Mrs. Lynch Honored At Surprise Party

Mrs. Haywood E. Lynch was delightfully honored on the occasion of her birthday anniversary last Saturday at a surprise party given by her daughter, Miss Betty Lynch.

When Mrs. Lynch returned to her home Saturday afternoon after having been lured away by Mr. Lynch, she found sixteen well-wishing guests who, on her entry, began singing "Happy Birthday."

The home was very lovely for the party with roses and larkspur in profusion being used in all the rooms.

Four tables were arranged for bridge and after four progressions, score prizes were awarded to Mrs. J. A. Neisler and Mrs. Jay Patterson.

After the game, the honoree and guests were invited to a dining room where the party cake, a beautiful creation frosted in white with pink frosting roses scattered over the two tiers, centered the table which was piled high with gifts. With guests grouped around her, Mrs. Lynch opened her gifts and cut the first slice of cake.

On their return to the tables, guests were served an attractive plate of the cake, ice cream molded in green and white and fixed nuts with a sweetheart rose adding a charming note to each plate.

Betty was assisted in giving the party by her sisters, Jean and Lottie Lynch, and Ann Mayes.

Guests at the festive party were Mesdames Charles Thomason, Sr., W. R. Craig, Fred Plunk, M. A. Ware, Charles Warlick, Jay Patterson, J. A. Kiser, Halbert Webb, Jacob Cooper, Byron Keeter, W. K. Mauney, Jr., Hunter Neisler, Carl Mauney, Aubrey Mauney, J. A. Neisler, and Carl Mayes.
