

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL HAPPENINGS

of INTEREST to WOMEN

MRS. C. C. OATES, Editor

PHONES: House 357-W; Office 167

Progress Reported By Country Club Group

The group of local ladies who are working with Mrs. Charles Norman interior decorator of Chaflotte, on the renovation of the country club house report that very satisfactory progress has been made thus far.

With the remodeling and new color scheme, the house has assumed an entirely different and improved appearance.

Since such splendid progress has been made, the committee hopes that the club house will soon be ready for occupancy.

Mrs. Ware Hostess At Lovely Party

Paying charming compliment to Mrs. Eugene Goforth and Mrs. Marriott Phifer, Mrs. M. A. Ware was hostess at a very lovely bridge party given Friday evening at her home on Gaston street.

Prizes, japonica and other spring blossoms were used with effect throughout the rooms. Thirty six tables, which were arranged when guests arrived, were especially attractive with shades and each centered with a silver compote filled with jonquils.

After a number of progressions, score prizes were awarded to Mrs. Frank Hoyle and Mrs. Haywood E. Lynch. At the same time, Mrs. Ware presented to Mrs. Goforth a gift of silver in her chosen pattern and to Mrs. Phifer a matched ensemble for the shower room. Mrs. Harry Warren, who is here for an extended visit, was also remembered with a handsome gift.

Following the presentation of gifts, the hostess served a Baked Alaska rose with coffee and nuts.

Birth Announcements

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Conner, announce the birth of a daughter on March 1 at Shelby hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Lail announce the birth of a son on March 4 at Shelby hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. McCarter, route 1, announce the birth of a daughter on February 26 at Gaston Memorial hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wilson, route 1, announce the birth of a daughter on February 28 at Garrison Memorial hospital in Gastonia.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wilson, of Crowder's Mountain, announce the birth of a daughter, Vivien, on February 28 at Garrison hospital, Gastonia.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED — Miss Dorothy Louise Costner, whose engagement to James S. Champion, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Champion, is announced by her mother, Mrs. M. A. Costner. The date of the wedding will be announced later.

Mauney Home Scene Of Bridge Party

The home of Mrs. Paul Mauney was the scene of an enjoyable party when Mrs. Mauney entertained at two tables of bridge Tuesday evening of last week.

Beautiful flowering plants were used to enhance the living room.

Score prizes were awarded to Mrs. Charles Thomason, Sr., and Mrs. N. F. McGill, after which the hostess served lemon chiffon pie, coffee, and nuts.

WOW Circle Members Attend Shelby Meeting

Fourteen members of the Kings Mountain Woodman circle attended an officers club meeting which was held in the Woman's club house at Shelby last Friday evening.

Mrs. Lou Moorhead, the outgoing president and who has just been appointed district manager, presided.

Kings Mountain Grove 146 was presented a United States flag and stand for having secured the most new members during the past year.

Miss Wilma Hope was awarded the coveted Woodmen circle plate for having recommended next the most new members since the last meeting. First prize in this competition went to Mrs. Betty Ford of Lawndale.

New officers elected were Mrs. Suddie Peelle, president; Mrs. Mary Robbins of Shelby, vice president; and Mrs. Mildred Hicks of Shelby, secretary and treasurer.

A program of entertainment followed during which time Mrs. Nellie Saunders, accompanied at the piano by Miss Jean Green sang "The Old Lamp Lighter." Miss Green then gave a reading and Miss Blanche Eakin, state manager, who was honor guest of the evening made an inspiring talk.

The hostess served delicious refreshments prepared in an attractive manner.

UDC Members Study Sidney Lanier's Life

Mrs. M. A. Ware was hostess last Wednesday to members of the local chapter of United Daughters of the Confederacy.

The Ware home was made unusually pretty for the meeting with a profusion of spring flowers in artistic arrangements.

After Mrs. P. D. Herndon, president gave several communications pertaining to UDC matters, the members heard a most interesting program based on the life of Sidney Lanier.

At the conclusion of the program the hostess served an appetizing salad course and coffee.

Woodman Circle Will Have Bingo Party

The Woodman Circle will sponsor a Bingo party Friday night, March 7, 7:30. The party will be held at the W. O. W. hall.

All circle and W. O. W. members are urged to attend and bring a prospective member.

Gleaners Class To Meet Next Week

The Gleaners class of the First Baptist church will hold its regular monthly meeting on Monday evening, March 10, at the home of Miss Mary McGill.

Meeting time is 7:30 and a large attendance is expected.

Miss Warlick Honored At Southern College

Miss Avis Warlick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Warlick, has been accorded a signal honor in being chosen as one of the attendants in the court of the May Queen of Southern College at Lakeland, Fla., where she is a first year student.

