MR. AND MRS. E. H. ORMAND

B. M. Ormands Observe Fiftieth Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Ormand observed their golden wedding anniversary quietly on December 30 but the anniversary was celebrated on December 29 at an informal come-and-go party held between the hours of three and five o'clock.

Huge baskets of gold hued gladioli augmented the traditional Christmas decorations in giving the home an atmosphere of gaiety.

In the dining room, Misses Dorcas Carpenter, Lenora Plonk, and Jean Webb served cake and punch from a beautifully appointed table.

Mr. and Mrs. Ormand were married here on December 30, 1896. Mrs. Ormand is the former Miss Lillian Allison.

Mr. Ormand worked with the Southern Railroad for nearly half a century, retiring in 1939. Most of this time, he served as conductor.

The Ormands have four children, Mrs. O. P. Lewis, Mrs. Troy Carpenter Lloyd and Hugh Ormand, all of Kings Mountain. One son, died in 1906.

Many friends called during the afternoon to offer congratulations. Those from out of town included Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Ormand, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Plonk, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Thornburg, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Williams, Mrs. Bill Morris, Mrs. Irene O. Simmons, and Florence Anne Simmons, all of Bessemer City; Mr. and Mrs. William L. Balthis, J. L. Kennedy, S. N.
