

Society News

Miss Barber Becomes Bride of Billie Green

The First Presbyterian church in this city was the scene of a beautiful wedding on Sunday, August 4th, at high noon when Miss Sara L. Barber became the bride of Billie L. Green, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Mullinar of New Orleans, La., sister of the bride, was matron of honor and only attendant. Mrs. Mullinar was attired in a light tan suit and wore black accessories. Ken Heafner, of Shelby, was the groom's best man.

Mrs. W. E. Barber, mother of the bride wore a white and blue print crepe dress with white accessories and corsage of white roses.

Immediately after the wedding a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Lindsay. The couple left, following the reception, for a wedding trip through Virginia.

Mrs. Green is a graduate of the Kings Mountain high school and a graduate of the Shelby hospital school of nursing. She was recently discharged from the Army Nurse Corps.

The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Green of Shelby, is a graduate of Shelby high school.

Mrs. Tate entertained at a lovely party Tuesday of last week paying compliment to Mrs. Marcella Allen McCarty of Shelby, bride-elect of Saturday. Miss Mary Helen Hambricht, bride-elect shared honors. Mixed summer flowers were arranged throughout the room which were enjoyed. The color note of green and white was observed in the ice course served by the hostess.

Attie Bostick YWA Held Meeting Monday

The Attie Bostick YWA of the First Baptist church met Monday night with Miss Frances Edens at her home on Parker street. Miss Betty Davis, the auxiliary president presided, and Miss Beth Hord was in charge of the program, "Christianity in the Crucible." The presentation was made most interesting by the use of large poster which was displayed. It showed a door, called Opportunity, which opened wide to show inside scenes of Japan, China and Hawaii as each of these countries were discussed in the light of Christian opportunities in missions in these places. Those on the program were: Beulah Rhea, Myrtle Weaver, Frances Edens and Martha McClain.

Delicious refreshments were served after the program by the hostess. Others present included Betty Hoyal, Betty Hayes, Margaret and Virginia Cole, Emogene Bridges, Iva Jean Williamson, and the counselor of the group, Mrs. J. C. Bridges.

Miss Keeter Is Honored At Lovely Garden Party

Paying compliment to Miss Eoline Keeter, bride-elect of tomorrow, Miss Peggy Baker entertained at a lovely garden party at her home on North Piedmont avenue on Friday afternoon.

Guests were greeted on the front lawn by Mrs. Phillip Baker and Mrs. Clarence Plunk, Jr., who directed them to the beautiful garden. Miss Baker and Miss Keeter received at the garden gate. For receiving, the hostess wore a flowered print crepe dress in shades of lavender. Miss Keeter was beautifully attired in a rose colored crepe dress with white accessories and corsage of gardenias and tuberous.

Guests were served ice cream and individual bridal cake and later they were invited to the punch bowl. Serving were Miss Jean Turner of Charlotte and Mrs. Gladys Howard.

Thirty friends of the hostess and honoree were invited to call between five and six o'clock.

Mrs. Willford Honors Miss Hambricht Thursday

Mrs. Mack Willford was hostess at a delightful dinner-bridge Thursday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Campbell, honoring Miss Mary Helen Hambricht, bride-elect.

The party rooms were charming with bows of white roses and Coated white jasmies. The dining table was spread with a lace cloth and centered with a bowl of the gorgeous blooms.

The hostess presented the honoree a corsage of gardenias and as a com. photo souvenir to Miss Hambricht, she was invited into the dining room when games were finished and found the table laden with many lovely shower gifts.

Guests were Miss Hambricht, Mrs. Clarence Plunk, Jr., Miss Mary Frank and Gantt, Mrs. Etta Powers, Miss Peggy Baker, Mrs. John Smith, Miss Eoline Keeter, Miss J. Keeter, Miss Mary Evelyn Gentry, Miss Fay Ross, Miss Margaret Ralston, and Miss Beth Hord.

Mrs. Tate entertained at a lovely party Tuesday of last week paying compliment to Mrs. Marcella Allen McCarty of Shelby, bride-elect of Saturday. Miss Mary Helen Hambricht, bride-elect shared honors. Mixed summer flowers were arranged throughout the room which were enjoyed. The color note of green and white was observed in the ice course served by the hostess.

Mrs. Tate presented Mrs. McCarty and Miss Hambricht lovely gifts. A large number of guests from Shelby attended the party.

Dr. Hord To Entertain Groomsmen At Dinner

Dr. D. F. Hord, whose marriage to Miss Eoline Keeter will take place tomorrow afternoon, will entertain his groomsmen tonight at 8 o'clock at a stag dinner at the home of his mother, Mrs. D. F. Hord.

Guests will be Dr. T. S. Fleming of Smithfield, who will be a house-guest at the Hord home for several days; Dr. Ladd Hamrick, of St. Louis Mo.; Jones Fortune of Kings Mountain and Raleigh, W. C. O'Neil and J. C. Madison of Petersburg, Va.

Pennsylvania Girl To Wed Bruce Styers

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. White of Elizabethtown, Penn., announce the engagement of their daughter, Dolores Mae, to Bruce G. Styers, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Styers of Kings Mountain.

of Kings Mountain high school. At present he holds a responsible position with the Pennsylvania - Central Airlines in Washington, D. C. The date for the wedding has not been set.

It has been authoritatively estimated that the wedding reception menu are served daily in the United States.

Dress Up For Fall

Fashion Notes

Though it may surprise you, another fall is just around the corner and you're fast approaching it—which means it's time to check your wardrobe requirements. Undoubtedly, the basic items are suits and coats and we invite your attention to Belk's where we're showing a wide selection of newest fashions.

Suits

The new 1946 suits are what you might expect of the first really post-war models. They're neatly styled by expert tailors for typical suit wear, and it's a joy to have one in your wardrobe.

$24.50 up

Ensembles

Or if you prefer a three-piece ensemble, with matching suit and coat, this creation is top-most in fashions too, and you'll find plenty of choice here. In suits or ensembles, plenty of rich colors to choose from.

$28.00 to $40.00

Coats

Coat styles are new too, with a "swing toward swing." In other words, the fashion this fall is the loosely-fitting topper with Ragland sleeves, which give you plenty of swinging room, and there are plenty of tailored toppers too, which combine the two features. See our selections.

$20.00 to $59.00

Shop At Belk's

Belk's Department Store

REMEMBER — You Always Save At BELK'S