Girl Scout Troop 12 Entertains Parents

A large number of parents and special guests attended the Parent-Daughter banquet held at the Woman's club house on Friday evening of last week.

Chicken dinners with all the accessories were served by members of Girl Scout Troop 12, after which the honor guests of the evening were introduced by Mrs. David Hamrick, leader of the troop. Nan Jean Gantt served as mistress of ceremony.

A program was presented by members of the troop on their accomplishments in Girl Scout work during the Girl Scout emblem, the laws and the promise were explained by Barbara Jean Gault. Evelyn Cline discussed Second Class activities, which is an introduction to the many things offered in the Girl Scout program. The skills learned in the field of homemaking were explained by Charlesanna Logan and the many useful things learned in First Aid were demonstrated by Jean McRae and Dorothy McCarter.

After the program, a motion picture in technicolor, showing scenes at Camp Cherokee last summer when the Girl Scouts attended camp as guests of the Cubs, was shown by Harold Hunnicutt.

Membership pins were presented to each of the girls by their leader after which Buck Early presented to the girls the certificates given by the American Red Cross on the completion of the prescribed First Aid Course. Mr. Early, a qualified First Aid Instructor, taught the girls the course and when he presented the certificates, he gave special recognition to Dorothy McCarter for making the highest grade on the course. According to Mr. Early, Dorothy's grade of 97 was one of the highest on record for this particular course.

To conclude the program, the Girl Scouts and their leaders joined in singing the Girl Scout Hymn.

DAR Will Meet Next Wednesday Afternoon

The Colonel Frederick Hambright chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution will meet next Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 at the home of Mrs. Arthur Hay.

Miss Hambright Tells Her Wedding Plans

Miss Aleene Hambright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert DeWitt Hambright, has announced the plans of her wedding to Ralph J. Cline, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cline of Charlotte, which will take place at 5 o'clock on April 6 at the Homestead Methodist church in Charlotte.

The pastor, Rev. J. L. Rayle, will officiate and Miss Doris Edwards, pianist, and R. E. Wilson, Jr., vocal soloist, will provide the wedding music.

The bride-elect will be given in marriage by her father, and the prospective bridegroom will have his brother, Houston Cline, as his best man. The ushers will be Dwight L. of Charlotte.

Miss Mae Royster will be her nieces' maid of honor. Nancy Julia Abernethy, cousin of the bride-elect will be junior bridesmaid.

After the rehearsal Saturday night April 5, Mr. and Mrs. Jessie E. Royster will entertain the families and wedding party at their home at 1224 Enderly road.

Gen. Lee, Educator Topic of UDC Program

In spite of the unseasonable snowstorm of last Wednesday, there was a good attendance at the meeting of the Kings Mountain chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy which was held at the home of Mrs. J. R. Davis, at which time Mrs. Davis and Mrs. J. E. Aderholdt were joint hostesses.

The lovely Davis home looked especially attractive for the meeting with sprightly jonquils and sweet-scented hyacinths adding a Spring-like atmosphere to the wintry day.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. Leo Benson, presided. Mrs. E. L. Campbell gave the devotional service, after which Mrs. Benson conducted a brief business session before giving the meeting into the hands of Mrs. Bill Howard, who presented a thought-provoking program on Robert E. Lee as an educator. Mrs. John Plonk then read several poems pertaining to Friends.

After the program, the hostesses served a tempting salad and sweet course.

Kaufman-Grantham Wedding Today

Miss Betty Carolyn Grantham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Gurney Grantham, and Howard Herman Kaufman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Kaufman, of Forest Hills, L. I., will be united in marriage at 4 o'clock this afternoon at the home of the bride-elect.

Rev. J. G. Winkler, pastor of Central Methodist Church will perform the ceremony, using the double ring ritual. Only members of the two immediate families will be present. Miss Gay Dickerson, of Guilford College, student at WCUNC, will be maid of honor and Albert Poggioli, of Forest Hills, L. I., student at Guilford College, will serve the bridegroom as best man.

