We, the American people, should never achieve a forget and forgive toward the Huns and yellow Jape.

The feminine gender as we see it. We admire the ladies because they are pretty. We respect them because they are good and sweet. We love them simply because, doggone it, wa can't help it a good woman is the first, last and best friend any man, good or bad, ever had. Surely we couldn't get along without these gals. They keep this old world a fit place to live in. Am I correct?

I have been asked by some of the Herald readers to print again ' the Story of the Legend of the Dogwood tree. It is said that during the time Christ lived among men the dogwood tree attained the size of the oak and elm and the other large trees. So large did it grow, and so strong and firm was its wood it was chosen to furnish the timber from which the Cross was made. It is said further that it being used in such a fashion greatly distressed the dogwood tree, and Jesus, when he was nailed upon the Cross, sensed the agony of His Crucifixion. His gentleness and pity for all sorrow of the world caused Him to say to the dogwood tree: "Because of your sympa" thy for my suffering and because of the regret you feel at the part you have had to play in it. I promise you that so long as you flourish upon tain such size that you can be used as a cross from this time onward your trunk and your limbs shall be slender and so twisted that man cannot use you for their purpose. And so that you will always remember me

"From this time forward all who look upon your beauty shall remem ber that it was upon dogwood tree that I was crucified and all men but there's a lot of devile in it? shall know that you must be cherished and protected from harm and that you shall always stand unmutilated as reminded of my agony and my death upon the Cross''.
