

MISS CHRISTINE GALLANT IS WED TO MR. MORRISON

MRS. WALTER D. MORRISON

The wedding of Miss Mary Christine Gallant, youngest daughter of Louise Wright, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Gallant, and Walter D. Morrison, son of Mrs. Robert Flowers and the late Mr. Morrison, took place last Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at St. Mary's church in Shelby. Father Adler read the ritual. Palms, white chrysanthemums and seven-branched candelabra holding lighted tapers were used to decorate the altar.

Prior to the wedding, a program of nuptial music was rendered by Mrs. Hubert Plaster, of Shelby, at the organ, and Miss Mary Jo Baumgardner, of Belmont, vocalist. Miss Baumgardner sang "Ave Maria" and "The Rosary." The wedding march from Lohengrin was played for the procession and Mendelssohn's march was used for the recessional. During the exchange of vows, the organist played softly "To A Wild Rose" by Mac-

Dowell. The register was kept by Miss Louise Wright.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white slipper satin made with fitted bodice, long sleeves ending in calli points, and a full skirt which extended into a train. Her full length veil of bridal illusion was worn with a tiara of seed pearls. She carried an arm bouquet of white roses, lilies-of-the-valley, and tuberose, centered with a purple throated orchid. Her only ornament was a necklace of pearls.

Mrs. Clarence King, who before her recent marriage, was Miss Irene Gallant, was her sister's matron-of-honor and only attendant. She wore an aqua taffeta dress and a net headdress. Her bouquet was of tiny yellow chrysanthemums.

Charles W. Patterson served the bridegroom as best man. Ushers were David Saunders, Jr., and A. J. Gallant Jr., brother of the bride.

Mrs. Gallant, the bride's mother, was dressed in blue with gray accessories and wore a corsage of red roses. Mrs. Flowers, mother of the bridegroom, was dressed in black and wore an orchid corsage.

Shortly after the ceremony the young couple left for a wedding trip through the Great Smoky Mountains. For traveling, the bride wore a gray pin-striped suit with red accessories and used the orchid from her bouquet as a corsage.

Mrs. Morrison graduated from Central high school and for the past two years has held a position in the designing room at the Margraee Mill.

The bridegroom also attended Central high school. He served three years in the Army Air Corps, much of which time was spent overseas. He is now employed by the Texoca Company in Gastonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Morrison will live temporarily with his mother.

Chaney-Jones Nuptials Are Held In Gaffney
Miss Louise Jones and Johnny L. Chaney were united in marriage on Friday, Nov. 15 at the Methodist parsonage in Gaffney, S. C. with the Rev. F. C. Griffith hearing the vows.

Miss Dorothy Chaney, sister of the bridegroom, was the brides only attendant.

Mrs. Chaney is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Jones. She is a graduate of Central High school and has recently held a position at the Mauney Hosiery mill.

Mr. Chaney is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Chaney of Bessemer City, formerly of Kings Mountain. He served three years in the U. S. Navy and is employed at the Algodon Mill in Bessemer City.

The young couple will reside in Bessemer City.

Mrs. Cash An Mrs. Davis Fete Bride At Shower
Mrs. Charles Cash and Mrs. Kenneth Davis were hostesses on Tuesday night at a kitchen shower given for Mrs. Walter Morrison, bride of last week.

The Cash home, where the party was held, was decorated with beautiful arrangements of fall flowers.

Several games and contests were enjoyed during the evening. Prize winners were Mrs. David Cash and Mrs. Grady McCarter, who presented their prizes to the honoree.

Mrs. Morrison received many useful kitchen utensils in the shower. Mrs. Clarence Plonk, Jr., was also remembered with a gift from the hostesses.

After the gifts were displayed, the hostesses served a delightful salad and dessert.

Will Give Reception
The Boyce Memorial Associate Reformed Presbyterian church has issued an invitation for a reception to be given Tuesday evening, December 3, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Moffatt Ware. The reception will be an informal affair and is being given to introduce Rev. and Mrs. William L. Pressly.

Those who have been invited besides the ARP church members are the ministers and officers of the other churches and their wives.

Birth Announcements
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stroup of Gastonia announce the birth of a son, Karl Franklin, at Gaston Memorial hospital on Nov. 23. Mrs. Stroup was before her marriage Miss Nelline Gault.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill McGill, Jr., of Albany, Ga., announce the birth of a son, William Thomas, on Nov. 19.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hardin announce the birth of a daughter, Glenda Kay, at Gaston Memorial hospital on Nov. 20.

Cake-Cutting Held At Gallant Home
Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Gallant entertained last Wednesday night at a cake-cutting for Miss Christine Gallant and Walter Morrison, members of their wedding party, and a number of close friends.

The three-tiered wedding cake, topped with miniature bride and groom under an arch from which hung small wedding bells, was posed on the dining table which was covered with an exquisite lace cloth. Three-branched candelabra holding white tapers were used on each end of the table.

Mrs. Carl Mayes and Mrs. Grady McCarter served the cake and punch.

Bogus Currency Ring Is Smashed
Secret Service Agent Given Main Credit for Big Job.

NEW YORK.—A secret service agent, who posed as a West coast racketeer and dope peddler, was credited by the treasury department with smashing a currency counterfeiting ring and "recovering the largest haul of bogus money in 10 years."

The agent, Victor Carlil of the Los Angeles bureau, was assigned to the case after the counterfeiters had passed a $20 bill at a bank.

Working closely with the ring to establish confidence, Carlil offered to buy $110,000 of the $20 bills at $7 a $100. As the deal was consummated in a hotel lobby, other agents closed in and arrested Joseph Soroka, 33, alias "Mousey," and Joseph Giarruso, 39, of 13 Foster street, Bergenfield, N. J.

Two others, Joseph Paternoster, 44, of 95 State street, Newark, N. J., and George A. Larkin, 41, of 20 Court street, Newark, were arrested later in Newark, where Paternoster allegedly printed the bills on presses purchased recently from Larkin.

Arrangements were made for the secret service agent to pick up the bills at Soroka's home and they were brought there from Newark in a carton by Giarruso, according to U. E. Baughman, acting supervisor of the New York secret service office. Carlil protested that the $7,700 purchase price was "a little too dangerous" to carry around, and persuaded the pair to accompany him to the hotel for the payoff.

At a print shop in Newark, agents found a negative for the back of a $20 bill and a strip of nine counterfeit ration coupons. The recovered bills are believed to represent practically the entire output of the plant, although one $20 bill was taken by a taxi driver in addition to the bill passed at the bank.

Soroka and Giarruso were held in $10,000 bail each by United States Commissioner Garrett W. Cotter on charges of printing and passing bogus bills. Larkin and Paternoster were to be arraigned later.
