Mrs. Webster Has Party Honoring Mrs. Blackwell

Mrs. J. W. Webster was hostess at a farewell party on Saturday night, given in honor of Mrs. Bright Black- well of Cleveland avenue prior to her departure for Savannah Beach.

Several interesting games were played during the evening. Later the hostess served delicious refreshments.

Those present included: Mr. and Mrs. Guy Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wallis, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Panter, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. James, Mrs. T. H. Matthews, Mrs. Henry Dellinger, and Mr. and Mrs. Webster.

Miss Bobbitt Is Bride Of Lemuel E. Deese, Jr.

Miss Wilma Bobbitt, daughter of Mrs. Mary Parrish Bobbitt and the late Hossie L. Bobbitt, became the bride of SK3C Lemuel E. Deese, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Deese, Sr. on Saturday afternoon, April 8th, in a ceremony of beautiful simplicity at the Macedonia Baptist parsonage.

Wedding music was rendered by Mrs. N. F. McGill, pianist.

The bride was lovely in a blue woolen suit with black accessories. She wore a shoulder bouquet of or- chids. Her only attendant was her sister, Miss Rena Bobbitt, who was attired in a gray woolen suit with red accessories and a corsage of gar- denias surrounded by red rose buds.

Howard Edens, also of this city, attended the bridegroom as best man. Immediately following the cere- mony, the couple left for Norfolk, Va.

Circle Number Three Met On Monday Night

Circle No. 3 of Central Methodist Woman's Society of Christian Ser- vice met at the home of Miss Grace Davis with Mrs. George Blalock as associate hostess.

Beautiful spring flowers were used in decorating the meeting rooms. Mrs. C. A. Goforth, the leader, pre- sided. Mrs. Jay Patterson was in charge of the devotional. Mrs. Gar- land Winkler gave the Bible study.

A most impressive reading, "At Easter", from the Methodist Woman was given by Mrs. Hunter Allen.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses during the social hour.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. C. J. Gault, Jr.

Miss George Is Bride Of Marion Dean Payne

In a quiet ceremony performed in the study at Central Methodist church last Friday evening, April 5, Miss Melba Juanita George and Marion Dean Payne were united in marriage by Rev. J. G. Winkler. The impres- sive double ring ceremony was used.

The bride chose a light blue wool suit with black and white accessori- es for her wedding attire. She wore a corsage of red roses.

Miss Ann Ruth Hawkins and Gene Allen attended the ceremony.

Mrs. Payne is the attractive daugh- ter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. George, Sr., of Kings Mountain. She attend- ed the local high school and is now employed by the Draft Board here.

Mr. Payne is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Payne, also of Kings Mountain. He graduated from Kings Mountain high school in 1943 and was discharged from the army in January, after two years of service in the Pacific.

The young couple will make their home with the groom's parents.

Mrs. Russell Is Honor Guest At Lovely Shower

Mrs. Everett Russell, a recent bride, was honored last Saturday evening when Mrs. Clarence Smith and Misses Christine Gallant and Evelyn Edens, entertained at a lingerie show- er at the Edens home on Parker street.

Mrs. Fred Bourque, accompanied by Miss Christine Gallant, entertain- ed the guests with vocal selections.

After several games and contests prizes were awarded Mrs. Horbit Herndon, Mrs. Hoyle Mabry, Mrs. Hoyle McDonald, Miss Irene Gallant and Mrs. Fred Bourque.

Mrs. Hoyle McDonald, also a re- cent bride, was presented an honor- able gift.

By special arrangement, group pic- tures were taken during the evening. The hostesses served a delicious refreshment with their guests.

First Baptist Circle

Circle No. 1 of the First Baptist church of which Mrs. J. K. Willis is leader, met at her home on Monday night at 7:30. Mrs. Ray Smith was co-hostess. The meeting rooms were charmingly bright with many beauti- ful spring blossoms.

Mrs. Willis presided. The meeting was opened with a prayer by Mrs. Harold Coggins. Mrs. Pauline Weaver had the roll call and read min- utes of the last meeting. Mrs. Cog- gins reported on work being done by the membership committee and Mrs. Monroe Rhea reported as visiting chairman. Mrs. Macy Souther gave the treasury report. It was voted that this circle will be in charge of floral decorations for the church during the month of May.

Mrs. Souther, program chairman, was assisted in presenting features on "Evangelical Witness to the World" by Mrs. Monroe Rhea, Mrs. Aubrey Clay and Mrs. Willis, who closed the program with a prayer.

The hostesses served delictious refreshments consisting of ice cream, cake and coffee.

Miss Dover Bride Of John Albanese

The Central Methodist parsonage was the scene of a beautiful cere- mony on Tuesday night, April 9th, at 9 o'clock when Miss Martha Sue Dover became the bride of John Al- banese, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Albanese of Providence, R. I. Rev. J. G. Winkler officiated, using the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. J. G. Winkler, at the piano, played the traditional marches.

Vows were spoken before the mantel which was backed with a pro- fusion of white lris.

The bride was lovely in a powder blue suit of woolen. With it she wore a lovely black hat with blue bands matching the suit. Other accessories were black. She wore a corsage of white orchids at her shoulder.

Miss Louise Roberts attended the bride as maid-of-honor. She was at- (Cont'd on page three)
