Mrs. Norman Attends Gastonia Luncheon

Mrs. J. S. Norman attended a luncheon last Friday at the Woman's club in Gastonia given by the Major William Chronicle chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution...

Miss Caroway addressed the group, giving an informative talk on the aims and accomplishments of the National Society of the D. A. R.

Mrs. Ralph Summey, regent of Major William Chronicle, presided at the meeting and recognition was made of Mrs. R. B. Babington, Jr., acting regent of William Gaston chapter and vice director of the third district...

Mrs. Norman, who will take office as vice director of the third district at the convention in March, also attended the meeting of the Mecklenburg and Liberty Hall chapters of the D. A. R. which was held in Charlotte on Thursday at the home of Mrs. W. H. Belk...

Miss Caroway addressed this group too and gave an interesting account of the plans for the restoration of Tryon palace in New Bern, the furnishing of which will be a state project for individual chapters.

Following Miss Caroway's discourse, a tea course was served to more than a hundred guests present.

Mrs. Hamrick To Be Honored On Friday

Mrs. Ladd Hamrick of Boiling Springs, will be honored tomorrow at a party to be given by Mrs. J. A. Neisler at her home on York Road.

Miss Ware Honored At Party In Shelby

Miss Bernice Ware, bride-elect of this month, was honored last Thursday evening at a delightful party and kitchen shower given by Mrs. C. D. Bolt, Miss Virginia Mintz, and Miss Neil Sigmon at Mrs. Bolt's home in Shelby.

Bridge, rook, and hearts were in play at five tables which were arranged in the living room and dining room. The seat of honor, at the head table was marked with a tiny bridal figurine.

Score prizes in bridge went to Mrs. Lawrence; in hearts, to Mrs. Holland Dixon and Mrs. Carl Overcash; and in rook to Mrs. T. R. Hord and Mrs. Jack Kennedy.

After the award of prizes, Miss Ware was presented a shower of gifts from the friends present, after which a dessert course with coffee was served.

Those attending from here were Mrs. John F. Ware, Mrs. Holland Dixon, and Mrs. Jack Kennedy.

Local Couple Wed Fifty-Six Years

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Blalock observed their fifty-sixth wedding anniversary on Tuesday, January 7. There was no formal celebration but Mr. and Mrs. Blalock had as visitors for the day Mr. and Mrs. Frank Randall of Grover. Mrs. Blalock and Mr. Randall are sister and brother and are the only surviving members of the family of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Randall of Grover.

Married on January 7, 1890, Mr. and Mrs. Blalock have seven daughters: Mrs. Rush Dixon, of Dallas, Mrs. Lois Bookout of Gastonia, Mrs. Lee Yarbrow and Mrs. Hal Morris of Kings Mountain, Mrs. Lallyage Hord of Shelby, Mrs. Beck Wright of Grover, and Miss Piccola Blalock of the home. Their only son, Tom, lost his life in World War I.

Mrs. Craig Hostess To Circle Members

Mrs. Bill Craig was hostess on Monday night to members of Circle number two of Central Methodist church.

Mrs. Clarence Jolly, the leader, presided and Mrs. Craig gave the Bible lesson.

Eleven members were present and one visitor, Mrs. Butterworth of Fitzgerald, Ga.

Following the program, Mrs. Craig served a frozen dessert course.

Miss Ledbetter Will Wed Herbert J. Moss

The engagement of Miss Louise Ledbetter to Herbert J. Moss is announced today by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Ledbetter.

Mr. Moss is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Moss of 215 Fourth street Rock Hill, S. C.

The wedding date has not yet been announced.

Central PTA Holds January Meeting

The January meeting of the Parents and Teachers association of Central school was held on the second Wednesday of the month in the high school library. Mrs. Haywood E. Lynch, president, presided, and Mrs. John Plunk gave the devotional.

"Education in the Home" was the study for the month and Mrs. W. H. Stender, program chairman, presented Rev. W. L. Pressly, who gave an informative discourse on this subject.

After the program, Mrs. Paul Mauney reported that the treasury holds $23.60.

