Baptist Radio Broadcast

A special pre-convention Baptist radio broadcast from Miami, Fla., will be heard over the regular network next Sunday morning, May 12. Dr. J. M. Dawson of Waco, Texas, will speak on the subject, "The Baptist Contribution to the Next Century." Dr. C. Roy Angell of Miami will also be heard in words of welcome to Miami, where this convention opens on May 15.

This broadcast is made possible by the courtesy of the Methodist Hour which will stand aside in order that people everywhere may catch something of the spirit of this convention in which 5,000 messengers representing 5,865,000 Southern Baptists will join in launching a New Century With Christ.

The speaker, Dr. Dawson, 31 years the honored pastor of the First Baptist church of Waco, is chairman of the Executive Committee and also of the Committee on World Peace of the Southern Convention and is President of the Executive Committee of the Texas Baptist State Convention.

This broadcast can be heard in our area over WWNC, Asheville, WSOB, Charlotte, 8:30 EST A. M.

The Miles West home place, located about a mile west of Kings Mountain on U. S. Highway 74, will be sold at auction Saturday afternoon with the sale scheduled to begin at 2 o'clock.

Representatives of Carolina Land Auction company, which is handling the sale, stated that the property has been divided into some 100 residential lots and small acreage tracts. Also in the sale is the residence.

High School Pupils In Forensic Wins

Martha Hicks, president of the "Future Homemakers of America" at Kings Mountain high school, Margie Diekey, and Charlotte Jenkins, accompanied by Mrs. Dan Finger, sponsor of the FHA, represented Kings Mountain at the FHA State Rally held in Raleigh at the Hugh Morson

High School met Saturday.

The morning session was featured by registrations, stunt performances given by district groups and a fashion show.

After lunch, the election and installation of State officers took place in a formal candle-light service.

Mrs. Gregg B. Cherry gave a tea at the Governor's mansion to conclude the rally.

Rites Are Conducted For Mrs. M. G. Wells

Funeral services for Mrs. M. G. Wells, 75, who died at her home in the Margrace community on April 29 were held on April 29 at Macedonia Baptist church with the pastor, Rev. C. N. Bobbitt, officiating, assisted by Rev. Mr. Fogleman, pastor of Bethlehem Baptist church. Interment took place in Mountain Rest cemetery.

Mrs. Wells had been seriously ill with a heart ailment for two weeks prior to her death.

She was the daughter of the late Joshua and Jane Reha Dillingham, and was a native of Cleveland county where she had resided all her life. She was a member of Bethlehem Baptist church.

Surviving are one son, Denard Wells, of Spencer Mountain, and four daughters, Mrs. D. L. Sharpe, Rock Hill, S. C., Mrs. Fred Herndon and Miss Dorothy Wells, both of Kings Mountain, and Mrs. J. D. Gibbons, of Grover. Also surviving are ten grandchildren.
