June Class Meeting With Mrs. Louise Lynn

The Friendship class of Grace Methodist church held the June class meeting with Mrs. Louise Lynn last Thursday night. Fourteen members were present. The program began with the class singing "Just When I Need Him Most." Louise Lynn read the scripture, the 21st chapter of St. Luke, the first through the thirteenth verses, followed by a prayer by Helen Putnam. Another hymn "I am Thine O Lord," was sung and Carrie Martin read a poem.

The minutes were read by Star Huffstetler and the class approved. The business discussion was mostly reports. The class cleared $62.30 on the supper they had and the offering Thursday night was $1.10. Louise Lynn presented the class with a tank filled half full. The class will finish filling the tank to add to the church fund. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Ila Kennedy. The hostess served nice refreshments and those present were: Mrs. Ila Kennedy, Mrs. Brackett, Mrs. Matthews, Janet Ballard, Dot Jonas, Roberta Ellison, Polly Williams, Ethel Mauney, Helen Putnam, Carrie Martin, Louise Lynn, Cornelia Huffstetler, Mrs. McWhirter and Star Huffstetler.

Fortnighter Members Met At Hamrick Home

Mrs. Ladd Hamrick was hostess on Friday afternoon to members of the Fortnighter Bridge club. The party rooms were arranged with mixed flowers in a variety of colors.

Mrs. Charles Williams was awarded the prize for high score and after the games the hostess served a delicious salad course and refreshing feed drink.

Couples Club In Meet At Davis Home

The Couples club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Davis on last Thursday night. Beautiful garden flowers were used in decorating the rooms where entertaining was done.

After several progressions of bridge, the prizes which are awarded once a month to highest scorers for the month, were presented to Mrs. Paul Neisler, Jr., and Charles Thomason.

Mrs. J. S. Flowe of Greensboro, mother of Mrs. Drace Peeler was a guest at the club.

Delicious angel food cake topped with heavenly hash and punch was served at the beginning of the party.

Dancing And Dramatics Pupils Perform Tonight

Tonight (Thursday) at eight o'clock pupils of Mrs. Coman Falls, instructor of dancing and dramatics, will be presented in a recital at Central School auditorium. An entertaining program is scheduled with a greater part of the beginners' class making their first stage appearance. The public is invited to attend.

Mrs. Falls is discontinuing all classes for the summer months except the beginner's classes which will be held on Tuesday and Friday mornings at 9:45.

Miss Weir Honors Misses Hambricht

Mrs. F. R. Elberbe and her daughter, Mrs. W. T. Weir, will receive formally on Friday afternoon at the Weir home on Battleground Road during the hours of 4 o'clock to 5:30 honoring Misses Bess-Alice and Lucy Weir Hambricht, whose marriages to Marriotte Phifer and James Herman Kinard respectively will take place on June 26th.

Misses Hambricht To Be Honored At Tea

Miss Venetress Weir entertained at a miscellaneous shower at the S. S. Weir home on Battleground Road on June 16th, honoring Misses Bess-Alice and Lucy Weir Hambricht of Grover, brides-elect of this month.

The dining room, where entertaining was done, was decorated with bowls of mixed flowers. The dining table centerpiece consisted of miniature twin brides and grooms and crystal swans filled with sweet peas and feverfew.

Following games, including a drawing contest, a delicious salad course was served. Miss Weir was assisted in serving by Miss Mae Sue Hambricht and Mrs. Sam Weir, Jr.

Little Misses Derice and Marlene Weir presented the gifts to the brides-elect on a toy wagon which was beautifully decorated in white.

The Misses Hambricht, who are nieces of Miss Weir, will be married in a double wedding on June 26th at Antioch church in Grover.

Guests included the honorees and their mother, Mrs. T. A. Hambricht, Miss Mae Sut Hambricht and Mrs. Anderson Hambricht of Grover; Mrs. Frank Weir and Miss Jess Jane Weir of Gastonia and Mrs. A. D. Cantrell of Charlotte.

Misses Hambricht Give Wedding Plans

Misses Bess-Alice and Lucy Weir Hambricht, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Hambricht of Grover, have completed the plans for their double wedding which is to take place Wednesday, June 26, at five o'clock at Antioch Baptist church.

Miss Bess-Alice Hambricht will become the bride of Marriotte Phifer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Campbell Phifer of Kings Mountain and Miss Lucy Weir Hambricht will be married to Herman Kinard, son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Kinard of Blacksburg, S. C.

Rev. W. A. Hoffman of Gastonia, former pastor of the prospective brides, will officiate. Mrs. Frank Hambricht, organist, and Miss Ada Mae Moss, vocalist, will furnish the wedding music. Both girls will be given in marriage by their father.

Acting as best man for Mr. Phifer will be his brother, Menzell Phifer. Mr. Kinard's brother-in-law, Tom Wilkerson of Charlotte, will be his best man.

Each bride will have one of her sisters as maid-of-honor; Miss Sue Hambricht for Miss Lucy Weir Hambricht and Mrs. A. D. Cantrell of Charlotte for Miss Bess-Alice Hambricht. Bridesmaids will be Miss Francella Kinard of Blacksburg, S. C., Miss Jess Jane Weir of Gastonia; Miss Sue Ramseur of Bessemer City and Miss Doris Phifer of Kings Mountain.

The ushers will be Eugene Roberts William S. Fulton, jr., Wendell Phifer and Lawrence Hambricht.

The brides-elect have been entertained at a series of pre-nuptial parties by their wide circle of friends including a dinner party on Friday, night given by Mrs. John Gold and Miss Geneva Tate at the home of the latter in Grover.

Recent Bride Honored At Edens Home Thurs.

Mrs. C. C. Edens and her daughter, Miss Naomi Edens, were hostesses on last Thursday night, paying compliment to Mrs. J. C. Bridges, recent bride.

The living room and dining room were charming with bowls of sweet-peas and other mixed garden flowers arranged effectively. The three card tables were centered with tiny vases of dainty flowers.

The guests enjoyed an evening of playing Hearts. Miss Betty Du Hayes was winner of high score prize and Miss Mary Beth Ford won low prize. The hostesses' gift to the honoree was a water pitcher in her chosen tea service.

Following play and presentation of gifts, a delicious salad course and dessert course was served.
