

HERALD PERSONALS

Call Society Editor, House 357-W.

Office 167

Miss Mildred Falls of Augusta, is visiting her sister, Mrs. M. L. Plonk.

Mrs. Charlie Harmon is spending several days with Miss Ella Harmon.

Mrs. S. A. Jewery left yesterday for Raleigh where she will visit relatives for several days.

Mrs. O. W. Myers spent last week in New York on a buying trip for Myers Dress Shop.

Mrs. E. B. Olive, who has been ill for several weeks, is now much improved and is able to receive friends.

The condition of Mrs. A. J. Goforth was described as satisfactory on Wednesday. Mrs. Goforth underwent a major operation last week at Shelby hospital.

Mrs. Eugene Smith and two sons have returned to their home in Bladenboro after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Elam.

Mrs. Hugh B. Hoke and son, Charles, of Lincolnton spent Wednesday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Goforth.

Miss Bessie Cansler of Charlotte spent Tuesday with her uncle, George Cansler.

Friends of J. C. Keller will be glad to know that he is improving after having been ill for several days.

Mrs. Lloyd Watson and children Bobbie and David, of Boone, are visiting this week with Mrs. Watson's mother, Mrs. W. R. Everhart.

Mrs. James Cole and J. B. Cole, Jr. are visiting J. B. Cole in Jacksonville, Fla., where he underwent an appendectomy last week.

Mrs. Stowe Miller of Waco and Mrs. Tom Roberts of Gastonia were guests on Tuesday of Mrs. D. F. Hord.

Mrs. George Cansler visited several days last week at the home of her son, Anthony, in Arlington, Va. From there she went to Penn-Laird, Va., where she is now visiting her sister, Lillian and her husband, Mr. Hawk, who is seriously ill.

Bride-Elect Feted At Party On Monday

Mrs. Charles Goforth and Miss Mary Evelyn Goforth paid charming compliment to Miss Faye Moss, bride-elect of yesterday at a party held on Monday night at the home of the former.

White gladioli and snapdragons arranged with fern served to accent the bridal color note of green and white which was observed throughout the party decoration.

A corsage of white gardenias marked the place of honor at the head table.

After several games of bridge and rook, score prizes for bridge were given to Mrs. James Mercer and Miss Nancy Suber. Mrs. R. D. Goforth was awarded high score prize for rook. At the same time the hostesses presented Miss Moss a gift of silver in her chosen pattern.

Nuts and coca-colas were served while the games were in progress and afterwards when the cards were removed, ice cream molded in the shape of wedding bells and lilies were served with cocoanut cake. The tables were centered for the

Miss Moss Honored At Prenuptial Card Party

Mrs. Lynwood Parton entertained at a pretty bridge party last Wednesday night honoring Miss Faye Moss who was married yesterday to Eugene Goforth.

Artistic arrangements of white carnations and fern were used to decorate the living room where four tables were arranged for play.

The honoree was presented an exquisite corsage at the beginning of the party.

Places were marked at the tables by dainty wedding bells tied with white satin ribbon.

After the scores were counted, score prizes were given to Mrs. Dan Finger and Mrs. Haywood Lynch. Miss Moss was presented a lovely set of breakfast dishes.

Mrs. Parton served a tasty salad course followed by ice cream and individual cakes which bore a herald motif.

Three Are Guests At WSCS Luncheon

Mrs. J. G. Winkler, Mrs. Charles Warlick and Mrs. W. M. Gantt attended a luncheon at the Hawthorne Lane Methodist church in Charlotte given in Tuesday by the Women's Society of Christian Service.

Open House Held At Lake Montonia

Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Mauney and Mr. and Mrs. Garland Still held an open house on Tuesday at the R. L. Mauney cottage at Lake Montonia.

Around a hundred guests called between five and nine p. m.

Mrs. Jacob Cooper, Mrs. Hugh Ormand and Mrs. George House assisted in serving palatable-pleasing pit barbecue.

Lovely Buffet Dinner Given At Gantt Home

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Gantt were hosts on Monday evening at a delightful dinner party honoring the teachers and religious leaders of their daughter, Nan Jean.

The lovely rooms of the Gantt home were attractively decorated with colorful cut flowers and plants.

A complete turkey dinner was served buffet style with Nan Jean and Ann and Muddy Mayes assisting in serving.

Guests for the festive affair included Rev. and Mrs. J. G. Winkler, Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. David Hamrick, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Mayes, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Warlick, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Page, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kiser, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Templeton, Miss Gussie Huffstetler, and W. H. Hopper, Jr.

this week from Memorial hospital where he has been a patient for several days.

Phillip Elam of Marshall spent Sunday night with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Elam.

Misses Emelyn Gillespie and Virginia Summers, students at Salem college, will arrive home today to spend the between-semester vacation with their parents. Miss Helen Brown, of Albemarle, will accompany them and will be Miss Gillespie's guest for the week end.

DAR Members to View Parade of Fashions

The Colonel Frederick Hambricht chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will hold its regular meeting next Wednesday afternoon in the lounge of the Woman's club house. Miss Edith Hambricht will be hostess to the group.

Mrs. J. S. Norman, chairman of the Homemakers committee, will present a program on Homemaking, after which there will be a fashion parade. The models will be girls from the Home Economics classes of Central and Bethware high schools. They will be modeling dresses which they made under the supervision of their teachers, Mrs. Dan Finger of Central and Mrs. John Cheshire of Bethware. The dresses will be judged and the winning garment will be sent to the State Cotton Review which will be a feature of the DAR convention to be held in New Bern in March. The girl who made the winning dress will be privileged to attend the convention and model her dress in the style show there. Honorable mention will be given to the second best dress.

The meeting promises to be an enjoyable one and all members are urged to attend.

TUESDAY

Mrs. Hugh Ormand was hostess this week when members of the Tuesday club met to play.

Mrs. Charles Dilling held high score for the afternoon and was presented a prize.

After several progressions, Mrs. Ormand served a savory salad course.

Announcement

We are proud to announce that this firm has been appointed Exclusive Kings Mountain dealer for the exclusive line of

Knox Hats

Saunders

Finest In Men's Wear

—The Store For Men Where Ladies Like To Buy—

ALL FALL AND WINTER

Sweaters

1/2 price

Lovely jacquards in pretty pastels—variety of colors. These are real bargains on a most usable accessory. Values to 8.95.

Myers' Dress Shop

—Second Floor—

GET THE BEST.....
SERVE YOURSELF.....
At BARKLEY'S

- Mothers Best FLOUR
- 25 lbs Plain or Self-rising $1.84
- Ware's Corn Meal—10 lbs 55c
- 4-lb. Pride SHORTENING $1.45
- Cigarettes, cart. $1.35 plus tax
- SANTO, fresh ground coffee lb 34c
- 2-lb Great Northern Beans 35c
- Kraft MAYONNAISE, pt 45c
- Apple Butter, 29 oz. jar 29c
- "Miss Wisconsin" English Peas 15c
- APPLE SAUCE No. 2 can 19c
- Cedar Rock SYRUP PEACHES No. 2.1-2 can 27c

- Clover Bloom CREAMERY BUTTER lb 69c
- Wilson 'Cavel' Bacon lb 59c
- EXtra Select OYSTERS, pt 75c
- Thick FAT MEAT, lb 28c
- NEICE SAUSAGE, lb 47c
- GREEN BEANS, lb 19c
- LETTUCE, 2 heads 25c
- ORANGES, 2 doz. 45c
- GRAPEFRUIT, 3 for 25c
- SWEET POTATOES 2 lbs 19c

Barkley Bros.

SELF-SERVICE