Birthday Dinner Given Mrs. Westmoreland

Mrs. Lily Westmoreland of Asheville, Ga., was honored at a lovely birthday dinner last Sunday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Fulton Everhart. The dinner party was a complete surprise to Mrs. Westmoreland, who was celebrating her 79th birthday anniversary. All of Mrs. Westmoreland's sisters were present for the event as well as several other relatives and friends. She received many beautiful gifts. Those enjoying the bountiful dinner besides Mrs. Westmoreland and Mr. and Mrs. Everhart were: Mrs. C. S. Wood, and children, Juanita, Mary Ann, Hansel, and Betty from Spartanburg; Mrs. J. C. Painter, jr., and daughter, Elaine, from Spartanburg; Mrs. Frank Dyer of Woodruff; Mrs. Isaac McElhennan of Wootville; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Watson and children Shirley, Barbara, and David of Boone; Mr. C. M. Watson, also of Boone; Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Cole and children, Margaret, Virginia and Lewis; Mrs. W. R. Everhart, Mike Everhart, Billy Herndon and Gary Allan, all of this city.

Book Club Meets With Mrs. Mauney

The Thursday Book club was entertained last week by Mrs. D. C. Mauney at her home on Ridge Street. The rooms were beautifully decorated with roses and chrysanthemums. Mrs. W. M. Moorhead was in charge of the program which was based on the lives and works of Kate Smith and Tom Breneman. During the business session, the books for the coming year were selected and the dues collected. A committee was appointed to nominate the officers who will be elected at the next meeting. There were 20 members present. At the conclusion of the meeting the guests were served an attractive and tasty salad course.

Methodist Circle Meets With Mrs. Beam

Circle number two of the Methodist church met Monday night at the home of Mrs. Ben Beam. The leader, Mrs. C. L. Jolly, presided over the meeting which was attended by 14 members and two visitors. Mrs. Yates Throneburg presented the devotional and Mrs. W. R. Craig gave the Bible study, choosing as her theme, "One God, One Brotherhood." Following the program, the hostess served delightful refreshments.

U. D. C. To Meet Next Week

The U. D. C. chapter will meet at the home of Mrs. Paul Neisler next Wednesday, October 23 at 3:30. Mrs. O. C. O'Farrell will be co-hostess with Mrs. Neisler.

Record Attendance At P-TA Meeting

By Mrs. Arnold Kiser) Are Central school parents interested in their children? You would know the answer if you had been at PTA meeting Wednesday afternoon. One hundred and thirty-four parents and teachers filled the high school library to overflowing on October 9 at four o'clock, the second PTA meeting of the year. Never in the history of the organization have we known that many parents to be present. Mrs. W. H. Stabler conducted the devotional in a most inspiring and informative manner. She chose as her topic, "Safety," which was the theme of the program. Mrs. Carl Mayes presented Police Chief N. M. Farr who made a very interesting talk on Safety.

Miss Gussie Huffstetler's seventh grade had the highest percentage of parents present. Miss Goodman's 9th grade was second with Miss Brown's first grade running a close third.

Nan Jean Gantt gave a vivid description of Miss Huffstetler's seventh grade's trip to Charlotte in September.

Plans are being made for a Halloween carnival to be held Oct. 31 at Central school.

Come to PTA the second Wednesday in each month. The program lasts only one hour!

Mrs. Page Feted In Lattimore

Mrs. Jim Page shared honors with Miss Madge Spaulding. Mrs. Hugh Lattimore and Mrs. E. T. Lattimore at a lovely formal tea, given in Lattimore last Saturday at the home of Mrs. Norman Lee with Mrs. Susan Lee and Mrs. R. E. Haynes as joint hostesses.

Tuesday Club Entertained

Mrs. Halbert Webb was hostess to members of the Tuesday club this week. The playing room was gay with fall flowers, which were also used throughout the house. Tempting refreshments were served at the conclusion of play.

Mrs. Houser Hostess To Fortnighters

Mrs. George Houser was hostess on last Friday afternoon to members of the Fortnighter bridge club. As decoration in the living room, Mrs. Houser used lovely arrangements of roses and chrysanthemums. Two tables were in play and after several progressions, the guests were served a delectable salad course.

Gleaners Class Entertained

The Gleaners class of the First Baptist church held its regular monthly meeting last Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. Herman Yawn, with Mrs. R. G. Whisnant and Mrs. Margaret Spivey as co-hostesses with Mrs. Yawn.

The president, Mrs. D. E. Tate, presided over the business session, during which time, Mrs. J. E. Huncutt accepted the presidency for the coming year.

Mrs. Bill Logan was in charge of a cleverly planned program, after which the members and guests were treated to hot dogs, cakes, apples and candy.
