

MRS. JAMES HERMAN KINARD

Misses Hambright Wed In Double Ceremony

GROVER, June 27.—The Antioch Baptist church was the scene of the beautiful double wedding of Miss Bess-Alice Hambright, who became the bride of Marriott Darlington Phifer of Kings Mountain and Miss Lucy Weir Hambright, who became the bride of James Herman Kinard of Blacksburg, S. C., at five o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

The Rev. W. A. Hoffman officiated. The vows were spoken before the altar which was banked with greenery, seven branched candleabra holding white tapers, and floor baskets of white gladioli, snapdragons and baby's-breath.

Before the ceremony Mrs. Frank Hambright, pianist, played "Liebestraum" by Liszt, "The Rosary," "To A Wild Rose" and "Oh Perfect Love." Miss Asia Mae Moss sang "Ave Maria" and "Because." The wedding march from Lohengrin was used as the processional and Mendelssohn's march was played for the recessional.

Lucy was escorted to the altar by Anderson Hambright, brother of the brides and Bess-Alice by their father, T. A. Hambright, who gave both daughters in marriage.

The brides wore identical white satin wedding gowns, each designed with a fitted bodice, sweetheart neck, outlined with pearls, long sleeves ending in calla lily points, and a veil of imported lace fashioned with a coronet of orange blossoms and seed pearls. Each carried a bouquet of calla lilies and orchids showered with white satin streamers.

Mrs. A. D. Cantrell of Charlotte, matron of honor and Miss Sue Hambright of Grover, maid of honor, both sisters of the brides, wore peach satin gowns and carried bouquets of blue, white and peach colored flowers.

Miss Sue Ramseur of Bessemer City and Miss Doris Phifer of Kings Mountain, sister of the groom, served as bridesmaids for Bess-Alice; Miss Prancelia Kinard, sister of the groom, and Miss Jess Jane Weir of Gastonia, attended Lucy. Miss Weir and Miss Kinard wore blue satin gowns and carried arm bouquets of yellow flowers, a Miss Ramseur and Miss Phifer wore yellow satin gowns and carried bouquets of blue flowers.

Kenneth and David Roberts, nephews of the brides, carried the rings to the altar on white satin heart-shaped pillows.

Menzell Phifer of Kings Mountain was his brother's best man; Tom Williams of Charlotte was best man for his brother-in-law, Mr. Kinard. The ushers were Eugene Roberts, William Fulton, Wendell Phifer all of Kings Mountain and Lawrence Hambright of Grover.

Mrs. T. A. Hambright, mother of the brides, wore a white and blue crepe dress with a large picture hat and corsage of red roses. Mrs. Campbell Phifer, mother of one of the bridegrooms, wore a crepe print dress with a corsage of white gardenias. Mrs. John H. Kinard was unable to attend the wedding because of a prolonged illness.

Immediately after the wedding a reception was held at the Elms, the beautiful country home of the bride's parents, where Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Roberts, brother-in-law and sister of the brides, received the guests and presented them to the parents of the brides and grooms and the bridal party.

Both couples left later for wedding trips. For traveling, Mrs. Phifer wore a light gray suit with pink accessories and a shoulder corsage of cattaluga orchids sent by a friend from Honolulu for the wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Phifer will make their home in Kings Mountain. For traveling Mrs. Kinard wore a navy blue crepe suit with dust of rose accessories and a corsage of the cattaluga orchids. Mr. and Mrs. Kinard will make their home in Blacksburg, South Carolina.

Misses Falls Honored At Lovely Breakfast

Miss Carlyle Ware was hostess on Wednesday morning, June 19th at 9 o'clock at a breakfast at her home on Mountain street, honoring her houseguests, Misses Elizabeth and Laura Falls of Asheville, who as girls made their home in this city.

The living room, where breakfast was served at card tables, was arranged with garden flowers in a variety of colors. Each table was covered with a bright cloth and ce-tered with a decorative mould of colorful jelly.

Following the delicious breakfast served by Miss Ware, who was assisted by Miss Stella Patterson, the guests chatted and discussed interesting events that have taken place since the departure of the Falls family from this city.

The guests, who were school-mates of the Misses Falls, were: Mesdames C. E. Neister, W. A. Ridenhour, O. C. O'Farrell, H. N. Moss, H. T. Fulton, E. L. Campbell, Lona McGill, Moke Plonk, B. M. Ormand and W. T. Jackson.
