Miss Moss Reveals Her Wedding Plans

Miss Faye Moss, whose engagement to Marvin Eugene Goforth, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Goforth, is being announced by her father, Ned W. Moss, revealed today plans for her wedding which will take place next Wednesday, Jan. 23, at 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

The ceremony will be held in Central Methodist church, with the pastor Rev. J. G. Winkler, hearing the exchange of vows.

Miss Moss will be given in marriage by her father, and will have for her maid-of-honor, Miss Mary Evelyn Goforth.

R. D. Goforth will serve his son as best man.

B. S. Peeler, jr., will be the vocal soloist, and will be accompanied by Mrs. Aubrey Mauney at the organ.

Ushers will be Charles A. and Garrison Goforth.

No formal invitations are being issued but intimate friends of the couple have been invited to attend.

Circles of ARP Held Meetings This Week

The missionary circles of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian church held their regular monthly meetings on Monday afternoon.

Mrs. C. W. Richardson was hostess to members of the Minnie Alexander circle of which Mrs. W. E. Blakeley is leader. The devotional service and Bible study for the afternoon was given by Mrs. Palmer Fulton. There were nine members present.

The Macie Stevenson circle met at the home of Mrs. W. G. Grantham.

The leader, Mrs. Minnie MacLaden, conducted the business session and Mrs. Bright Rattree presented the devotional service and Bible lesson.

On Monday evening, members of the Mary Kennedy circle gathered at the home of Mrs. W. G. Grantham. Mrs. Tolly Shuford, the leader, presided and Mrs. John Gamble gave the devotional services after which she introduced Mrs. Charles Murphy, who presented the Bible study.

After the program, Mrs. Grantham served dessert and coffee.

Mrs. Neisler Feted At Charlotte Luncheon

Mrs. Charles E. Neisler was delightfully honored on Saturday at a very lovely luncheon given by her niece, Mrs. George Davis, at her home on E. 7th street in Charlotte.

Vases of gladioli and greenery added charm to the attractive dining room. The table was overlaid with an exquisite cloth of cut work and filet lace. A tempting three-course luncheon was served.

Following the luncheon, rock was played and candies were served later in the afternoon. Mrs. Neisler was remembered with a beautiful box of candy.

The guests were Mesdames Charles E. Neisler, W. A. Eidenhour, H. T. Fulton, M. L. Plonk, Harry Page, of Kings Mountain, and Mrs. George V. Patterson of Gastonia.

Party At Dogwood Honors Mrs. Hamrick

A bridge party given by Mrs. Joe Neisler at her spacious home, Dogwood, last Friday afternoon paid lovely compliment to Mrs. Ladd Hamrick, who recently moved from here to Bowling Springs.

Chrysanthemums, gladioli and cut poinsettias in striking arrangement lent color and charm to the living room where six tables were in play.

After the games, score prizes were awarded to Mrs. Carl Mauney and Mrs. Hunter Neisler. Each tally bore a number and Mrs. W. L. Ramsey was given a prize for holding lucky "13". At the same time, gifts were presented to Mrs. Hamrick, Mrs. Carl Finger of Cherryville, and Mrs. Harry Warren of Chattanooga, Tenn.

Mrs. D. F. Moore of Shelby was another out-of-town guest.

Following the gift presentation, Mrs. Neisler, assisted by Mrs. Harry Page, served a delightful salad and sweet course.

Engagement Announced

MISS RUBY JEAN BROWNE

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne L. Browne of Waco, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Ruby Jean, to Hugh Davidson Randall, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Randall of this city. The marriage will take place sometime in the summer.

MARSHW

Miss Nancy Nickles was hostess last Thursday to members of the Marshaw club.

Score prizes were won by Misses Eloise Randall and Naomi Edens. Mrs. Joe Heddon won the floating prize.

After the game, the hostess served pleasing refreshment.

Friendship Class Met With Mrs. Ross

The Friendship class of the Grace Methodist church held its regular monthly meeting last Thursday night at the home of Mrs. Emmett Ross.

After devotional services were conducted, Mrs. Price gave a very interesting reading from the book "The Way" by E. S. Jones.

At the conclusion of the program, Mrs. Ross served openface sandwiches, pineapple cake, salted nuts and coca-cola to the following members: Mesdames Wesley Riddle, Geo. Kennedy, James Jonas, Andy Huffstetler, Jim Mauney, Leonard Huffstetler, J. E. Mauney, Tommy Ellison and Price.

Attie Bostick YWA Plans Focus Week

The Attie Bostick Y. W. A. of the First Baptist church held its regular meeting Monday evening at the home of Miss Beulah Rhea.

Miss Martha McClain presided and Jean McClain was in charge of the program on "Various Religions of the World."

Reports were heard from the chairmen of enlistment and stewardship committees and plans were made for Focus Week which will be February 9-15.

After the program, the hostess served tasty refreshments.

Baptists Will Have Training Course

Next week the First Baptist church will have a training course for all Sunday school workers.

Four books will be taught during the week. Mrs. J. K. Wilby will teach "The Book We Teach," E. N. Barnes will teach "Building a Standard Sunday School," A. W. Kincaid will teach "Improvement of Teaching in the Sunday School," and Mrs. J. C. Bridges will teach "What Baptists Believe." The group will meet each evening Monday through Friday at 7:30.

Radiant Class Met Last Friday Night

The Radiant class of the First Baptist church held its regular monthly meeting last Friday evening at the home of Evelyn Cline.

Several games and contests were enjoyed during the evening and plans were made for an attendance drive to be started in the near future.

At the conclusion of the meeting, the hostess, assisted by her mother served attractive refreshments.

Mrs. Fulton Honored At Birthday Party

Mrs. H. T. Fulton was honored last Wednesday on the occasion of her birthday anniversary when a few of her closest friends gathered at the home of her daughter, Mrs. N. F. McGill, to offer their best wishes and present surprise birthday gifts.

Several games of rock were played during the afternoon and Mrs. Walter Dilling was given a prize for holding high score.

After the games, Mrs. McGill served a delightful salad and sweet course.

UDC Members Will Meet Next Week

The United Daughters of the Confederacy will meet next Wednesday, January 23, at 3:30 at the home of Mrs. H. T. Fulton. Mrs. L. L. Benson will be guest speaker.

CORRECTION

Mrs. Haywood Lynch, president of the Central Parent and Teacher association, wishes to correct an error which was inadvertently made in the report submitted to the Herald of the January meeting of the PTA.

In the Herald issued last week, it was stated that Miss Willie McGill's third grade tied with Miss

Brown's first grade for the primary grade having the highest percentage of parents present. Miss McGill's grade was winner by a large number. Mrs. Lynch regrets that the error was made and is glad to make the correction.
