MRS. HUMES HOUSTON

Junior Woman's Club
Held Meeting Monday

The Junior Woman's club met at the home of Mrs. Lynwood Parton on Monday night, April 1. The meeting rooms were beautifully decorated with spring flowers.

Upon arrival of members, the hostess served ice cream, cookies and salted nuts with coffee.

After a short business session, over which Mrs. Parton presided, an auction sale of aprons was held.

Miss Mary Frances Gantt, former member, was reinstated at this meeting.

Miss George Is Honored
At Miscellaneous Shower

On last Wednesday night, Miss Naomi Edens and Mrs. Lynwood Parton entertained at a miscellaneous shower at the home of the latter, paying compliment to Miss Melba George, bride-elect.

Upon arrival of the guests, each was presented a miniature nosegay of spring flowers. When all had assembled, the hostesses served ice cream, ice-box cookies, tea and salted nuts.

Several games and contests were enjoyed during the evening. The contestants winning prizes were Mrs. Ernest Payne and Mrs. Grady Yelton.

Later, the honoree was presented many lovely gifts by Little Linda Woody Parton, who was dressed as a bride complete with coronet and veil.

Mrs. Hoyle McDaniel, recent bride, was remembered with a gift.

Miss Franklin Honored
At L. L. L. Class Shower

The L. L. L. class of First Baptist church held its regular meeting and a surprise lingerie shower for Miss Pearl Franklin, bride-elect, at the home of Mrs. L. L. Benson, teacher, on Friday night. The meeting rooms were arranged with bowls of spring flowers in artistic arrangements.

Miss Franklin, president, presided at the regular discussion of business matters.

When business was concluded, a few invited guests came, as was prearranged, on the pretext of bringing literature for further study. As they came in, Mrs. Frank Sisk, dressed as a colored wash-woman, came to the back door to supposedly return Mrs. Benson's laundry. She said she came at that particular time to get a few more washings to do and insisted that Miss Franklin be shown how nicely she washed and ironed. The basket of "clothes" was set before the honoree and upon opening it, she found many gorgeous gifts of lingerie.

Following the opening of gifts, a floral wedding contest was held. Mrs. Benson served a delightful ice course.

Thursday Natch Club
Met At Neisler Home

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Neisler, Jr., entertained members of the Thursday Natch club and invited guests at a dinner-bridge on Thursday night at their lovely home on Margrave Road. The home was decorated throughout with a profusion of spring flowers.

Dinner was served buffet-style upon the arrival of guests. Mrs. Neisler was assisted in serving by her mother, Mrs. V. W. Alexander, and her sister, Miss Priscilla Arrowood of Charlotte and Mrs. Bill Ross of this city.

After dinner, an evening of bridge was enjoyed.

Members present were: Mr. and Mrs. George H. Mauney, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thomasson, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Bill Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Drace Peeler, Mr. and Mrs. Jones Pharr and Miss Mary Evelyn Goforth. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ross were invited guests.

UDC Presents Historical
Volume To Public Library

Mrs. P. D. Herndon, assisted by Mrs. M. A. Ware, was hostess on Wednesday afternoon when the United Daughters of the Confederacy met at the Herndon home.

The meeting rooms were lovely with numerous artistic arrangements of spring flowers and fruit blossoms.

Mrs. E. B. Olive, president, presided over the usual business. The meeting was then turned over to Mrs. L. L. Benson, past president. During Mrs. Benson's presidency, the UDC voted to buy a volume of books for the Public Library. The books were presented by Mrs. Benson to Mrs. W. K. Mauney, Library board chairman, who was invited to this meeting to receive them. The volume is "The Rise and Fall of the Confederacy," a set of very valuable and interesting books.

In the absence of Mrs. E. A. Shenk program chairman, Mrs. Bill Howard presented facts on the life of a late Confederate veteran.

Mrs. Herndon and Mrs. Ware served a delicious dessert course near the conclusion of the meeting.

Mrs. Padgett Hostess
To Fortnighter Club

Mrs. Philip Padgett was hostess to members of the Fortnighter Bridge club and invited guests on Wednesday afternoon at her home on Piedmont avenue.

The living and dining rooms were beautiful with bowls of spring flowers adding color.

Invited guests were Mrs. George Lattimore and Mrs. W. K. Mauney, Jr. The hostess served a delicious salad course following several progressions of bridge.

Lenoir Rhyme Students
Guests At Weaver Home

Mr. and Mrs. B. O. Weaver entertained guests from Lenoir Rhyme college, Hickory, on Monday night at their home here.

A delicious chicken supper was served after which the guests enjoyed an evening of singing before returning to Lenoir Rhyme.

Guests included Miss Myrtice Weaver, daughter of the host and hostess, Miss Carolyn Lippard of Statesville, Joe Reese of Kannapolis and Jimmy Willis of this city.
