

EC. Bumgardner
Final Rites Held

John Cleveland Bumgardner died suddenly last Thursday morning at 11 o'clock at his home on the York road.

He is survived by three sons, Jack Bumgardner of Lowell, John and Gene Bumgardner of Kings Mountain; one brother, Ed Bumgardner of Kings Mountain; and one sister, Mrs. Nettie Rector of Gastonia.

Funeral services were held Friday at 4 o'clock at the Oak View Baptist church on the York road. The pastor, Rev. Ed Gore, was in charge of the service. Interment was in the church cemetery.

Mrs. Sellars' Father's Rites Are Conducted

Greenland F. Sides, Sr., 52, of Shelby, father of Mrs. Roy Sellars of Kings Mountain, died at 10:30 o'clock Tuesday in the Shelby hospital after a short illness. Funeral services were held Wednesday at four o'clock from the Eastside Baptist church with Rev. W. P. Biggerstaff, assisted by Rev. J. D. Sheppard, officiating.

Born in Concord, Mr. Sides moved with his family to Shelby while a young man and immediately became active in religious work of his community. For the past several years he had been one of the strong supporters of the Highland Baptist Mission at Shelby. A painter by trade, he had worked until recently with the Ohio Construction company and was a member of the First Baptist church.

Also surviving are his wife, Mrs. Lillie L. Sides and 10 children, Mrs. Sara Lee Jester of Charlottesville, Va.; Mrs. William H. Bridges of Shelby; G. Ford Sides, Jr., Mrs. Hazel L. Davis, Meggy Sides, Nettie Lou and Evelyn Sides and Buddy and Jimmy Sides, all of Shelby.

Former Citizen Is Claimed By Death

L. Frank B. Rudisill, 51, of Charleston, S. C., formerly of Kings Mountain, died Feb. 26, at the home of his brother, W. B. Rudisill of Charleston. Funeral services were held Friday afternoon at the graveside at River-view cemetery in Charleston.

Mr. Rudisill was born at Kings Mountain, the son of the late Robertus Rudisill and Sue Elizabeth Long Rudisill. Mr. Rudisill was a member of the Lutheran church and served in the Merchant Marines during World War I. Mr. Rudisill are a son, James P. Rudisill, of Norfolk, Va., three daughters, Mrs. J. V. Howell of Charlotte, Mrs. William Reedy of San Francisco, Calif., and Mrs. Josephine E. Cox of Raeford; two brothers, Rudy Rudisill and W. B. Rudisill of Charleston; and four sisters, Mrs. James A. Page of Moncks Corner, S. C., Mrs. Horace J. McGee of Greenville, S. C., Mrs. R. L. Rudisill of Dunn, and Mrs. E. E. Hanks of Greensboro.

Shelby Cage Teams Are Entertained

The Hospitality Committee of the Student Council of the Kings Mountain high school entertained Shelby's basketball teams, the Kings Mountain teams, the coaches, and the Kings Mountain cheer leaders after the double victory by the Kings Mountain teams Friday night, February 28. They were served with sandwiches and milk. After being served, the four teams had the pleasure of listening to popular recordings.

The chairman of the Hospitality Committee of the council, Shirley Arthur, was assisted by Iris Patterson, Fatty Ann Neisler, Jo Ann Cole, Billie Falls, Bill Gault and W. P. Fulton.

Apropos of the weather: In the U. S. Weather Bureau at Washington, D. C., the daily average number of phone calls for weather information is 40,000. In Chicago, 25 calls were received in a single day. Millions of people throughout the country read the newspaper weather bulletins, and 700 radio stations give 1,000,000 weather broadcasts annually.
