Misses McClain Honor Couple At Dinner

Misses Rachel and Martha McClain were hostesses on Tuesday evening at a dinner and theatre party honoring Miss Pauline Ware and Menzell Phifer, whose wedding will be an event of next Tuesday.

Pretty arrangements of mixed cut flowers were used to enhance the beauty of the McClain home and the three small tables which were used for dinner looked especially attractive with dainty vases holding scabious and gerberas centering each of them. Miss Ware's place was marked with a lovely corsage.

After serving a three course dinner, the hostesses presented Miss Ware a gift of silver in her bridal pattern.

Following the dinner, the guests were taken to the theatre to complete the evening's entertainment.

Covers were laid for Miss Ware, Mr. Phifer, Misses Helen Ramsey, Diane Gamble, Irene Allen, Jean McClain, the hostesses, Garrison Goforth, Alex Owens, Bill Page and Norman McGill.

Buffet Dinner Honors Miss Ware, Mr. Phifer

A buffet dinner was given on Friday night of last week by Miss Doris Phifer at the Phifer home on Gold street, honoring Miss Pauline Ware and Menzell Phifer, whose wedding will take place Wednesday, June 25.

The dining room was charming with a color note of green and white, with magnolias and gardenias interspersed with fern forming a pretty background. The dining table, graced with a lace cloth, was centered with a miniature bridal couple, flanked by lighted candles in crystal holders.

Candlelight was used entirely here where guests served themselves from the buffet, afterwards finding their places at card tables which were arranged in the living room and adjoining room. Each place was marked with a diminutive bride which also served as a nut cup. The table of the bride-elect was marked with a corsage of white carnations. Flowers in varying colors were artistically arranged in the two rooms.

Miss Phifer presented the honor couple a handsome gift.

The hostess was assisted in serving the 22 guests by her mother, Mrs. Campbell Phifer, and her aunt, Mrs. W. S. Fulton.

Butchy Houser Feted At Birthday Party

"Butchy" Houser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Houser, was paid charming compliment on her ninth birthday anniversary June 12 at a pretty party given by her mother.

As the young guests arrived, they were each presented a gaily colored party hat and a firetruck whistle with which to add merriment to the celebration.

A number of games and contests were enjoyed during the afternoon with prizes being won by Anne Elise Stender, Phyllis Ware, Mike Houser, and Billy Bird Crawford.

After the games the guests were invited to the dining room for the traditional extinguishing of the birthday candles. The dining table was centered with a birthday cake, beautifully created in two tiers and frosted in white and pink, topped with nine glowing pink candles in bluebird holders.

"Butchy" received many attractive and useful gifts and after they had all been viewed, she and the other young celebrants were served cake, ice cream, salted nuts and Coca-Cola.

Miss Ware Reveals Her Wedding Plans

Miss Pauline Ware, whose marriage to Menzell N. Phifer will take place June 25 at 8:30 revealed today the plans for her wedding.

The wedding, which promises to be one of the prettiest of the season, will be solemnized at Oak Grove Baptist church, with the pastor, Rev. T. W. Fogleman, reading the ritual, using the double ring ceremony.

Miss Ware will be attended by her sister, Mrs. W. F. Stone, jr., as matron-of-honor, Miss Helen Ramsey as maid-of-honor, Misses Peggy Wilson, Patty Ware, of Washington, Melba Watterson and Doris Phifer as bridesmaids and Misses Annette Ware and Wanda Ware of Winston-Salem as junior bridesmaids.

Marriott Phifer will serve his brother as best man and ushers will be Bill Page, Garrison Goforth, Wendell Phifer and Walter Ware.

Towels and toweling will be the third largest domestic and use market for cotton by 1950, according to the National Cotton Council, unless an increase in cotton prices gives other fibers a stronger competitive position than they now enjoy.

Baptist YWA Group Honors Bride-Elect

Mrs. J. C. Bridges entertained for the first time in her new home on Monday night when she was hostess to the Attie Bostick YWA of the First Baptist church.

The house was gay with summer flowers.

After the regular business period conducted by Miss Martha McClain, president, the group participated in the program and offering concerning the Heck-Jones Memorial Fund, a project of the Baptist Women of North Carolina. The offering of the 19 girls was $30.00.

Following the program Miss Kat Hill, bride-elect of this month, was honored during a social hour. Several bridal games were enjoyed by the group and the honoree was presented with a surprise shower of kitchen linen after which the hostess served a delightful desert course.

Those present included Miss Hill, Misses Martha, Rachael and Jean McClain, Margaret and Virginia Cole, Mrs. Davis Betty Hayes, Betty Hoyle, Carolyn McEwen, Peggy Smith, Beth Ford, Frances Edens, Myrtice Weaver, Emogene Bridges, Maxine Horst, Joann Black, and Gladys Sexton.

Miss Timms Honored At Birthday Dance

Miss Audrey Timms was delightfully honored last Friday evening at a charming dance given at the Woman's Club house by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Timms, on the occasion of her seventeenth birthday anniversary.

Looking very attractive in a white gown with which she wore a corsage of red roses, Miss Timms greeted her guests and directed them to the ballroom, which was beautifully decorated for the affair with wide streamers of crepe paper in pastel shades gracefully draped from the overhead lights to the tops of the windows.

During intermission, the guests were served punch, cookies and nuts from a refreshment table which was arranged at one end of the room. The table was covered with a white damask cloth and centered by a lovely crystal punch bowl. Crystal dishes placed at either side of the bowl held the cookies and nuts.

Chaperones for the dance were the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Timms and Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hufstetler.
