Miss Gallant Weds Mr. King

The marriage of Miss Mary Irene Gallant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Gallant, to Clarence Joseph King, son of Mr. F. E. King and the late Mrs. King of Bristol, R. I., took place at the Abbey cathedral in Belmont, Sunday Nov. 17, at 4 o'clock.

Rev. Father Gregory, the bride's pastor, heard the vows, which were exchanged before a background of ferns and white chrysanthemums. The double ring ceremony was used.

A program of nuptial music was rendered by Mrs. L. C. Pinnix, organist, and Mary Jo Bumgardner of Belmont, soloist.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore a gown of satin moire fashioned with fitted bodice with a net yoke and a full net skirt which extended into a train. Her full length veil of bridal illusion was worn with a coronet of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white roses centered with an orchid and flowers with satin streamers caught with tulle ribbons.

Miss Christine Gallant, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a pale green taffeta dress and net headdress. She carried an arm bouquet of mixed chrysanthemums tied with yellow satin ribbon.

Bridesmaids were Miss Daphne Ballard of this city and Miss Teressa Kabas of Charlotte. They were gowned in pink net and carried bouquets similar to that of the maid of honor. The bride's mother wore a blue velvet dress and a corsage of orchids.

A. J. Gallant, jr., served the bride room as best man. Ushers were B. T. Wright, jr., and David Saunders, jr., of Kings Mountain, Cadet Major Eddie Faybe and Cadet Lt. Dennis Dunn of Belmont Abbey.

The register was kept by Miss Louise Wright.

Immediately following the ceremony, the bride's parents entertained at a reception for members of the wedding party and close friends.

Mrs. Grady McCarter introduced the guests, Mrs. Carl Mayes served the cake and Mrs. Hugh Ballard served punch.

After the reception the bridal couple left for a short wedding trip. For traveling, the bride wore a blue suit, white blouse sequined with gold, and black accessories.

Mrs. King was educated in the public school of Kings Mountain and for the past eight years has held a position at the Margrace finishing plant.

Mr. King is a graduate of Holts High school in Bristol, R. I. He was honorably discharged from the armed service in August 1945. During his period of service, he was a prisoner in Germany for 26 months.

Mr. and Mrs. King will make their home at 110 Vernon st., Warren, R. I.

60th Wedding Anniversary Celebrated

Mr. and Mrs. M. Williams observed their 60th wedding anniversary last Thursday and were pleasantly surprised when seven of their eight children, with their families united at the home to offer congratulations. Smyre, who lives in Winston-Salem, was unable to come due to illness. Mrs. J. E. Murphy, of Atlanta, who is Mrs. Williams' only sister, was among those present for the celebration.

Party Honors Bride-To-Be

Miss Christine Gallant, bride-elect of this evening, was guest of honor at a party and shower last Wednesday night when Misses Louise Wright and Katherine Hill entertained at the Wright home.

The bridal color note of green and white was observed in decorating the party rooms and the tables, which were set up when the guests arrived were remarkably attractive with their madeira linen covers and centered with miniature vases of flowers.

The hostesses served a salad course with dessert, after which Hearts was in play at four tables.

Miss Gallant was presented an honor gift from the hostesses and many other gifts from the guests.

Bride-To-Be Complimented

Miss Christine Gallant, whose marriage to Walter D. Morrison will be solemnized this evening, was honored last Thursday night at a miscellaneous shower given by Mrs. David Cash and Mrs. Bryant Wells at the Cash home on York Road.

Several games and contests were played and prizes were won by Miss Gallant and Mrs. Baxter Paysour.

The hostesses presented Miss Gallant an honor gift and also remembered Mrs. Clarence King and Mrs. Baxter Paysour, recent brides with gifts. The honoree was then presented a shower of gifts from the guests. A delightful salad course and dessert was served.

Birth Announcements

Mr. and Mrs. George Hull announce the birth of a daughter on Nov. 17.

Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Hades announce the birth of a daughter on Nov. 17 at Bradford Hospital, Bradford, Pa.

Mrs. Hades is the former Miss Martha Sue Littlejohn.

Mrs. Coggins Room Wins Trip

At the regular meeting of the PTA which was held last Wednesday in the high school library, Mrs. Harold Coggins' room won the coveted trip to Charlotte by having the largest percentage of parents present. One hundred parents and teachers attended the meeting.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. Paul Mauney presided. Mrs. D. F. Hord, jr., gave the devotional and Mrs. Ted Weir presented the program the topic of which was "Libraries." Mrs. Charles Campbell, librarian at the City Library, gave a brief resume of the progress of the City Library since its beginning; Miss Alma Wright discussed the school's Elementary Library, and Mrs. Weir reported on the High School Library. The program was both interesting and informative and those present who weren't present missed an enjoyable hour.

These meetings last only one hour and a cordial invitation is issued to all parents of school age children to attend.

Honored Bride-To-Be

At the home of Miss Edens on Tuesday night, Miss Evelyn Edens, Mrs. Clarence Smith and Mrs. Everett Russell were hostesses at a lingerie shower honoring Miss Christine Gallant.

Bowls of seasonal blooms decorated the living room where the honoree and guests played a series of bridal games. Miss Gallant received an honor gift from the hostesses and a shower of trousseau lingerie from the guests. After the presentation of gifts, the hostesses served tasty refreshments.
