Mrs. Ware Is Hostess At Dinner Party

Mrs. Moffatt A. Ware was hostess last Thursday evening at a charming dinner party given at her home on Gaston street.

The dining room was beautiful by candlelight which fell on artistic arrangements of red carnations, white snapdragons and nandinas. The red and white color note was carried out in the living room with flowers and candles.

After a delightful three course dinner, the guests played bridge. Score prizes were awarded to Mrs. P. D. Herndon and Mrs. Grady Patterson.

Following the bridge game, Mrs. Ware invited the guests to an old-
