cookies, candy, nuts, ice cream and centered with a beautiful birthday cake decorated with yellow roses and birds on white icing and topped with ten green candles. The cake was served with the ice cream. Large candy suckers were presented as favors.

Mrs. Lynch Was Assisted In Entertaining and Serving by Mrs. Carl Mayes and Miss Betty Lynch.

The guests included: Susan Moss, Nora Jane Deese, Annie Mobley Dilling, Ann Mayes, Patsy Davis, Christine Still, Shirley Houser, Jean Lynch, Buddy Mayes, Jimmy Caveny, Dickey Webb, Joyce Biser and Lee Jackson.

The honoree was presented many lovely gifts.

Mrs. Summers Is Hostess To D. A. R.

Mrs. Frank Summers entertained Colonel Frederick Hambright chapter D. A. R. Wednesday afternoon. The regent, Mrs. J. S. Norman, presided. Mrs. J. B. Davis led in prayer in the absence of the chaplain. The treasurer, Mrs. Davis, reported sending money to Crossnore for a scholarship fund. The chapter voted to donate the war service fund to the D. A. R. school in South Carolina as recommended by the President General.

Mrs. E. B. Olive was elected a new member and Mrs. J. E. Herndon presented the name of Mrs. Tolly Shuford for membership. Mrs. Ed Campbell, Mrs. H. T. Fulton and Mrs. Will Ridenhour were named nominating committee.

Report of the State convention at Charlotte was given by the Regent, who as a member of the executive board described the luncheon given for the State Regent. Mrs. Andrew Mauney, mother of the hostess, was honored for having knitted 278 garments for the Red Cross.

Mrs. Ted Weir, who was in charge of the program, gave a very interesting discussion on "The Atomic Age." Visitors were Mesdames Ladd Hamrick and M. A. Ware.

The hostess, assisted by her sister, Mrs. J. E. Herndon, served a delicious salad course.

Local Girl Wins Honor At Brenau

Gainesville, Ga. — Miss Joe Ann Walker, a sophomore at Brenau College and member of Phi Mu, national social sorority, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Walker, Parker street Kings Mountain, has just been elected Treasurer of the Brenau Student Government, a post of honor and responsibility. Miss Walker is a popular student on the campus.

Miss Gibson Is Bride Of Hoyle D. McDaniel

The General Methodist parsonage of this city was the scene of a ceremony of beautiful simplicity on Saturday night, when Miss Marjorie Gibson became the bride of Hoyle David McDaniel. Rev. J. G. Winkler heard the exchange of vows.

Mrs. J. Byron Keeter, pianist, presented a program of wedding music.

To An Evening Song by Wagner preceded the ceremony and Lohengrin's "Wedding March" was played as a processional. Schubert's "Serenade" was heard softly during the ceremony and Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" used as the recessional.

The bride, who is the very attractive and popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Gibson, was lovely in a white dress of silk jersey with a small off-the-face type hat with a veil. Her accessories were black. She wore a shoulder corsage of gardenias.

Miss Anne Ruth Hawkins attended the bride as maid-of-honor. W. S. Fulton, Jr., attended the bridegroom as best man.

Mr. McDaniel is the son of Mrs. Ella Boone McDaniel and for several years prior to entering service was employed by Keeter's Department Store. He returned to that position the first of the year upon his return to the States after 20 months overseas service with the army.

The young couple left for a wedding trip in the mountains of Western North Carolina following the ceremony.

Only a few relatives and close friends attended.

Woman's Club Prevues N. C. Symphony Concert

The Woman's club held its regular meeting on Friday night at the home of Mrs. Aubrey Mauney. The meeting rooms were bright with a profusion of spring flowers artistically arranged.

The president, Mrs. E. A. Shenk, was absent but Mrs. E. W. Griffin acted in her place and had charge of the business of electing officers. Mrs. M. L. Plonk was elected to the office of secretary. All other officers were re-elected.

