Kings Mountain Vets of the Western Carolina semi-pro league open their home season at City Stadium Saturday night at 8 o'clock against arch-rival Shelby, in a baseball game which is expected to draw a capacity crowd.

Both teams have shaped up to be among the stronger entries in the league, and a hot contest is anticipated.

As a special opening game feature a prize drawing will be conducted in the seventh inning for 10 gifts awarded by several Kings Mountain merchants, with Joe Lee Woodward

Some 25 special guests, including city officials and civic club heads have been invited to attend.

Manager Aaron Hartsoe of the Vets yesterday indicated that Charlie Paterson or Don Parker would get the hurling call for the home opener, while Manager Forrest Hunt of the Shelby Comets was expected to send either Kansas Goforth or ex-Legion Star Harry McKee to the hill.

As another special opening game attraction, the Kings Mountain High school band will be on hand to render music prior to the game.

The league schedule calls for four games per week, two at home and two away.

Prizes being offered in the lucky number drawing include: airplane luggage, from Myers' Department Store, four steak dinners, from the Waffle Shoppe, a bridge lamp, from Kings Mountain Furniture company, a hot plate cooker, from Kings Mountain Drug company, an Emerson radio, from Woodward's Men's Shop, a thermos jug, from Center Service, an electric iron, from Tire Sales and Rebuilders, a gallon of paint from Phifer Hardware, and auto bumper grill from Bridges Auto Parts, two theater tickets, Imperial Theatre.

The Vets starting line-up will include three high school coaches, in the event Parker goes to the mound. The others will be Hines Quinn, the classy Cherryville athlete, at third, and Bill Halliburton, Gaffney, at second.

Admission to all league games will be 60 cents and 30 cents, tax included.

Probable starting line-ups are:
 Vets Comets
 1b—Lohr S. Runyans
 2b—Halliburton McCrary
 3b—Quinn D. Gold
 ss—A. Hartsoe Hastings
 lf—Wells Newton
 cf—Guyton Carpenter
 rf—Gaffney or Gold Dedmon
 c—West M. Runyans
 p—Paterson or Goforth or McKee Parker McKee

Highs Play Arc Game Thursday

The high school Mountaineers will wind up their 1947 baseball activities during the next week with the two final games of the season, journeying to Cliffside this afternoon for a return engagement with the Cliffside lads, and completing the schedule with a night game here on Thursday night, May 15, against Lincolnton.

The home game gets underway at 8 p. m. Previously scheduled for Friday night, the change was arranged to accommodate the Lincolnton club, and a large crowd is expected to witness the contest.

The Mountaineers have been drilling hard the past week in an effort to correct their fielding miscues which have embarrassed them all season, and both Coaches Clyde Canipe and Don Parker are gunning for season-ending victories.

Both Cliffside and Lincolnton have walloped the Mountaineers this year, and the locals express willingness to even the score.

Vets Vs. Newton Here Wednesday

Kings Mountain Vets will be at home to Newton next Wednesday night, on the Catawba club's first visit to Kings Mountain in the current Western Carolina league season.

It is reported that baseball interest in the semi-pro aggregation is high, and that Newton is fielding an interesting team.

The Vets play Newton at Newton on Wednesday night.

Mountaineers Lose Two, 23-9 and 19-7

Kings Mountain high school Mountaineers succumbed to too many errors afield and a barrage of enemy hits in dropping two encounters in the past week.

Last Friday Tri-High took the measure of the Mountaineers by 23-9 on the City Stadium diamond, with Medlin, Humphries and Caldwell working on the mound.

They journeyed to Cherryville and were trounced 19-7 by Hines Quinn's organization. Medlin, Humphries, Harry and Caldwell were the Mountaineer hurlers. Dan Britt was behind the plate in both games.
