Sue Logan Entertains With Theatre Party

On Thursday, Feb. 13, Douglas Sue Logan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Logan, entertained a group of her friends at a theatre party in celebration of her eleventh birthday anniversary.

After seeing the movie, the young people were invited to a drug store where they were served ice cream, candy and gum.

Guests included Bud Falls, Judy Logan, Ranny Arnette, Donald McCarter, Jane Ormand, Shirley Greene, Jim Pursley, Lee Jackson, Joyce Elser, Patricia Henderson, Carletty McDaniel and Buddy Rhea.

Grace Class Members Met With Mrs. Price

The Friendship class of Grace Methodist church met on Thursday night, Feb. 13, at the home of Mrs. L. P. Price.

After the devotional service, Mrs. J. E. Mauney gave an interesting discourse on Stewardship.

During the business session, the class voted to have a byster supper on Saturday night, Feb. 22, at the parsonage. The proceeds from the supper will be used to furnish the Sunday school room of the Friendship class when the new church is built.

After the meeting, the hostess served a beautiful supper to the following members: Messames James Jones, J. E. Mauney, T. J. Elliott, L. P. Price, George Kennedy, Boyd Pittman, Emmett Ross, Wesley Riddle, Leonard Hultsveter, Jasper Roper, Otis Gayton, Frank Ballard, David Fink, Deaver Tigner, Wiley Shuman, James Mauney, Arvil Stroupe, Matt Weaver, and one visitor, Mrs. Chas. Lambert.

Regular Meeting Of Woodmen Circle Held

The Woodmen Circle held its regular meeting on Friday evening, February 14, at which time three new members were obligated. Several members reported having prospective new members for the next meeting.

A delegate and an alternate were chosen to attend the state convention which is to be held in Asheville the 2-3-4 of May. The delegate was Miss Beatrice Spratt and the alternate was Mrs. Sudie Peele. The delegates will attend as representatives of Kings Mountain Grove number 146.

Mrs. C. T. Goforth was presented a lovely white Bible for securing the most new members in the past year. Kings Mountain Grove competes each year for this prize with Ellenboro, Shelby, and Grover. It is a coveted prize and should be an incentive for all members to double their efforts during the coming year to increase the membership.

Club members expressed sincere approval for their officers being 100 percent for Golden Welfare again this year.

A Bingo party was planned for March 7. The Woodmen of the World are invited to this party and are reminded to keep the date in mind.

It was announced that there will be an officers club meeting at the Woman's club in Shelby on Friday night, Feb. 28, it will be semi-formal and all members from Kings Mountain and Grover are urged to be present.

The members received their new rituals for the year. There were 20 members present and a special guest, the field worker, Mrs. Lou Moorhead, from Shelby. Hopes are held for doubling the number in attendance next month.

Weaver-Patterson Announcement

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Blanton have announced the engagement of their foster daughter, Miss Dorothy Patterson, to Frederick Weaver, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. O. Weaver.

The wedding will take place in the Baptist parsonage here on Friday, February 21.

U. D. C. Will Meet Next Wednesday

The local chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy will hold its regular meeting next Wednesday Feb. 26, at the home of Mrs. M. A. Ware. The meeting will be at 8:30 p. m. and all members are urged to be present.

Miss Evelyn Jackson Weds Robert Fulton

Miss Frances Evelyn Jackson became the bride of Robert DeKalb Fulton on Saturday, Feb. 15, at 5 o'clock in the afternoon, at the Presbyterian Manse of York, S. C. Rev. M. P. Calhoun, pastor of the bride, officiated, using the double ring ceremony. The vows were spoken before a few intimate friends and a brother of the bridegroom.

The bride wore a becoming suit of grey gabardine with black accessories. Her corsage was a lavender orchid.

Mrs. Fulton is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy W. Jackson of York. Since graduating from York high school, she has held a position with the Bank of York for the past three and one half years.

Mr. Fulton is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Palmer Fulton. He is a veteran of six years service in the Navy. After a wedding trip to Florida the young couple will make their home in York.