Mrs. Hidenhour's twelfth grade was the winners of the trip this month, which may not be made on schedule, since more funds will have to be raised before the bus can be sent. Miss McGill's third grade was primary winner, tying with Miss Brown's first grade. The winner of the contest was given to the third grade since the first grade was not ready had a party.

Foremost in the business discussion was the congested condition of the street directly in front of the school. The group asked all people who park their cars on East Ridge street during school hours to use Gaston street as much as possible.

Mr. Huneycutt was asked to make a report on the welfare and health of the children at Central so that if there was a need for help, the PTA could determine how they might be of service.

Mrs. Paul Mauney, membership chairman was praised for her good work in securing the membership dues and sending them in time for Central to be named on the "North Carolina Congress P. T. A. Honor Roll." Both Central and West schools were listed in the N. C. Congress Bulletin as Associations whose membership equal or exceed that of last year. Central has more than trebled its membership.

Business Circle Met Monday Night

The Junior Business Women's Circle of the First Baptist church held its regular monthly meeting on Monday night at the home of Miss Irene Allen.

Miss Diana Gamble, the leader, presided, and Miss Beatrice Spratt presented a timely program.

During the social period, Miss Allen served a salad course with coffee.

Legion Auxiliary Meets At Tate Home

The American Legion Auxiliary met last Thursday night at the home of Mrs. Dickie Tate.

To open the meeting, the members gave the salute to the flag after which the chaplain, Mrs. J. R. Davis gave the devotional.

Following the business session, Miss Betty Howard, representative at Girls' State, gave an inspiring report of that meeting.

During the social period, Mrs. Tate served appetizing refreshment. Several new members and visitors were among those present.

Mrs. McGill Feted At Surprise Party

Mrs. Lona McGill was delightfully honored last Saturday at a surprise birthday party given by her daughter, Mrs. John Gamble.

The cake, a lovely creation frosted in pink and white, had the greeting "Happy Birthday" inscribed across the top and was used as a centerpiece for the lace covered dining table. When the cake was cut, it was served with ice cream and nut bars. Mrs. John McGill assisted Mrs. Gamble in serving.

Those sharing in the celebration were Mesdames George Cansler, Joe Crawford, Emma Pursley, Bright Battersree, Charles Fulton, Lee Herndon, and Elmer Spencer.

Miss Dedmon Hostess At Family Dinner

Miss Matilda Dedmon was hostess on Sunday at an informal family dinner.

Covers were laid for the following guests, Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Dedmon, Mr. and Mrs. George Dedmon, Mr. and Mrs. Recatur Pruett, Mrs. Sarah Toney, Misses Mary Janne Toney, Lou Jean and Annie Dedmon, Janie Sue and Helen Pruett, all of Shelby, and her aunt, Mrs. Charles Shepard of Kings Mountain.

Mrs. Kelly Hostess To Society Members

The Missionary Society of the Wesleyan Methodist church met Saturday night, January 11, at the home of Mrs. N. H. Kelly, on Walker street. There were sixteen members present.

Miss Lillie Miller, the president, was in charge of the devotionals and prayers were offered by Mrs. Jack Phillips and Miss Gertie Connor.

During a short business session, the ladies raised $28.10 for Missions.

The program was on the New Year and open table readings were given by Mrs. Grace Brown, Mrs. Lila Hollister and Mrs. Gertie Connor.

Rodgers and Meredith Get 8 Months in Jail

Two men sent up from Recorder's court here to Cleveland county Superior Court received stiff sentences from Judge Wilson Warlick last week in Shelby.

Elisha Rodgers, who appealed sentences of thirty days and costs and six months in jail on two assault charges in Recorder's court here, was given an eight months jail term and put on good behavior for three years after serving that time or go to jail for eighteen months.

Rodgers assaulted Officer Lebon Thornburg with a .22 calibre rifle on January 3.

Haskell Meredith, bound over to the court on a breaking and entering charge, was given eight months straight time by the Judge. He was charged with the robbery of Houser Transfer here.
