PTA To Have Hallowe'en Carnival At Central

Members of Central Parent-Teachers association are completing plans for a Hallowe'en Carnival to be held on Thursday night, Oct. 31 at Central school.

Plans include games for all ages, amusement booths, refreshment stand where hot-dogs, drinks and candies may be secured, and a dance in the gymnasium for students of Junior high school and high school ages. Prizes will be awarded to the boy and girl wearing the most comical costumes and prizes to the boy and girl dressed in the most decorative or pretty costumes.

Yates Studio will have a photographer on hand to make pictures of the prize winners and the pictures will appear in the Herald.

Admission to the carnival will be three grades and ten cents for students above third grade.

A small admission will be taken from those attending the dance.

Carnival will begin at 7 o'clock on Thursday night, Oct. 31.

Plan to meet the ghosts and goblins at Central school.

Legion Auxiliary Held Regular October Meet

American Legion met at the home of Mrs. M. C. Amos on Wednesday night for its regular monthly business meeting. Mrs. Dickie Tate, president of the auxiliary, had charge of business, after which Mrs. Paul Mauney and Mrs. Ben Goforth gave interesting articles taken from the National News Magazine.

Four new members were received into the auxiliary.

At the close of the program, the hostess served delicious refreshments carrying out the Hallowe'en motif.

A large number of members attended the meeting.

Eunice Class Meets At Bridges Home

The Eunice Bible Class of the First Baptist church had its monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. G. A. Bridges Monday night. Co-hostesses with Mrs. Bridges were Mrs. W. W. Souther and Mrs. Earl Ledford. The living room and dining room were decorated with fall flowers.

After a short but impressive stimulation of new officers by candlelight, the president, Mrs. Earl Ledford, led the business session. During the social hour the hostesses served delicious refreshments with a Hallowe'en motif.

There were 16 class members present.

The November meeting will be held with Mrs. J. M. Rhea at her home on Mountain street.

WOW Circle To Have

The local Grove of the Woodmen circle will give a Hallowe'en party at the W. O. W. hall on Friday night October 25th. The party will begin at 7 o'clock.

All members are urged to attend and enjoy the party.

Dickey - Pulliam Vows Are Spoken

Winston-Salem. — Miss Audrey Gray Pulliam, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy C. Pulliam, High Point Road, became the bride of James J. Dickey, son of Mrs. Bessie Falls Dickey and the late James R. Dickey of Kings Mountain, at 6 p. m., Monday, October 19, Christ Moravian Church. The Rev. Samuel J. Tesch, former pastor of the bride, officiated using the double-ring ceremony.

The vows were spoken before a background of ferns, white chrysanthemums and white dahlias interspersed with cathedral candles in seven-branched candelabra.

Prior to the ceremony, a musical program was presented by Mrs. Clayton Frost, organist, and Miss Carolyn Cline of Salisbury, soloist.

The bride entered with her father, by whom she was given in marriage. Her gown of ivory slipper satin, was fashioned with a ruffle outlining the low V neckline, high sheer yoke, a fitted bodice and long sleeves. The full skirt extended into a court train. The bride's veil of illusion was caught by a tiara of seed pearls and she carried a prayer book topped with a white orchid and a bouquet of red roses.

Mrs. Fred Long, city, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Her gown of pink embroidered jersey was designed with an off-the-shoulder neckline and bouffant skirt of net over taffeta. Her headdress was a Miss Dorothy Pulliam, sister of the bride, and Miss Nancy Dickey, sister of the bridegroom, were bridesmaids. They wore gowns of blue brocade satin with V necklines, cap sleeves and bouffant skirts. Their headdresses were blue bonnets and they carried bouquets of pink rosebuds.

The bridegroom's best man was his uncle, Oliver Falls of Kings Mountain. Ushers were Ben Bridges, Kings Mountain; Lynn Hunter, Belwood, Pa. M. L. Barnes, Gastonia and Ray Strunk, Belwood, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Pulliam entertained at a reception following the ceremony for members of the wedding party, families and out-of-town guests. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Long greeted the guests. Miss Gaynelle Charles presided over the punch bowl. Assisting in serving were Mrs. Thompson Shouse, Miss Gail Pulliam, Miss Margy Lou Dickey, Mrs. Howard Charles and Mrs. H. F. Anderson. Goodbyes were said to Mr. and Mrs. F. Murray White.

After the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Dickey left for a short wedding trip. For travel, Mrs. Dickey chose a grey suit and black accessories.

Mrs. Dickey attended Catawba College, Salisbury, and for the past few months was employed in the office of Reynolds Tobacco Co.

Mr. Dickey has resumed his studies at Catawba College, after three years service in the marine corps.

The couple will be at home in Salisbury for the present.

Miss White Becomes Bride of Bruce Styers

St. Anthony's Catholic church of Washington, D. C., was the scene of a pretty wedding on Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock when Miss Dolores White of Elizabeth, Penn., became the bride of Bruce G. Styers of Kings Mountain.

Father Bailey, O. S. B. pastor of the bride, performed the ceremony. Miss Rita White of Elizabeth, Penn., was her sister's only attendant and Robert Styers of Washington, D. C., brother of the bridegroom was best man.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a two piece suit of blueberry gabardine fashioned with a poplum and a draped skirt. She wore a matching hat and brown accessories, and a shoulder bouquet of white roses. Her only ornament was a diamond studded studded gold pin, gift of the groom.

Mrs. W. E. White, mother of the bride wore a black gabardine suit with a white orchid and a bouquet of red roses. Mrs. W. F. Styers, mother of the groom, was attired in a black crepe suit with matching accessories and a corsage of red roses.

Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. White entertained at a reception in the gorgeous Red Room at Hotel 2400 for the bridal party, out-of-town guests and friends of the couple.

Later, Mr. and Mrs. Styers left for a wedding trip to Canada.

Mrs. Styers, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. White, was graduated from Elizabeth High School and St. Mary's College. For the past two years, she has held a position with Pennsylvania - Central airline.

Mr. Styers, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Styers of this city, was a graduate of Kings Mountain high school and served with the Army in the India, China, Burma Theater of operations during the war. He is now flight operations agent for Pennsylvania-Central Airlines in Washington, D. C.

Among those attending the wedding and reception were Mrs. W. F. Styers, Mrs. Dickie Tate and Joe McDaniel of Kings Mountain and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lewis of Gastonia.

After November 1, Mr. and Mrs. Styers will be at home in Beverly Park, Alexandria, Va.
