Miss Hambricht Is Honored At Luncheon

Miss Mary Helen Hambricht, bride elect of Friday, was complimented on last Thursday at a delightful luncheon at the Armington Hotel in Gastonia given by Miss Margaret Ratterree.

The luncheon table was beautiful with a florists' arrangement of all white blossoms used as the centerpiece. Miss Hambricht's place was marked with a corsage of white blossoms matching those on the table. A delicious four course luncheon was served. Covers were laid for Miss Ratterree, Miss Hambricht, Miss Leone Patterson, Mrs. L. P. Stowe, Mrs. Dan Finger, Mrs. D. F. Hord Jr.

Miss Ratterree presented the honoree a gift of crystal in her chosen pattern.

Miss Betty Lynch Is Honored On Birthday

Miss Betty Lynch was honored at a surprise party at her home on Friday night when 26 of her friends were present to celebrate her 17th birthday.

Miss Lynch was purposely taken away from home near party time and the guests assembled in the den. When she returned, the group sang "Happy Birthday" and presented a host of lovely gifts.

Later in the evening, Mrs. Haywood Lynch, mother of the honoree, invited the young people to the dining room where the table was spread with a white Madeira cloth and centered with a crystal bowl filled with refreshing punch. The table was laden with large trays of assorted sandwiches, nut rolls and cookies.

During the evening, the guests enjoyed dancing.

Women's Clubs To Hold Meeting In Gastonia

According to information received here from Mrs. Robert S. Ormand of Bessemer City, the Fourth District meeting of the North Carolina Federation of Women's clubs will be held in Gastonia on Sept. 19th. Members of the Gastonia Woman's club with Mrs. R. S. Clinton, president, will be hostesses.

Guest speakers for the day will be Mrs. Karl Bishopric, state president; Mrs. John Council, second vice-president; Mrs. Charles Donk, executive secretary; and Miss Dorothy Forbes, president of Junior clubs.

Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Doras Bentley Blacklock announce the engagement of their daughter, Annie Lou, to William Turner Talley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward G. Talley of Gastonia. The wedding will take place in September.

Mrs. Tate Is Hostess At Lovely Informal Tea

Saturday afternoon from four thirty until six o'clock, Mrs. Dickie Tate entertained at her home at an informal tea paying compliment to Marjorie Tate White of Shelby, bride elect of September.

Mrs. L. C. Pinnix greeted guests at the front entrance and Mrs. Harold Crawford introduced them to the receiving line which was composed of Mrs. Tate and her guest-of-honor, Miss Mary Helen Hambricht, bride-elect, Mrs. Don Anderson recent bride of Gastonia; Mrs. Marriott Phifer, a recent bride; Mrs. Robert Styers of Washington, D. C.; Miss Delores white of Elizabeth, Pa., bride-elect of October.

Mrs. Audrey Clay invited guests to the dining room. The room was charming with a white lace cloth gracing the dining table. The centerpiece was a crystal bowl of white asters and tuberoses and was flanked with silver candle sticks holding white tapers.

Mrs. Bill Logan and Mrs. Paul Cole served punch from a very attractively arranged punch bowl at one end of the table. Mrs. Jack Dale of Cherryville, Mrs. Foyd Tate of Greenville and Mrs. Carl Lewis of Gastonia served ice cream, cake and nuts.

Mrs. Eugene Roberts directed guests to the hall where Mrs. Alice Martin presided at the register.

The house was decorated throughout with lovely arrangements of white asters, tuberoses and white gladioli. The hostess presented each honor guest receiving with her a corsage of white carnations.

About fifty guests called during the receiving hours.
