By several gaited horses from Green Hill, S. C., and local horses owned by Byron Keeter and H. Tom Fulton which have captured a large number of ribbons at events this summer.

Foot entries will be accepted, but limited for publication in the official show program is this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Again at 4:30 here are the Getty winners from Clover, S. C., former winners and always favorites with the spectators.

Prize drawings will be held at both shows with the holder of the lucky ticket at the afternoon event to be awarded a Philco combination radio and turntable and with the winner of the night event to be awarded an electric refrigerator.

The club and Mr. Keeter will be host to exhibitors at an outdoor supper at the Keeter home on Cleveland avenue between the two events.

The concession stand at the stadium will feature sliced turkey and ham sandwiches, hamburgers and hot dogs and cold drinks, it was announced this week by Charlie Blalock, chairman of this department.

Mr. Lockhart, while a member of the 150th Infantry, SIAEF, the general's command, and stationed in Manchester, England, met and married Miss Jessie Lowe. Wedding bells rang on April 10, 1945.

Mr. Lockhart applied for a visa in July 1945 and left his wife for Army transportation, arriving home in November 1945.

He was notified, he stated, to expect her here in May 1946 but as she has not arrived.

The letter dated August 22 from the Office of the Chief of Staff War Department, follows:

Dear Mr. Lockhart:

I am distressed to learn of the difficulties you have encountered in arranging for your wife's transportation to this country. I have directed a member of my staff to look into this case and to let you know what is holding up Mrs. Lockhart's transportation. You will be hearing from this officer as soon as this information can be obtained. Many thanks for writing and, with best wishes.

The letter, apparently typed by the general, was signed Dwight D. Eisenhower.

More About Vets Claims

Ref. matters at the rate of $1.25 per day.

Settlement will be made in United States bond to the highest multiple of $25 and any remainder by check, with any total amount less than $50 to be paid in cash.

Captain McBrayer stated that original copies of discharge may be furnished with the claim if it has been received, but strongly advised veterans to get either a photostatic copy or a certified copy.

He also stated that the forms were simple to fill out but must be notarized. Mr. McBrayer is a notary and said he would be glad to check the blanks and notarize them for any applicant.

He is on Kings Mountain on Tuesday mornings and Thursday afternoons at city hall and can be reached at his office in the Courthouse in Shelby during the rest of the week.

General Ike Replies To Former GI's Letter

Lawrence Lockhart, son of "Pop" Phillips, caretaker of Lake Montonia received a personal letter from General of the Armies, Dwight D. Eisenhower, Army Chief of Staff, this week in answer to a letter he had sent the famous general concerning transportation for his English wife to the United States.

Mr. Lockhart, while a member of the 150th Infantry, SIAEF, the general's command, and stationed in Manchester, England, met and married Miss Jessie Lowe. Wedding bells rang on April 10, 1945.
