CLUB NOTES

ACE OF CLUBS
Mrs. William Craig was hostess when the Ace of Clubs met last week.

Only members were present and Mrs. Aubrey Mauney won high score prize.

A refreshing salad course was served after the games.

FORTNIGHTERS
The Fortnighters club met last Friday at the home of Mrs. Don Blanton.

Mrs. Ladd Hamrick held high score for the session and was presented a prize.

Mrs. Halbert Web was club guest for the afternoon.

At the conclusion of play, Mrs. Blanton served a tasty desert course.

ADELPHIAN
Mrs. E. W. Griffin was hostess to members and guests of the Adelphean club at her home last Thursday evening.

Colorful flowering plants and lovely arrangement of yellow bell and breath-of-spring were used in the playing room.

Before the rook games started, Mrs. Griffin served unusually pleasing refreshments in two courses.

Score prizes were won by Mrs. Lawrence Mauney and Mrs. Ted Weir.

Guest players for the evening were Mrs. Walter Dilling and Mrs. Mark Patterson.

After the game, a brief business session was held, during which plans were made for the purchase of new cards for the club.

COUPLES
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thomson were hosts last Thursday evening to members of the Couples club. Scores are kept for a six week period and this meeting being the one terminating a playing period, prizes were awarded to high scorers Mrs. Charles Thomason and Drace Peeler and low scorers Mrs. Bobby Suber and Dan Finger.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Finger were guests of the evening.

At the conclusion of play, a delicious dessert course was served.

TUESDAY CLUB

The Tuesday Bridge club was entertained this week at the home of Mrs. J. A. Neisler.

Lovely arrangement of gladioli, snapdragons, and carnations added charm and color to the playing rooms.

When scores were tallied, Mrs. J. A. Kiser was given a prize for high scoring guest and Mrs. Hunter Neisler was awarded the high score prize for members. Mrs. Booth Gillespie won the consolation trophy.

At the presentation of prizes, Mrs. Neisler served attractive and tasty refreshments in two courses.

Guests, other than regular members, included Mrs. J. A. Kiser, Mrs. Fred Plonk, Mrs. Booth Gillespie and Mrs. Jacob P. Mauney.

STUDY

The Study club will meet next Tuesday evening at 7:30 at the home of Mrs. Haywood E. Lynch. The program will be under the direction of Mrs. E. W. Griffin.
