AIRFOIL LOG

BY ARCHIE COSTNER

The weather has been rather bad for flying lately but a few of the local birdmen take to the air just the same.

L. P. Stowe flew in from Greenville and spent Friday night at home.

G. L. Bauer stopped at the airport to refuel on Sunday afternoon. He was flying a Stinson 150 from Newport News, Va., to Atlanta, Ga.

Harold Crawford took his first airplane ride Sunday, and liked it very much. One of his sons remarked as he got in the plane, "If daddy falls out it isn't my fault." Later I asked him if he thought his dad was enjoying his ride. The youngster said, "He was laughing when he got in the plane but I'll bet he isn't laughing now."

The Cleveland Aviation Club met at the Charles Hotel in Shelby on Tuesday night. After a fine meal the group heard Stanley Greene of Bolling Springs present an interesting talk about the area around Cape

Charlie Dover soloed Tuesday afternoon. Charlie's training was extended over a period of months due to bad weather. Congratulations, Charlie!

America's youth are taking to the air as pilots or passengers. Fifty percent of these 29 years old and under have been up in a plane. Forty nine percent of those 30-49 and thirty one percent of the fifty and over have been up in a plane.