The Music Department of the Woman's Club was in charge of the program which was presented by Mrs. O. W. Myers, who discussed the lives of the composers whose works will be played by the N. C. Symphony Orchestra in concert here on April 11. Mrs. J. B. Keeter played a piano selection, "Vienna Life" by Strauss. A clarinet solo was played by Miss Faye Moss, "Romance" by Wieniawski. The program was concluded with the playing of a recording of part of Schubert's "Unfinished Symphony." Two of the above selections will be played on the coming Symphony program.

Following the program, Mrs. Grady Patterson sold N. C. Symphony memberships to those present.

Mrs. Mauney served cake, cookies and tea. About 24 members attended.

Mrs. Styers Honored At Birthday Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Dickie Tate entertained members of Mrs. Tate's family and a few friends at dinner on Sunday, March 17, honoring her mother, Mrs. W. F. Styers on her birthday.

A four course dinner was served buffet style.

Guests included: Mr. and Mrs. Styers, Miss Billy Sue McDaniel, Robert Styers of Washington, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lewis and family of Gastonia and Bruce Styers who has recently returned to the States after 20 months overseas, part of which he spent in Calcutta, India.

Mrs. Barnes Honored To Study Club Members

Mrs. E. N. Barnes was hostess on Tuesday night to members of the Study club at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Mauney. The meeting rooms were lovely with a profusion of tulips, flags, hyacinths and mixed flowers.

Mrs. O. W. Myers was in charge was based on the N. C. State Symphony program which is to be presented here.

The hostess served a delectable salad and accessories and a sweet course later in the evening.

Miss Webster Weds Edgar F. Clemmer

Gastonia, March 25.—Miss Louise Webster of Kings Mountain and Edgar Flournoy Clemmer of this city exchanged marriage vows on Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the First Presbyterian church. Rev. Irving M. Ellis was the officiating minister.

Palms, woodkardias, ferns and floor baskets filled with white gladioli formed the floral background for the ceremony.

A program of music was presented by Miss Martha Carpenter, organist, and Miss Eleanor Moore, soloist.

The bride, escorted by her brother, James Webster of Kings Mountain, wore a two-piece suit in gold wool with black accessories and an orchid at her shoulder.

Mrs. Harry V. Cathey attended the bride as matron of honor, wearing a costume in pastel blue with alligator accessories and a shoulder bouquet of red rosebuds.

Kelly Clemmer of Dallas was his brother's best man, and ushers were Gene Crocker and Bill Joyner. The bride's mother was gowned in blue crepe and wore red rosebuds, and the bridegroom's mother wore a black crepe dress with red rosebuds (Cont'd on page three)

IMPERIAL THEATRE
IT PLEASES US TO PLEASE YOU

TODAY—LAST SHOWING

"Above Suspicion"
Joan Crawford
Fred MacMurray
and

WILLIAM "Cassidy" Boyd
Serial-News

FRIDAY and SATURDAY

"Frontier Law"
Russell Hayden
and

"Face of Marble"
John Carradine
MGM Carton - Serial

MONDAY and TUESDAY

"The Daltons Ride Again"
Alan Curtis - Lon Chaney
Noah Berry, Jr. Kent Taylor
Serial-News

WED. and THURS.

"Swingshift Music"
Ann Southern
and

"Cowboy From Lonesome River"
Charles Starrett
Last Chapter: "Last of the Mohicans"

—CUE FOR SPRING—

SAVING

Dorothy Gray

'COLOR CUE'

usual 3.00 value!

2.00

Plus Tax

A value you can't miss! Famous, new "Lights Up" Foundation for satiny coverage... Dorothy Gray Portrait Face Powder to accent the positive in color... Dorothy Gray Lipstick in the new post-war metal case, magnum size, too! Your choice of lip color in Right Red, Portrait Pink, South American, Siren or Ripe Cherries.

Kings Mountain Drug Co.

"We Fill Any Doctors' Prescription"

Phones 41 and 81

—JUST RECEIVED—

Several Large Shipments

OF PRINT

Children's Dresses

Excellent selection of new spring and summer prints, both one and two-piece styles. They're rugged for play and bright again after washing. Sizes 6 to 14. Ceiling Prices—

$1.90 to $2.90

MYERS' DRESS SHOPPE

—SECOND FLOOR—

