

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL HAPPENINGS of INTEREST to WOMEN

MRS. C. C. OATES, Editor

PHONES: House 357-W; Office 167

TO WED IN AUGUST—Cordial interest is centered in the announcement made by Rev. and Mrs. Paul Dickson Patrick of the engagement of their daughter, Miss Betty Patrick, above, to William Russell Merritt of Mullins, South Carolina. The marriage will be solemnized in August. Miss Patrick, the only daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Patrick, was graduated from Peace Junior College in Raleigh. While a student there, she was a member of the Phi Theta Kappa society, Pi Theta Mu society, of which she served as president, Christian Association, Privileged Honor Roll, President of the Student Government and was elected "Miss Peace." She is a graduate from Agnes Scott College where she served on the Christian Association, in Bible Club as an officer and was a member of the Glee club. Since graduation, Miss Patrick has been the Director of Religious Education at the Oakhurst Presbyterian church in Decatur, Ga. The bridegroom-elect is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Merritt of Mullins, S. C. He attended Davidson College before entering the service and while there was a member of the College band and a member of the Phi Mu Alpha musical fraternity. He received his commission at the Midshipman's School in Chicago and served overseas for several months. After his discharge with the rank of Lieutenant (j. g.) he returned to Davidson where he will be graduated this summer.

DAR Meets Next Week In Bessemer City

The Colonel Frederick Hambricht Chapter, Daughters of The American Revolution, will meet next Wednesday, June 4, at 3:30 at the home of Mrs. Carl Howard in Bessemer City. A Flag Day program, under the direction of Mrs. Arthur Hay, will be presented at this meeting which will be the last of the summer.

Mrs. Norman Delegate To DAR Congress

Mrs. J. S. Norman, vice director of the Third District, Daughters of The American Revolution, attended the Continental Congress of the DAR held in Washington last week, as regent's delegate, having been elected as a delegate by the Colonel Frederick Hambricht Chapter, of which Mrs. Frank Summers is regent.

Beginning with the address at the formal opening on Monday, May 19, by General of the Army Dwight Eisenhower, and carried throughout the entire meeting, the keynote of this 56th Congress was the evergrowing need to fight Communism in America.

This being the first time since 1941 that the Congress had been held in Washington, it was called the Homecoming Congress and was, with its many activities and well-planned programs, one of the best

Many social courtesies were extended to the delegates while they were in the Capitol City and among those affairs attended by Mrs. Norman were a luncheon for North Carolina delegates in the Chinese Room at the Mayflower Hotel, the President-generals reception at Continental Hall and a tea for the North Carolina delegation given by Mrs. Nat A. Townsend and Mrs. Braxton Jones at the Dresden Apartments on Connecticut Avenue. On Monday, Mrs. Norman was among those from North Carolina receiving at the Manlove reception given at historical Anderson Mansion on Massachusetts Avenue and on Wednesday evening she was guest at a dinner in her honor at the Shoreham Hotel by Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Call.

During the Congress, Mrs. Norman stayed at the Statler Hotel and after it closed on Friday, she went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Stewart on Webster street where she was a guest until her return home on Monday.

WOW Log Rolling Set For Saturday

A large group from Woodman Camp 15 and Woodman Circle 146 are planning to attend the Semi-annual Log Rolling Convention to be held on Hendersonville Saturday, May 31, and Sunday, June 1.

Registration will start at 3 p. m. and after separate meetings, the two groups will come together for a session at which time Honorable Charles A. Hines of Greensboro will be the speaker.

The convention promises to be one of the best held with a number of distinguished guests, including National President Farrar Newberry and five of his official staff, to be present.

A banquet for both WOW delegates and Circle representatives with Max E. Hurt, National Treasurer, as speaker, will be held at 7:30 at the First Methodist church followed by a dance at the High school gymnasium.

On Sunday, a drinking fountain and plaque which has been erected in memory of the late Joseph Cullen Root, who founded the Woodmen of the World in 1890 will be unveiled and presented to the city of Hendersonville in a ceremony which scheduled for 3 o'clock. The presentation will take place on Main Street at the spot where Mr. Root died in 1913. This ceremony will be broadcast over the Mutual Network, which includes in its station, WOHS in Shelby.

Attends Service At Washington Cathedral

While in Washington last week as a delegate to the Continental Congress of the Daughters of The American Revolution, Mrs. J. S. Norman attended the service of The Massing Of The Colors held in the amphitheatre of Washington Cathedral.

This impressive service, which is an annual event, is in commemoration of the honored dead of all wars and is sponsored by The Military Order of the World Wars and Washington Cathedral.

A hundred organizations participate in the spectacular ceremony, a few of which are American Legion and Auxiliary, American Red Cross, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, DAR, UDC, PTA, Veterans of Foreign Wars and The Salvation Army.

At this year's service, the address was made by Honorable Clyde R. Hoey, Senator from North Carolina and former Governor of the State.

Housewarming Held At Henderson Home

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Henderson were hosts on Saturday evening at a house warming given in their attractive new home on Ridge street. Charming use was made of roses, geraniums and ruffled petunias to decorate throughout the house.

Mrs. Bright Blackwell received at the door and directed the guests to the register. After callers were shown the entire house they were invited to the refreshment room where the table, covered with a lovely linen cloth, was centered with a large crystal punch bowl which was surrounded by various attractive and tasty tidbits. Mrs. J. W. Webster presided at the punch bowl.

Around 35 guests called between six and nine o'clock and the hosts were the recipients of many handsome and useful gifts.

UDC Heard Report From District Meet

The Kings Mountain Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, held its May meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles S. Fulton with Mrs. E. L. Campbell serving as joint hostess.

A gorgeous Madonna lily, bearing ten blooms, which Mrs. Fulton had brought from Palm Harbor, Fla., along with pretty arrangements of jasmine and sweetpeas made the Fulton home unusually lovely for the occasion.

Mrs. P. D. Herndon, the president, opened the meeting, after which the group was led in prayer by the chaplain, Mrs. E. L. Campbell.

After routine business had been dispatched, a report from the district meeting held in Shelby May 16 was given by Mrs. Bill Howard. A competent speaker, Mrs. Howard, presented the report in an admirable manner which held the interest of all present.

Following the program, the hostesses served an enticing salad with accessories and a chilled drink.

There were nine members and one visitor, Mrs. Garland Winkler, present.

CONGRATULATIONS, GRADUATES

Graduation is an important day. A diploma means much, not of itself, but the amount of work and teaching that has gone into each particular one. Our best wishes to each graduate in his or her future activities along the road of life.
