NEGRO NEWS

By Mrs. Jessie G Costner

The Rev. Jasper Rice, founder and builder of Rice Chapel church, will speak to both white and colored on the first Sunday in September at 3 p. m. at the church. There will be good singing. The Traveling Five quartet from Lawndale will sing, and Deacon Kerns, a great spiritual singer and others will sing. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

Mr. Lacy Cochrane of Holly Springs, Miss., is visiting his son, Rev. L. J. Cochrane, pastor of Bynum-chapel A. M. E. Zion church. The revival meeting is on this week at Bynum Chapel A. M. E. Zion church. Rev. C. C. Martin is conducting the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde E. Fowlkes of Leaksville, N. C. attended the services at Bynum Chapel A. M. E. Zion church Sunday morning. After the services they visited many friends in Kings Mountain. Mr. Fowlkes is a former teacher of Davidson school. At present he and Mrs. Fowlkes both teach in the high school at Leaksville.

Bynum Chapel A. M. E. Zion church has put on its building program. The first building rally will be conducted the third Sunday in October. Everybody is kindly asked to help in this building campaign. Rev. L. J. Cochrane is pastor.

The Southern City Quintet from Philadelphia, Pa., appeared at Bynum Chapel church Sunday night.

The Southern City Quintet of Philadelphia, Pa., will challenge the General Four of Shelby in songs at Davidsor school AUG. 29, at 8 p. m. Everyone is asked to attend. This program is being sponsored by St. Paul Methodist church.

Miss Edna Mae Roberts, a former graduate of Davidson school is a member of the Southern City Quintet.

Mr. W. M. Briggs wishes to thank the Friendly Aid Society and many friends who visited him during his sickness.
