

Goforth-Jones Vows Spoken In Beautiful Ceremony June 23rd

The marriage of Miss Dorothy Louise Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Bennett Jones of Havelock, and I Ben Goforth, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Goforth of Kings Mountain, was solemnized at the First Methodist church in Morehead City on Sunday June 23, at 5 o'clock in the afternoon. Chaplain (Captain) Jerome Huneycutt officiated, using the double ring ceremony.

Native greens, white gladioli, and seven branched candelabra holding white tapers formed the background at the altar where vows were spoken. Before the ceremony, Mrs. N. R. Webb, organist, played traditional wedding music. Mrs. Josiah Bailey, jr soloist, sang "Because" immediately before the ceremony, and "The Lord's Prayer" as the benediction. The wedding march from Lohengrin was played for the processional and Mendelssohn's Wedding March from "A Midsummer Night's Dream" for the recessional.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown fashioned of white slipper satin and net. The fitted bodice of the gown was topped by a net yoke and an applique of flowers. Long sleeves ended in calla lily points over the hands. Her skirt of net extended into a short train. The veil of illusion, which extended slightly beyond the train of the gown fell from a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and baby's breath centered by an orchid. Her only ornament was a strand of pearls gift of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Becky Clarke, cousin of the bride, acted as dame of honor. Her full-length gown of pink net and lace was fashioned with a round neck-line, deep net yoke, full skirt and elbow length sleeve.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Alberta Huneycutt and Miss Sarita Oglesby of Morehead City, and Mrs. Virginia Greene of Mooresboro. They wore identical dresses of blue, same design as that of the dame of honor. Each of the bride's attendants carried an arm bouquet of deep red carnations with long streamers of matching ribbon.

The bridegroom had as his best man E. W. Griffin, Jr., of Kings Mountain. Ushers were G. W. Greene of Mooresboro, T. L. Herring of Wilson, A. B. Jones, Jr., of Havelock, brother of the bride, and M. A. Carpenter of Kings Mountain.

The mother of the bride wore an aqua crepe dress with white accessories, and a shoulder corsage of red roses. The groom's mother wore pink dress with black accessories and corsage of white roses.

Following the ceremony the couple left for a wedding trip. For traveling Mrs. Goforth wore a dress of yellow crepe with white accessories, and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Goforth was graduated from the Morehead City high school and attended Appalachian State Teachers college. She recently graduated from the Rex Hospital School of Nursing in Raleigh.

Mr. Goforth graduated from Kings Mountain high school and attended Appalachian State Teachers college. After serving 32 months in the U. S. Navy, Mr. Goforth was honorably discharged in March of this year.