Girl Scout Organizer Will Address PTA

The Parents-Teachers association of Central school will meet in the high school study hall next Wednesday, March 12, at 4 o'clock.

Mrs. R. E. Laidlaw, of Shelby, District Troop Organizer of Girl Scouts, will be guest speaker.

The Girl Scouts of local Troop 12, who are under the leadership of Mrs. David Hamrick, are expected to attend the meeting in uniform.

Methodist Circle Met Monday Night

Circle number two of Central Methodist church met Monday at the home of Mrs. Yates Throneburg.

Mrs. Ben Beam was in the presiding chair.

A devotional service was given by Mrs. C. W. Butterworth and the Bible study on Stewardship was given by Mrs. W. R. Craig.

The hostess served tasty refreshment to the 8 members and 1 visitor present.

FOR RENT: large room equipped for light housekeeping. Close in on bus route. For couple. Phone 219-LR. m-6-pd.

Mrs. Throneburg Honors Husband

Mrs. Yates F. Throneburg was hostess on Sunday at a family dinner honoring her husband, who is a Pullman conductor on the Southern Railway, and her father, W. B. Murray, of Maiden, on their birthday anniversaries.

The dining table was prettily appointed for the occasion with a pink begonia used as a centerpiece and individual salads made in traditional birthday colors. A recording of "Happy Birthday" was played during the dinner.

Guests other than those being honored were Mrs. W. B. Murray and Mr. and Mrs. Lamar Murray of Maiden, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Murray of Stanfield and Mr. and Mrs. Boyer Murray and children of Kings Mountain.

Coltrane Warns Feed Manufacturer

Raleigh, D. S. C. — State Commissioner of Agriculture, has warned feed dealers and farmers against the purchase of any feeds manufactured by Gwinn Bros. Milling Company of Huntington W. Va.

"This firm has not registered any of its products with the State Agriculture Department for 1947. And if application for registration were made, it would be promptly declined, because of the company's failure to pay 1946 penalties totaling $362.11."

He reported that this firm's feeds have been found on sale in the State, and "stop sale" orders have been placed on 38 bags of starter and grower feed for poultry, 47 bags of poultry starting mash, 17 bags of scratch feeds, and 51 bags of hog feed.

Advertisement for Wedding Silver by Dellinger's Jewel Shop. The charming loveliness of our Sterling and Plated Ware is indicative of its superb quality and handsome designs. Inspection invited.

DIXIE THURSDAY LAST SHOWING "The Secret Heart" Claudette Colbert Walter Pidgeon June Allison Latest News FRIDAY Double Feature Program "San Antonio" in technicolor Errol Flynn-Alexis Smith also "Stanley and Livingston" Spencer Tracy-Nancy Kelly Cartoon Late Show 10:30 SATURDAY Double Feature Program "Cowboy and the Senorita" Roy Rogers - Dale Evans also "The White Gorilla" Ray Corigan Loraine Miller Cartoon MONDAY and TUESDAY "Mighty McGuirk" Wallace Beery-Edward Arnold Three Stooge Comedy Extra Special Short—"Open The Door Richard" 10-minute short featuring—"Dusty" Fletcher Late Show Monday 10:30 WED. and THURSDAY "Cross My Heart" Betty Hutton Sunny Tuffs Special Comedy "Minstrel Days" with Al Jolson and Eddie Cantor Special Short added showing of "Open The Door Richard" with "Dusty" Fletcher. Latest News Late Show Wednesday 10:30

IMPERIAL THEATRE IT PLEASURES US TO PLEASURE YOU TODAY LAST SHOWING "Cuban Pete" Ethel Smith—also "She Wouldn't Say Yes" Rosalind Russell Serial—News FRIDAY ONLY "Sunset In El Dorado" Roy Rogers—also "And Then There Were None" Barry Fitzgerald Serial SATURDAY ONLY "Enemy of the Law" Tex Ritter—also "Maizie Goes To Reno" Ann Southern Cartoon—Serial MONDAY and TUESDAY Alfred Hitchcock's "Notorious" Gary Grant Ingrid Bergman News—Short WED. and THURSDAY "Along Came Jones" Gary Cooper—also "Step By Step" Lawrence Tierney

Up to Minute Suits and Coats for '47

Pick Yourself A Star ... a suit or coat that's definitely 1947! Features: perky peplums, dashing cutaways, flared-back jackets and wonderful, comfortable sleeves. Every one is a star... at price to please. So hurry now to reach for your choice. Easter is April 6th!

Betty Rose Junior Deb Donnybrook

You will see these lines Nationally Advertised in Vogue, Mademoiselle, Charm and other leading fashion publications.

MYERS' Dress Shop —Second Floor—