

VETERANS! Here's Sound GI Insurance Advice . . . . .

If you still have your GI Insurance HANG ON TO IT!

Pay your monthly premiums regularly and promptly. Identify each payment by including your NSLI certificate number and service serial number.

If you have dropped GI Insurance REINSTATE IT!

Pay two monthly premiums—one to cover the "grace period" when you lapsed, the other for the current month. Include a statement that your health is as good as when you lapsed.

If you never had GI Insurance APPLY FOR IT!

If you served at any time between October 8, 1940 and September 2, 1945, you may apply for GI Insurance now, whether or not you had any while in service.

CLUB NOTES

STUDY
Mrs. J. R. Davis was hostess on Tuesday evening to members of the Study club.

Lovely jonquils and hyacinths were used in the living room where the meeting was held.

At the beginning of the meeting, Mrs. Davis, assisted by Misses Alice Ridenhour, Mabel Goodman, Jean Davis and Mesdames J. G. Winkler and J. S. Norman, served attractive and delectable refreshments in two courses.

Mrs. Dick LeGrand of Shelby presented in a most entertaining manner a description and the origin of the fabulous Hope and Star of the East diamonds, now in the possession of Mrs. Evelyn Walsh McLean and a history of the McLean family. Afterwards Mrs. W. L. Pressly, accompanied by Mrs. N. F. McGill at the piano, sang "Winter Lullaby."

ACE OF CLUBS

Mrs. W. R. Craig was hostess last Thursday to members and guests of the Ace of Clubs.

Pretty arrangements of buttercups enhanced the livingroom where the play was given.

When scores were tallied, Mrs. Jacob Cooper was presented the members prize for holding high and Mrs.

C. F. Thomason, Jr. was presented a prize for being high scoring guest. After the games, the hostess served a savory salad course followed by cherry tarts topped with whipped cream. Guests other than members were Mesdames Bill Davis, C. F. Thomason, Jr., Hal Plonk, and George H. Mauney.

FORTNIGHTERS

Members and guests of the Fortnighters club met last Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Philip Padgett with Mrs. George Houser acting as hostess.

The living room and dining room, thrown ensuite for the meeting, had been decorated with charming bowls of gay spring flowers.

Mrs. Charles Williams held high score for the afternoon and after the prize presentation, the hostess served a refreshing ice course and coca colas.

MARSHAW

Members of the Marshaw club met last Thursday evening at the home of Miss Nancy Nickels.

Lovely arrangements of daffodils were used to decorate the livingroom where two tables of bridge were played.

At the conclusion of play, score prizes were presented to Misses Naomi Edens and Eloise Randall, af-

Thomason Rites Held Yesterday

Funeral services for Mrs. Winnie Harmon Thomason, who died Tuesday at a Charlotte hospital after a prolonged illness, were held yesterday afternoon at 3 p. m. in Hovis Chapel with Dr. Clovis Chappell, officiating, assisted by Dr. Howard Powell, pastor of Dilworth Methodist church. Burial was in Forest Lawn cemetery.

She was the daughter of Mrs. Mary W. Harmon, of Kings Mountain, and the late Lee Harmon, and was a native of this city.

Survivors include her husband, W. A. Thomason; three sons, W. A. Jr., and Edgar Lee, of Raleigh, and Wil-

TUESDAY CLUB
Mrs. Charles Dilling was hostess this week to members of the Tuesday afternoon bridge club. The living room was decorated with quills and japonica.

Mrs. Hayne Blackmer held high score for the afternoon.

Ham H. of Charlotte; two sisters, Miss Virgie Harmon of Kings Mountain; and Mrs. John Marcus, of Morganton; and a half-brother, Elbert Houser, of Charlotte.

Three reasons for the current shortage of fats and oils, as given by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, are the sharp decrease in this country's 1946 cotton seed production, the smaller hog crop, and decreased imports.

Thank You, For A Pleasant Year . . .

It hardly seems possible that Woodward & Son, Kings Mountain's first retail firm for men opened for business a year ago. Yet that's how long it's been, a year ago this week.

It has been a pleasant year, in spite of the usual opening first-year hardships, and with the added troubles of scarcities of goods in many important items.

In serving the patrons who have made our success possible, we wish to renew at this, our first anniversary, a pledge of providing quality merchandise at fair prices—with the feeling and hope that quality goods can be offered during our second year and in other future years, in ever-increasing abundance. In other words, we'll be mighty glad when the flow of goods completely returns to normal, so that when you enter our store and ask for a pair of overalls, or a white shirt, or a pair of shoes, we'll be able to say, "Yes, sir, what size and style?"

Thank you again—one and all—for your kindness and consideration.