Music for the wedding will be presented by Miss Barbara Ann Grantham, clarinetist, sister of the bride-elect. Immediately after the ceremony, a cakecutting will be held, after which the young couple will leave for a trip to New York.

Mrs. Hord, Mrs. Moss Hostesses At Dinner

Mrs. D. F. Hord and Mrs. George Moss were hostesses at a dinner given on Sunday for a number of their relatives.

Guests at the dinner included Mr. and Mrs. Flay Ledford of Shelby, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Grubb and children, Jane and John, of Erwin, Tenn., Mrs. Frank Hemby and daughter, Linda, of Dallas, Texas, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ledford, also of Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ormand of Leaksville, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Wyatt of West Orange, N. J., and A. B. Ledford of Asheville.

Bridge Party Given By Mrs. Thomasson

Mrs. Charles F. Thomasson, sr., was hostess on Tuesday evening at an informal bridge party. Her home was attractively arranged with bright spring flowers.

At the conclusion of play, score prizes were awarded to Mrs. E. W. Griffin and Mrs. Claude Hambright and the floating prize was won by Mrs. Paul Mauney.

Following the games, the hostesses served a tasty dessert course.

Guests were Mesdames Paul Mauney, I. B. Goforth, E. W. Griffin, O. W. Myers, L. P. Stowe, Claude Hambright, M. A. Ware and P. D. Hernandez.

WOW And Circle To Have Box Supper

The Woodmen of the World will have a box supper on Friday night, March 28, at eight o'clock. The supper will be held at the Woman's clubhouse and the public is issued a cordial invitation to attend. There will be no admission fee—just a wellfilled box to be sold at auction.

Other features of the evening will be a cake walk and a drawing for prizes.

For an evening filled with fun and enjoyment, bring your box and your cake and come to the clubhouse Friday night at 8 sharp!

MISS PAULINE WARE, above, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cornelius Ware, who have announced her engagement to Merrill Nevarre Phifer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Campbell Phifer. The wedding will take place Wednesday, June 25, at Oak Grove Baptist church.

Class Putting On Chicken Supper

Mrs. Carrie Gantt's class of Grace Methodist church is going to put on a chicken supper at the Parsonage Saturday evening, March 29th, from 5 to 8 o'clock. The proceeds will go to help pay for the 10,000 bricks they have decided to buy for the new church. Price $1.00.

Gleaners Class To Meet Monday Night

The Gleaners class of the First Baptist church will hold a routine meeting on Monday night, March 31, in the lounge of the Woman's clubhouse at 8:00.

Mrs. R. S. Oates and Mrs. "Bus" Oates will be hostesses to the class and all members, both active and honorary are urged to be present.

Everyone attending is reminded to bring some article to be sold at auction.

Mr. and Mrs. Neill Hosts To Club

Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Neill were hosts last Friday evening to members and guests of their bridge club.

The living room, where three tables were in play was beautifully decorated with flowering plants and pretty arrangements of jonquils.

When scores were tallied, prizes for holding high scores were presented to Mrs. L. A. Hoke and Paul Mauney.

After the presentation of prizes, the hostess served a pleasing dessert course.

Those playing were Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Hoke, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mauney, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Ware, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Crook, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Patterson and the hosts.

Over 3,500 veterans from World War I are carried on Veterans Administration rolls as amputees (loss of hands or feet or both).

PARENTS ... of adolescent BOYS and GIRLS!

Can you truthfully answer ALL these questions?

- Do you know how many juveniles were arrested for delinquency last year?
- Do you always know where your children are?
- Do you permit your minor sons to drive after dark?
- Are you sure your daughter never accepts a lift from strangers?
- Do you know you are responsible for any damage your minor son's car may cause?
- Do you know what "hop-up" cars are?
- Do you permit your children to ride in them?
- Do you permit a dark "Lover's Lane" to exist in your community?
- Are you doing everything in your power to co-operate with the highway police to make the roads safe—physically and morally?

If you are not certain on all these points, you must see
